Return To Splendor In The World The Christian Doctrine Of Sin And Forgiveness:

Forgiveness and Truth Alistair McFadyen, Marcel Sarot, 2002-01-01 An international group of theologians considers the importance of forgiveness and truth in the modern world Dogmatic and practical theological themes are addressed including Christology and atonement forgiving abusive parents the economics of forgiveness forgiveness in Northern Ireland and shame sin and guilt Contributors include Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger Peter Selby Christopher Jones Fraser Watts Peter Sedgwick Jane Craske Todd Pokrifka Joe Nico Schreurs Alwyn Thompson and David Self Outline of Christian Doctrine Wilfried Harle, 2015-04-14 In this book Wilfried Harle so distills Protestant Christian teaching as to bring fresh insight both to new students and to experienced readers of systematic theology Outline of Christian Doctrine however is not merely a translation of Harle's classic German text Nicholas Sagovsky has also entirely adapted the original work to the needs and resources of English speaking readers Biblically rooted contextually sensitive alert to philosophical issues and relevant with respect to debates about the world as we know it today Harle's Outline of Christian Doctrine An Evangelical Dogmatics is an ideal contemporary theology book for both class use and individual study Biblical Boundaries of Forgiveness Vee Chandler, 2021-11-23 In this well researched and ethical study Vee Chandler combines insight gathered from the writings of scholars and Christian philosophers with personal observations and biblical perspectives to examine the nature and value of forgiveness and help those struggling with the concepts of repentance forgiveness and reconciliation Chandler begins by exploring key questions such as When does God forgive and not forgive and What is God's wrath and mercy and then attempts to answer these questions by first defining terms according to their scriptural usage She then examines the relationship between repentance forgiveness and reconciliation according to the biblical model In the second section Chandler exegetically scrutinizes scriptural texts related to interpersonal forgiveness as well as passages concerning how God's people should relate to their enemies and to evil persons Finally Chandler examines the ethics of forgiveness from a moral and philosophical point of view and ultimately establishes a model for forgiveness and reconciliation based on the biblical pattern and defended from a logical and ethical perspective Biblical Boundaries of Forgiveness embraces the contribution of Christian philosophers while examining the nature and value of forgiveness from spiritual and moral viewpoints In Adam's Fall Ian A. McFarland, 2010-10-18 IN ADAM'S FALL Few doctrines of Christian teaching are more controversial than original sin For how is it possible to affirm the universality of sin without losing sight of the distinct ways in which individuals are both responsible for and suffer the consequences of sinful behavior In considering the Christian doctrine of original sin McFarland challenges many prevailing views about it He shows us that traditional Christian convictions regarding humanity's congenital sinfulness neither undermine the moral accountability of sin's perpetrators nor dampen concern for its victims Responding to both historic and contemporary criticism of the doctrine In Adam's Fall reveals how the concept of original sin is not only theologically defensible but stimulating and productive for a life of faith Drawing on both the classical formulations of Augustine and the Christology of Maximus the Confessor McFarland proposes a radical reconstruction of the doctrine of original sin one that not only challenges contemporary Western visions of human autonomy but emphasizes the integrity of each individual called by God to a unique and irreplaceable destiny Engagingly written and infused with scholarly sophistication In Adam's Fall offers refreshingly original insights into the contemporary relevance of a doctrine of Christian teaching that has inspired fierce debate for over 1 500 years      Biblical Boundaries of Forgiveness Vee Chandler PhD,2018-11-02 In a well researched and ethical study Vee Chandler PhD combines insight gathered from the writings of scholars and Christian philosophers with personal observations and biblical perspectives to examine the nature and value of forgiveness and help those struggling with the concepts of repentance forgiveness and reconciliation Dr Chandler begins by exploring key questions such as When does God forgive and not forgive and What is God's wrath and mercy and then attempts to answer these questions by first defining terms according to their scriptural usage and then examining the relationship between repentance forgiveness and reconciliation according to the biblical model In the second section Dr Chandler exegetically scrutinizes scriptural texts related to interpersonal forgiveness as well as passages concerning how God's people should relate to their enemies and to evil persons In conclusion Dr Chandler examines the ethics of forgiveness from a moral and philosophical point of view and ultimately establishes a model for forgiveness and reconciliation based on the biblical pattern and defended from a logical and ethical perspective Biblical Boundaries of Forgiveness embraces the contribution of Christian philosophers while examining the nature and value of forgiveness from spiritual and moral viewpoints      Salvation in Melanesia Michael Press,2020-06-15 Salvation in Melanesia explores the views of salvation held by Methodist Lutheran and Pentecostal Christians in Fiji and Papua New Guinea uncovering the ways in which a Protestant theology of unconditional salvation through God's judgment and grace has been combined with traditional Melanesian religious concepts of reciprocity retribution and obedience to cultural laws While Pentecostal churches have offered new experiences of transformation by rejecting what they regard as the mingling of Melanesian culture with Christianity in other churches they have also kept certain elements of traditional Melanesian spirituality Meanwhile today economic globalization and secularization result in new questions about the relationship between the people the leaders the land and God Michael Press uses mission sources and interviews to describe the different concepts of mission their reception the main images of God and the relationship between religion and culture in Melanesian churches as well as the factors that support or hinder personal transformation      Desire, Gift, and Recognition Jan-Olav Henriksen,2009-02-15 A major work in the philosophy of religion this book interprets the Jesus story in terms of postmodern philosophy particularly using Jacques Derrida's categories of desire gift and recognition Author Jan Olav Henriksen also attempts to reformulate Christology without resorting to such metaphysical concepts as substance transcendence etc While not denying traditional doctrines Henriksen explicates the meaning of Jesus life and death in ways that engage contemporary philosophy and challenge contemporary academic Christians to rethink the basics of their faith and he outlines the possibility of a post metaphysical Christology Henriksen's book is a clearly reasoned guide not only to the argument that Christology still has something to say to contemporary believers but also to ways in which theologians must learn to reconnect to everyday human experience

