Sydney Charles Buxton (1st earl.), 1891      The Family Support Group (FSG) Leaders' Handbook, 2000 This report helps Army Family Support Group FSG leaders particularly in rapid deployment units start and operate FSGs by providing them the best information from Army research family support professionals and experienced FSG leaders Although expert judgment has been exercised in the selection and presentation of available materials the ideas here are only suggested courses of action Individual FSGs are quite different from one another and most of these ideas have not been subjected to rigorous evaluations The topics covered include 1 what FSGs are expected to accomplish 2 suggestions for starting or re energizing an FSG 3 relevant Army Regulations and 4 sources of additional help in operating the FSG or for assisting FSG members      Steeped in Blood Frances J.

Latchford,2019-08-15 What personal truths reside in biological ties that are absent in adoptive ties And why do we think adoptive and biological ties are essentially different when it comes to understanding who we are At a time when interest in DNA and ancestry is exploding Frances Latchford questions the idea that knowing one s bio genealogy is integral to personal identity or a sense of family and belonging Upending our established values and beliefs about what makes a family Steeped in Blood examines the social and political devaluation of adoptive ties It takes readers on an intellectual journey through accepted wisdom about adoption twins kinship and incest and challenges our naturalistic and individualistic assumptions about identity and the biological ties that bind us sometimes violently to our families Latchford exposes how our desire for bio genealogical knowledge understood as it is by family and adoption experts pathologizes adoptees by posing the biological tie as a necessary condition for normal identity formation Rejecting the idea that a love of the self same is fundamental to family bonds her book is a reaction to the wounds families suffer whenever they dare to revel in their difference A rejoinder to rhetoric that defines adoptees adoptive kin and their family intimacies as inferior and inauthentic Steeped in Blood s view through the lens of critical adoption studies decentres our cultural obsession with the biological family imaginary and makes real the possibility of being family in the absence of blood     Handbook of Alumni Work Daniel Lindsey Grant,1925
