Mr. Prince* John WILLIAMS (Pastor of the Church in Deerfield.),1758 A Return to the Object Susanne Küchler,Timothy Carroll,2020-11-26 This book draws on the work of anthropologist Alfred Gell to reinstate the importance of the object in art and society Rather than presenting art as a passive recipient of the artist s intention and the audience s critique the authors consider it in the social environment of its production and reception A Return to the Object introduces the historical and theoretical framework out of which an anthropology of art has emerged and examines the conditions under which it has renewed interest It also explores what art does as a social and cultural phenomenon and how it can impact alternative ways of organising and managing knowledge Making use of ethnography museological practice the intellectual history of the arts and sciences material culture studies and intangible heritage the authors present a case for the re orientation of current conversations surrounding the anthropology of art and social theory This text will be of key interest to students and scholars in the social and historical sciences arts and humanities and cognitive sciences 1947-1948 Returning to Usn Robert S. Weil,2017-10-18 After I retired from working I decided that now that my wife of thirty nine years had passed away I needed to relate about the events I experienced for the benefit of my children I had been involved in working at several jobs over my lifetime and I wanted my children to recognize what their parents had gone through I wished my own parents had been able to relate what they had seen and experienced in their lives But that was not to be They were too busy trying to raise a growing family during the trying years of the Great Depression I never agreed that there was anything great about the Depression of the 1930s Possibly this will encourage others to take time to write of their own life for their children