Greed as Idolatry Brian S. Rosner, 2007-08-28 What are the origin and meaning of the words greed is idolatry found in Ephesians 5:5 and Colossians 3:5 In what sense are the greedy guilty of idolatry Many different answers have been given to this question throughout the history of interpretation In fact a consensus exists on only one score that the expression serves to vilify greed Brian Rosner ably takes on the challenge of interpretation by tackling the phrase as a metaphor structuring his argument around an intriguing comparison to mountain climbing From this vantage point he offers a thorough history of interpretation of the phrase including a study of the origin of the concept of idolatrous greed in biblical and Jewish sources Rosner concludes that the comparison of greed with idolatry teaches that to desire to acquire and keep for oneself more money and material things is an attack on God's exclusive right to human love trust and obedience With this work comes a stunning fresh understanding of familiar terms greed idolatry and even God challenging both the church as a whole and individual believers to consider the far ranging implications of our materialistic world The first full length study of this intriguing Pauline expression Greed as Idolatry has profound implications for theological ethics today

Original Sin and the Fall J. B. Stump, Chad Meister, 2020-06-30 Throughout the church's history Christians have disagreed over many particular questions surrounding humanity's fall In this Spectrum Multiview book contributors present five views on these questions Augustinian Reformed Moderate Reformed Wesleyan Eastern Orthodox and a Reconceived view offering both an articulation of their own view and responses to the others

Scientific Theology: Nature Alister E. McGrath, 2007-01-23 A Scientific Theology is a groundbreaking work of systematic theology in three volumes Nature Reality and Theory Now available as a three volume set

The Second Letter to the Corinthians Mark A. Seifrid, 2014-10-17 Newest volume in the acclaimed Pillar New Testament Commentary series The question that Paul set before the ancient church in Corinth Do you not recognize that Jesus Christ is in and among you 2 Cor 13:5 remains a critical question for the church today This commentary by Mark Seifrid seeks to hear Paul's message afresh and communicate it to our time Seifrid offers a unified reading of 2 Corinthians which has often been regarded as a composite of excerpts and fragments He argues that Paul's message is directed at the practical atheism of the Corinthian church the hidden heresy that assumes God's saving work in the world may be measured by outward standards of success and achievement Like all of the Pillar volumes Seifrid's commentary on 2 Corinthians offers careful grammatical analysis and exegesis with clear pastoral application

