Return To Life A New Look At The Portrait Bust:

Return to Life, 2000 The Portrait Bust and French Cultural Politics in the Eighteenth Century Ronit Milano, 2015-02-24 In The Portrait Bust and French Cultural Politics in the Eighteenth Century Ronit Milano probes the rich and complex aesthetic and intellectual charge of a remarkably concise art form and explores its role as a powerful agent of epistemological change during one of the most seismic moments in French history The pre Revolutionary portrait bust was inextricably tied to the formation of modern selfhood and to the construction of individual identity during the Enlightenment while positioning both sitters and viewers as part of a collective of individuals who together formed French society In analyzing the contribution of the portrait bust to the construction of interiority and the formulation of new gender roles and political ideals this book touches upon a set of concerns that constitute the very core of our modernity Return to Life Penelope Curtis, Peter Funnell, Nicola Kalinsky, Henry Moore Institute (Leeds, England), National Portrait Gallery (Great Britain), Scottish National Portrait Gallery, 2001 The Poetics of Transubstantiation Douglas Burnham, 2017-03-02 The essays in this collection explore the concept of transubstantiation its adaptations and transformations in English and European culture from the Elizabethans to the twentieth century Favoring an interartistic and comparative perspective a wide range of critical approaches from the philosophical to the semiological from cultural materialism to gender and queer studies are brought to bear on authors ranging from Descartes Shakespeare and Joyce to Macpherson Madox Ford and Winterson as well as on contemporary sculpture and an Italian adaptation of Conrad for the screen in an unusually comic vein The volume edited by Douglas Burnham of Staffordshire University and by Enrico Giaccherini of Pisa University will be of interest to those concerned with the cultural history of Christianity and with the remarkable critical and theoretical insights generated by contemporary approaches to this traditional theme Burning Bright Diana Dethloff, Caroline Elam, Tessa Murdoch, Kim Sloan, 2015-09-11 This book celebrates the work and career of the internationally renowned art historian David Bindman on the occasion of his 75th birthday and is above all a tribute to him from his former students and colleagues Portraiture Shearer West, 2004-04-08 This fascinating new book explores the world of portraiture from a number of vantage points and asks key questions about its nature How has portraiture changed over the centuries How have portraits represented their subjects and how have they been interpreted Issues of identity modernity and gender are considered within a cultural and historical context Shearer West uncovers much intriguing detail about a genre that has often been seen as purely representational featuring examples from African tribes to Renaissance princes and from stars such as David and Victoria Beckham to ordinary people In the process she shows us how to communicate with the past in an exciting new way Models Soraya de Chadarevian, Nick Hopwood, 2004 Now that 3 D models are so often digital displays on flat screens it is timely to look back at the solid models that were once the third dimension of science This book is about wooden ships and plastic molecules wax bodies and a perspex economy monuments in cork and mathematics in plaster casts of diseases habitat dioramas and extinct monsters rebuilt in bricks and mortar These remarkable artefacts were fixtures of laboratories and lecture halls studios and workshops dockyards and museums Considering such objects together for the first time this interdisciplinary volume demonstrates how in research as well as in teaching 3 D models played major roles in making knowledge Accessible and original chapters by leading scholars highlight the special properties of models explore the interplay between representation in two dimensions and three and investigate the shift to modelling with computers The book is fascinating reading for anyone interested in the sciences medicine and technology and in collections and museums

Classical Sculpture and the Culture of Collecting in Britain Since 1760 Vicky Coltman,2009-08-06 This is an illustrated study of the reception of classical sculptures in the early modern period Vicky Coltman contrasts the culture of British 18th century collecting which integrated sculpture into the domestic interior with the focus upon individual specimens by archaeologists like Adolf Michaelis a century later The Anatomy Museum Elizabeth Hallam,2008 Anatomy museums around the world showcase preserved corpses in service of education and medical advancement but they are little known and have been largely hidden from the public eye Elizabeth Hallam here investigates the anatomy museum and how it reveals the fascination and fears that surround the dead body in Western societies Hallam explores the history of these museums and how they operate in the current cultural environment Their regulated access increasingly clashes with evolving public mores toward the exposed body as demonstrated by the international popularity of the Body Worlds exhibition The book examines such related topics as artistic works that employ the images of dead bodies and the larger ongoing debate over the disposal of corpses Issues such as aesthetics and science organ and body donations and the dead body in Western religion and ritual are also discussed here in fascinating depth The Anatomy Museum unearths a strange and compelling cultural history that investigates the ideas of preservation human rituals of death and the spaces that our bodies occupy in this life and beyond Return to Life ,2000 Newton Patricia Fara,2002 Fara argues that Newton s posthumous fame was linked to the rise of science as a powerful cultural force and that his escalating status for followers was used to promote the development of scientific reasoning in society Playing with Fire James David Draper,Guilhem Scherf,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2004 European sculptors of the Neoclassical period often modelled their works in clay before producing finished pieces in marble This book offers a comprehensive overview of Neoclassical terracotta models by European artists featuring the works of Pajou Houdon and Canova among many others Races of Mankind Marianne Kinkel,2011 In 1930 Chicago s Field Museum of Natural History commissioned sculptor Malvina Hoffman to produce three dimensional models of racial types for an anthropology display called the Races of Mankind In this exceptional study Marianne Kinkel measures the colossal impact of the ninety one bronze and stone sculptures on perceptions of race in twentieth century visual culture tracing their exhibition from their 1933 debut and nearly four decades at the Field Museum to numerous reuses repackagings reproductions and publications that reached across the world Front flap of book jacket

