Return To Paris A Memoir With Recipes:

Return to Paris Colette Rossant, 2010-05-11 Paris 1947 Colette Rossant returns to Paris after waiting out World War II in Cairo among her father's Egyptian Jewish relatives. Initially the City of Light seems gray and forbidding to the teenage Colette especially after her thrill-seeking mother leaves her in the care of her bitter malais grandmother. Yet Paris will prove the place where Colette awakens to her senses. Taken under the wing of Mademoiselle Georgette the family chef she develops a taste and talent for French cooking. The streets of Paris soon become Colette's own as she navigates the outdoor markets and caf menus and emerges into her new gastronomical self. Return to Paris is an extraordinary coming-of-age story that charts the course of Colette's culinary adventures replete with expertly crafted recipes and family photographs. An exploration of passion in all its flavor and texture, Colette's memoir will live in the hearts and palates of readers for years to come.

Return to Paris Colette Rossant, 2004 1947 and Paris is recovering from the war. Abandoned by her mother lonely frightened and terribly homesick Colette finds solace in her love for French food: roasted lamb stuffed with garlic springtime strawberries bathed in creme fraiche the first taste of truffle in a Left Bank restaurant.

Kamal, 2024-11-01 This book examines what Amr Kamal calls the phenomenon of emporialism or the convergence between the spaces and imaginaries of empires and emporia in the context of a modern Mediterranean divided among the British French and Ottoman empires. By emporia Kamal refers to the commercial network of nineteenth century department stores which gained prominence after the Suez Canal project. Taking as a focal point French and Egyptian department stores the author examines emporialism as a set of phenomenological experiences discursive and social praxes and mechanisms of control and resistance born from the intersection of modernity colonialism and mass consumption. Drawing on archival evidence Kamal reads iconographic and literary representations of emporia in English French Arabic and Hebrew from the nineteenth century to the present addressing works by mile Zola Huda Shaarawi Jacqueline Kahanoff and others. Emporialism Kamal argues served to rewrite the history of the Mediterranean to reinvent national belonging and to interrogate issues of modernity and social justice.