Loving God with Our Minds Michael Welker, 2004-11-15 This volume explores the challenges and possibilities facing contemporary theological inquiry Produced in honor of Wallace M Alston the book is framed around the areas of discussion that Alston as director of the Center of Theological Inquiry in Princeton New Jersey has diligently placed at the forefront of Christian reflection Written by some of today's leading Christian pastors and theologians these insightful chapters probe topics of interest to both the church and the academy In the first section Denise M Ackermann Gerhard Sauter William Schweiker Max L Stackhouse Michael Welker and Carver T Yu examine cultural social political and ethical challenges to Christian theology In the second section Don Browning Brian E Daley Botond Gal Niels Henrik Gregersen John Polkinghorne and Dirk Smit discuss theology's ongoing dialogue with the sciences and the humanities In the third section Milner S Ball L Ann Jervis John S McClure Allen C McSween Jr Patrick D Miller Jrgen Moltmann Fleming Rutledge and Virgil Thompson illuminate the role of theology in preaching and teaching In the fourth and final section of the book David Fergusson Thomas W Gillespie Colin Gunton Cynthia A Jarvis Robert W Jenson J Harold McKeithen Jr A J McKelway Daniel L Migliore look at several cutting edge themes drawn from Reformed and ecumenical theology Loving God with Our Minds unites voices from the various enterprises of the Center of Theological Inquiry from different churches from different theological and academic disciplines and from different countries across the globe The book is thus a bouquet of diverse perspectives mirroring what is so central and admirable in Wallace Alston and reflecting what he so desires to see among fellow Christians and pastor theologians loving God not only with our hearts but also with our minds Contributors Denise M Ackermann Milner S Ball Don Browning Brian E Daley David Fergusson Botond Gal Thomas W Gillespie Niels Henrik Gregersen Colin Gunton Cynthia A Jarvis Robert W Jenson L Ann Jervis John S McClure J Harold McKeithen Jr A J McKelway Allen C McSween Jr Daniel L Migliore Patrick D Miller Jrgen Moltmann John Polkinghorne Fleming Rutledge Gerhard Sauter William Schweiker Dirk Smit Max L Stackhouse Virgil Thompson Michael Welker Carver T Yu

A Scientific Theology: Nature Alister E. McGrath, 2001 A Scientific Theology is a groundbreaking work of systematic theology in three volumes Nature Reality and Theory Written by one of the world's best known theologians these volumes together represent the most extended and systematic exploration of the relation between Christian theology and the natural sciences yet produced Thoroughly ecumenical this will be a significant work for Catholic Orthodox Protestant and evangelical readers The work is marked throughout by a sustained and critical engagement with the history and philosophy of the natural sciences and by a passionate commitment to the legitimacy of theology as an academic discipline

The Return of Splendor in the World Christof Gestrinch, 1997 After being largely silent on the themes of sin and forgiveness for decades theologians are returning to these themes with renewed intensity Radical changes in contemporary society however such as the ways we experience guilt and shame and liberation from both require that we reconsider just exactly what sin is and attendant to that what forgiveness is as well Pride in oneself for example a self oriented self affirmation of one's beauty or strength which traditionally has been thought of as suspect at best is now considered essential by society for an integrated life and this emphasis has blurred the boundary between necessary self assertion and sinful self justification In addition many pressing questions arise from the contemporary scene How do the biblical concepts of sin and forgiveness relate to our therapeutic society informed as it is by psychology and the social sciences How should we view the biblical language of atonement today How does sin relate to the meaninglessness many feel in life How can we make it clear that sin includes much more than questions of sexuality and morality How must traditional dogmatic teaching on sin be reformulated to include the questions and insights of feminist theology liberation theology and economic ethics How can we talk about God human sin and evil after Auschwitz and in view of the technical possibility of mass destruction In this volume Christof Gestrinch provides a thoroughgoing examination of the doctrine of sin and forgiveness in light of these and other important questions Gestrinch first canvasses developments in the doctrine of sin and evil from the thought of Augustine to contemporary times and discusses in depth such topics as the impact of philosophy on the theological doctrines of sin and humanity the various theological interpretations of the fall and of original sin and understanding evil in our time He then turns to a discussion of the meaning and importance of the forgiveness of sins the true means to the return of splendor in the world The End of the World and the Ends of God John