Alfred Gilbert's Aestheticism Jason Edwards, 2017-07-05 Alfred Gilbert's Aestheticism presents the first sustained re-evaluation of the life and work of one of the most acclaimed sculptors of the late Victorian period. Drawing on important new archival sources, this ground-breaking study challenges the customary assumption that Aestheticism was primarily a literary, painterly, or architectural phenomena. Jason Edwards reveals both the diverse ways in which Gilbert's sculptures operated within the context of Aestheticism and also how these works provided a unique and provocative commentary on the history of masculine friendship and eroticism in the period leading up to and beyond the Wilde trials in 1895. Detailed readings are offered of the relationship of Gilbert's work to essays by Pater and Swinburne, poems, plays, and novels by Wilde and W. S. Gilbert, and paintings by Burne-Jones, Leighton, Rossetti, Solomon, Whistler, and Watts. With over 90 illustrations, including key contemporary photographs showing Gilbert's works in their original contexts, this book makes a major contribution to the field of Victorian sculpture studies.

Twelve Caesars Mary Beard, 2021-09-28 From the bestselling author of SPQR: A History of Ancient Rome, the fascinating story of how images of Roman autocrats have influenced art, culture, and the representation of power for more than 2,000 years. What does the face of power look like? Who gets commemorated in art and why? And how do we react to statues of politicians we deplore? In this book, against a background of today's sculpture wars, Mary Beard tells the story of how, for more than two millennia, portraits of the rich, powerful, and famous in the Western world have been shaped by the image of Roman emperors, especially the Twelve Caesars, from the ruthless Julius Caesar to the fly-torturing Domitian. Twelve Caesars asks why these murderous autocrats have loomed so large in art from antiquity and the Renaissance to today, when hapless leaders are still caricatured as Nero's fiddling while Rome burns. Beginning with the importance of imperial portraits in Roman politics, this richly illustrated book offers a tour through 2,000 years of art and cultural history, presenting a fresh look at works by artists from Memling and Mantegna to the nineteenth-century American sculptor Edmonia Lewis, as well as by generations of weavers, cabinetmakers, silversmiths, printers, and ceramicists. Rather than a story of a simple repetition of stable, blandly conservative images of imperial men and women, Twelve Caesars is an unexpected tale of changing identities, clueless or deliberate misidentifications, fakes, and often ambivalent representations of authority. From Beard's reconstruction of Titian's extraordinary lost Room of the Emperors to her reinterpretation of Henry VIII's famous Caesarian tapestries, Twelve Caesars includes fascinating detective work and offers a gripping story of some of the most challenging and disturbing portraits of power ever created. Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts, National Gallery of Art, Washington, DC.

Designing the French Interior Anca I. Lasc, Georgina Downey, Mark Taylor, 2015-10-22 Designing the French Interior traces France's central role in the development of the modern domestic interior from the pre-revolutionary period to the 1970s and addresses the importance of various media, including drawings, prints, pattern books, illustrated magazines, department store catalogs, photographs, guidebooks, and films, in representing and promoting French interior design to a wider audience. Contributors to this original volume identify and historicize the singularity of the modern French domestic interior as a generator of reproducible images a site for display of both highly crafted and mass produced objects and the direct result of widely circulated imagery in its own right This important volume enables an invaluable new understanding of the relationship between architecture interior spaces material cultures mass media and modernity Naked Portrait, The: 1900 - 2007 Martin Hammer, National Galleries of Scotland, 2007-07-04 Reveals the history of naked portraiture comparing artworks and photographs Sculpture in 20th Century Britain: Identity, infrastructures, aesthetics, display, reception Henry Moore Institute (Leeds, England), 2003

Citizens and Kings Royal Academy of Arts (Great Britain), 2007-05 Portraiture was at a crossroads from 1770 1830 a period when the influence of monarchs and aristocrats waned in favor of the new pioneers of democracy This catalogue traces the evolving presentation of the portrait sitter with sumptuous full color reproductions of works by masters presented alongside lesser known but equally intriguing pieces An international team of scholars provides valuable information on sitters as well as artists plus discussions of key works from the Enlightenment and revolutionary period Second Sight Robert Hopper, Henry Moore Foundation, 2001

Embracing the Tune of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within Return To Life A New Look At The Portrait Bust

In some sort of consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of immediate interaction, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony produced by the published term often fade into the background, eclipsed by the constant sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, located within the pages of Return To Life A New Look At The Portrait Bust a marvelous fictional prize brimming with fresh feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an outstanding musician of language, this charming masterpiece conducts viewers on a psychological trip, well unraveling the concealed songs and profound affect resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of the emotional review, we will investigate the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing style, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
