Across the abyss...towards the light Petra Ruether, 2020-07-27 Nothing can be so bad that it cannot get better again Bruno Groening This book contains the story of a Berlin woman who almost a child got into the claws of drug addiction and lived through and endured all facets of addiction Without mincing matters she describes her life path which would have ended by a snatch in falling into the abyss if she had not been shown a way to freedom from an unexpected perspective Through the teachings of Bruno Groening she managed to free herself from addiction and became a happy and healthy person She lets the reader experience immediately what it means to be pulled out of an almost insurmountable swamp In the second part of this book the author describes with disarming frankness how she managed to show the way out of addiction and misery to young needy people With love and enthusiasm and the help of divine forces it was possible to help them on the street Thus proves that addiction in whatever form it occurs in our society is curable and gives young people of this time courage and hope to get out of hopeless situations Addicts in the clutches of darkness They are like diamonds that have fallen into a swamp they just have to be pulled out washed off and cleaned up just as it was with me Petra Ruether THE GOD OF SEX & GOLD and ROCK 'N' ROLL

Utkarsh Mohan,2019-07-24 Syd Sinnerman is the second coming of rock music dethroning pop and hip hop with his dark brooding strain of philosophic rock But few know the story of his unlikely rise to global superstardom from middle class India which is obsessed with academics or that the very secret of his success is destroying him and no it isn't alcohol or drugs High octane music and the quiet humdrum life of Kolkata brilliantly portrays the inner life of a little boy as he grows up alternately Can Syd find himself again can he put his life back together will he sing again The God of Sex and Gold and Rock n Roll set in Singapore and India explores what it takes to pursue the dreams we forget when real life hits us Billboard ,1994-04-02 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Love and Death Ross Channing Reed

PhD,2009-02-10 Philosopher Ross Reed Ph D refers to an eclectic array of thinkers in Love and Death an Existential Theory of Addiction in particular existential philosophers Soren Kierkegaard 1813 1855 and Jean Paul Sartre 1905 1980 According to Dr Reed addiction is usually the result of existential or life conditions rather than underlying physiological problems Therefore it may involve not only drugs or alcohol but also relationships belief systems activities and even emotional states Anything that can serve to deflect one's consciousness from reflectively apprehending the task of becoming oneself can serve as an object of addiction If the object is another person one might ask whether in fact addiction can masquerade as love Is it possible to believe that you are in love with someone when in fact you are merely addicted to him or her In this creative and provocative work Reed argues that Sartre's theory of love is in fact a theory of addiction Shell Shock and the Modernist Imagination Wyatt Bonikowski,2016-04-01 Looking closely at both case histories of shell shock and Modernist novels by Ford Madox Ford Rebecca West and Virginia Woolf Wyatt Bonikowski shows how the figure of the shell shocked soldier and the symptoms of war trauma were transformed by the literary imagination Situating his study with respect to Freud's concept of the death drive Bonikowski reads the repetitive symptoms of shell shocked soldiers as a resistance to representation and narrative In making this resistance part of their narratives Ford West and Woolf broaden our understanding of the traumatic effects of war exploring the possibility of a connection between the trauma of war and the trauma of sexuality Parade's End The Return of the Soldier and Mrs Dalloway are all structured around the relationship between the soldier who returns from war and the women who receive him but these novels offer no prospect for the healing effects of the union between men and women Instead the novels underscore the divisions within the home and the self drawing on the traumatic effects of shell