Polkinghorne, Michael Welker, 2000-02-01 In this provocative collection of essays scientists theologians ethicists and biblical scholars look at eschatology through their various lenses The Eschatological Economy Douglas H. Knight, 2020-01-24

Douglas Knight has produced an ambitious engaging and creative account of the drama of redemption by changing the baseline terms in the discussion This is constructive theology of a bold and fresh kind taking seriously Israel sacrifice and an account of the problem of the human condition indebted to Irenaeus and Zizioulas It is remarkable for its timely account of the church's destiny in the world of God's urgent consummative work Christopher Seitz University of St Andrews Knight combines a rigorous and scripturally disciplined dogmatic approach with fundamental analysis of metaphysical concepts The result is an exciting and theologically motivated challenge to our modern assumptions about time and change embodiment and identity R R Reno Creighton University No attentive reader of this book can fail to be impressed by its scope boldness and sheer theological energy As he moves across the fields of historical and systematic theology biblical studies and philosophy Knight demonstrates the resources within the Christian tradition for critical analysis and hopeful reconstruction of culture This provocative book deserves to be read and debated very widely John Webster University of Aberdeen Douglas Knight is a free flowing fountain of unexpected ideas and connections Robert W Jenson Center of Theological Inquiry Princeton In the tradition of Irenaeus's Against Heresies and in conversation with leading theologians and biblical scholars this tour de force tells a grand narrative of all things coming together and coming to be in Israel Jesus Christ and the church Douglas Knight displays an impressive imagination for pulling together a dizzying variety of voices Telford Work Westmont College Dense erudite and provocative this work confirms the vitality of British indeed European doctrinal theology The reader opening to any page will be rewarded with startling and original theological insights Brian Brock University of Aberdeen Life, Love, and Hope Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2014-11-10

Taking both knowledge of evolution and belief in God as Creator into account Henriksen's Life Love and Hope articulates a vision for understanding the relationship between God and human experience in contemporary terms Henriksen maintains that evolutionary theory does not account for all that can and must be said about human life and experience Conversely he also argues that any belief in God as Creator can be informed and deepened by knowledge of evolution Publisher's website The Holy Spirit and the Church Thomas Hughson, 2019-10-28 Advancing strong scholarly discussion on the Holy Spirit and the church in the context of the ecumenical movement six theologians in five different churches offer new theological and pastoral insights into the work of the Holy Spirit in the churches of Christianity in ecumenism and in witness With The Church Towards a Common Vision World Council of Churches document serving as a common point of reference a pastoral perspective is distinctive throughout Relating theology to non theological knowledge of the contemporary cultural context as well as application to pastoral practice this book draws from and is applicable to clergy formation preaching lay discipleship church world relations social mission congregational life grass roots ecumenical cooperation and witness to Christ and the gospel by racial minorities

Representation and ultimacy : Christian religion as unfinished business Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2020-01-01 Jan Olav Henriksen investigates the close relationship between God and human beings via an understanding of religion as clusters of practices that relate humans to ultimacy by different types of representation Christian religion articulates its belief in God as creator manifest in the power to be and redeemer represented in the life and ministry of Jesus Christ Christ thus is the primary representation of God as the ultimate reality of love He is also the true image of God and the model for how humans are also called to represent God in love The human features of desire and vulnerability as these express elements that shape form and articulate challenges for human life present humans with the need for orienting themselves and for different types of transformation Christian religion articulates a specific mode of how to cope with these challenges presented by desire and vulnerability by living in love Against this backdrop Henriksen argues that neither how one understands religion God nor how to live a life that relates to ultimacy can be tasks fulfilled as long as history goes on The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 The Encyclopedia of Christianity is the first of a five volume English translation of the third revised edition of Evangelisches Kirchenlexikon Its German articles have been tailored to suit an English readership and articles of special interest to English readers have been added The encyclopedia describes Christianity through its 2000 year history within a global context taking into account other religions and philosophies A special feature is the statistical information dispersed throughout the articles on the continents and over 170 countries Social and cultural coverage is given to such issues as racism genocide and armaments while historical content shows the development of biblical and apostolic traditions This comprehensive work while scholarly is intended for a wide audience and will set the standard for reference works on Christianity Outstanding reference sources 2000 American Libraries May 2000 Comp by the Reference Sources Committee RUSA ALA
