Return To Morocco:

Return to Casablanca André Levy, 2015-11-04 Moroccan born Israeli anthropologist Andre Levy here presents a deeply nuanced and highly readable study of the relations between Moroccan Jews and Muslims past and present Levy's return to his birthplace in Casablanca proceeds through several interrelated settings There is the first encounter of return fraught with fear and uncertainty when as an Israeli arriving with papers granted by a third nation to come back to a country that has both repelled him and encouraged his permanent return he finds his worries multiplied by the events of the Gulf War As if he were behind enemy lines he approaches everything with understandable trepidation only to discover directly what he had long known intellectually that Morocco continues to relate to its Jewish population with all the features of its historic ambivalence and ambiguity on full display As he moves through the different contexts and domains of his return he addresses these factors in ways both personal and analytic As the book progresses the reader is introduced to a variety of other contexts of the Moroccan Jewish experience From the card players and beach etiquette to the shared use of public baths and the visits by Muslims to Jewish ritual events the reader catches the sense of old patterns now approached with great wariness by a population that is much diminished both in size and in the daily experience of the dominant Muslim population Moroccan Voyage is an exceptional read and should be ideal for use in a variety of courses in anthropology Jewish studies and Middle East studies

Migration and Transformation: Pirkko Pitkänen, Ahmet İçduygu, Deniz Sert, 2012-04-14 People's transnational ties and activities are acquiring ever greater importance and topicality in today's world The focus of this book lies in the complex and multi level processes of migrant transnationalism in four transnational spaces India UK Morocco France and Turkey Germany and Estonia Finland The main question is how people's activities across national borders emerge function and change and how are they related to the processes of governance in increasingly complex and interconnected world The book is based on the findings of a three year research project TRANS NET which brought together internationally acknowledged experts from Europe Asia and Africa As no single discipline could investigate all the components of the topic in question the project adopted a multi disciplinary approach among the contributors there are sociologists policy analysts political scientists social and cultural anthropologists educational scientists and economists The chapters show that people's transnational linkages and migration across national boundaries entail manifold political economic social cultural and educational implications

Although political social economic educational transformations fostered by migrant transnationalism constitute the main topic of the book the starting assumption is that the large scale institutional and actor centred patterns of transformation come about through a constellation of parallel processes Western Sahara Investment and Business Guide Volume 1 Strategic and Practical Information IBP USA,2013-08 Western Sahara Investment and Business Guide Strategic and Practical Information Moroccan Cinema Uncut Higbee Will Higbee,2020-08-18 Moroccan film production has increased rapidly since the late 2000s and Morocco is a thriving service production hub for international film and television Taking a transnational approach to Moroccan cinema this book examines diversity in its production models its barriers to international distribution and success its key markets and audiences as well as the consequences of digital disruption upon it Return, Reintegration and Re-migration Understanding Return Dynamics and the Role of Family and Community OECD,2024-01-31 The report draws on three workshops held in Tunis Rabat and Brussels that discussed return migration in different contexts It examines the multiple factors that influence migrants decisions to return to their countries of origin and their reintegration at home including the role of family and community Western Sahara Country Study Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP USA,2013-08 Western Sahara Country Study Guide Strategic Information and Developments The International Handbook on Gender, Migration and Transnationalism Laura Oso,Natalia Ribas-Mateos,2013-01-01 The highly unique International Handbook on Gender Migration and Transnationalism represents a state of the art review of the critical importance of the links between gender and migration in a globalizing world It draws on original largely field based contributions by authors across a range of disciplinary provenances worldwide This unprecedented and ambitious Handbook addresses core debates on issues of gender migration transnationalism and development from a migrationdevelopment nexus Using an analytical approach it explores the influence of global changes namely the analysis of transnational migration flows from the perspective of the articulation of production and reproduction chains Particular attention is paid to so called global care chains with new models developed around the emerging trends played out by women in contemporary mobility flows This path breaking Handbook will provide a thought provoking read for a multidisciplinary audience of academics researchers and students of social science disciplines encompassing economics sociology geography demography political science and political sociology migration studies family and gender studies and labour markets The Handbook will also be of major interest to and importance for local and national governments international agencies and their policymakers and administrators British Guiana Boundary Great Britain,1898

Revisiting Moroccan Migrations Mohammed Berriane,Hein De Haas,Katharina Natter,2018-02-02 Over the 20th century Morocco has become one of the world s major emigration countries But since 2000 growing immigration and settlement of migrants from sub Saharan Africa the Middle East and Europe confronts Morocco with an entirely new set of social cultural political and legal issues This book explores how continued emigration and increasing immigration is transforming contemporary Moroccan society with a particular emphasis on the way the Moroccan state is dealing with shifting migratory realities The authors of this collective volume embark on a dialogue between theory and empirical research showcasing how contemporary migration theories help understanding recent trends in Moroccan migration and vice versa how the specific Moroccan case enriches migration theory This perspective helps to overcome the still predominant Western centric research view that artificially divide the world into receiving and sending countries and largely disregards the dynamics of and experiences with migration in countries in the Global South This book was previously published as a special issue of The Journal of North African Studies Current Literature ,1903 Current Opinion ... Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Frank Crane, 1903 Annual Report of the Secretary of Internal Affairs of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Pennsylvania. Bureau of Industrial Statistics, 1888 Not Just a Victim: The Child as Catalyst and Witness of Contemporary Africa Sandra Evers, Catrien Notermans, Erik van Ommering, 2011-05-13 Social scientists examining contemporary Africa take considerable pains to resist portraying Africa as nothing more than a land of victims unable to escape historical cycles of war exploitation and tyranny However children are still frequently conceptualised as passive actors mere extensions of adult societies and receptors of culture The authors in this volume argue that children are dynamic contributors to the shaping of contemporary Africa Through novel and unorthodox ethnographic research methods each chapter provides insights into children s perspectives on kinship work caring health migration and conflict shedding light on children s views and the vital roles they play in the emerging Africa of tomorrow Return Migration to the Maghreb Richard Ivor Lawless, Allan M. Findlay, Anne Margaret Findlay, 1982 Parental Child Abduction to Islamic Law Countries Nazia Yaqub, 2022-10-20 As the world becomes smaller family law is becoming truly global giving rise to more and more questions for private international law This book looks at the sensitive and complex question of child abduction with a unique child rights perspective Taking Islamic law as its case study it delves into child abduction in key jurisdictions from Iran to Saudi Arabia and Libya to Pakistan Rigorous doctrinal analysis is enhanced by empirical insights namely interviews with abductees parents and professionals It is an excellent guide to a complicated field Catalogue Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge, 1904 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair, Rebecca Fasselt, Carly McLaughlin, 2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global

South and on migration literature's relevance in social contexts outside the academy. Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship. This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields. Returns at Any Cost Simone Troller, Human Rights Watch (Organization), 2008. This 22-page report says that in Andalusia, the southern region that is a common entry point for migrants, authorities have said they intend to send up to 1,000 unaccompanied children in their custody to Morocco, claiming that safeguards are in place. But officials could not explain how they determined it was in a child's best interest to return as required by law. They also said that the Moroccan government's agreement to take a child back was in itself a sufficient guarantee of the child's well-being after return.
