Revelaciones The Art Of Manuel Alvarez Bravo:

Revelaciones Manuel Alvarez Bravo, 1990      Revelaciones, 1990      Manuel Alvarez Bravo Manuel Alvarez Bravo, 2008-10-29 Over 370 tritone photographs arranged in broadly chronological order mark Alvarez Bravo's remarkable eighty-year career. Strikingly poetic and richly resonant, the collection includes iconic images as well as over thirty previously unpublished masterpieces. Urban and rural scenes, still lifes, nudes, religious and vernacular subjects, portraits of luminaries including Diego Rivera, Frida Kahlo, and Octavio Paz all illustrate the peerless acuity of the photographer's eye. Above all, Alvarez Bravo's work celebrates his beloved Mexico with its indigenous rituals and age-old customs. Jacket      Photography Fifth Edition Mary Warner Marien, 2021-06-24 The fifth edition of this indispensable history of photography spans the history of the medium from its early development to current practice and providing a focused understanding of the cultural contexts in which photographers have lived and worked throughout this remains an all-encompassing survey. Mary Warner Marien discusses photography from around the world and through the lenses of art, science, travel, war, fashion, the mass media, and individual photographers. Professional, amateur, and art photographers are all represented with Portrait boxes devoted to highlighting important individuals and Focus boxes charting particular cultural debates. Mary Warner Marien is also the author of 100 Ideas that Changed Photography and Photography Visionaries. López, 2000 This new three-volume encyclopedia features over 4,000 entries on more than 40 regions in Latin America and the Caribbean from 1920 to the present day      Art of California, 1991      The Short Story and Photography, 1880's-1980's Jane Marjorie Rabb, 1998 For over a hundred years, stories about photographs and photography have reflected the profound uncertainties and inconclusive endings of the modern world. For many writers, photography supposedly the most realistic of the arts turns out to be the most ambiguous. As Jane Rabb observes in her introduction a number of the stories in this collection involve mysteries perhaps because photography has a capacity for both documentary reality and moral and psychological ambiguity Many nineteenth century writers represented here including Thomas Hardy and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle helped make short fiction as respectable as the novel Some of them were even serious photographers themselves The twentieth century is arguably a golden age for both the short story and photography This collection includes examples from a worldly group of writer Eug ne Ionesco Julio Cort zar Michel Tournier and Italo Calvino as well as the Chinese writer Bing Xin and John Updike Cynthia Ozick and Raymond Carver In this wide range of stories varying from sentimental to obsessive to sinister to tragic and even fatal the reader will find provocative examples of the confluence of the short story and photography both once considered the bastard stepchildren of literature and art text this book will serve as a benchmark for future studies of photography in Latin America      History and Modern Media

 John Mraz, 2021-04-15 In History and Modern Media John Mraz largely focuses on Mexican photography and his innovative methodology that examines historical photographs by employing the concepts of genre and function He developed this method in extensive work on photojournalism it is tested here through examining two genres Indianist imagery as an expression of imperial neo colonizing and decolonizing photography and progressive photography as embodied in worker and laborist imagery as well as feminist and decolonizing visuality The book interweaves an autobiographical narrative with concrete research Mraz describes the resistance he encountered in US academia to this new way of showing and describing the past in films and photographs as well as some illuminating experiences as a visiting professor at several US universities More importantly he reflects on what it has meant to move to Mexico and become a Mexican Mexico is home to a thriving school of photohistorians perhaps unequaled in the world Some were trained in art history and a few continue to pursue that discipline However the great majority work from the discipline known as photohistory which focuses on vernacular photographs made outside of artistic intentions A central premise of the book is that knowing the cultures of the past and of the other is crucial in societies dominated by short term and parochial thinking and that today's hyper audiovisuality requires historians to use modern media to offer their knowledge as alternatives to the perpetual present in which we live

Photographs Sotheby's (Firm), 2004      Seeing Mexico Photographed Leonard Folgarait, 2008 This engrossing book presents the photographs of four historically engaged artists and explains what they reveal about the highly dramatic revolutionary and post revolutionary period in Mexico from 1910 to 1935 The works of these photographers American Walter H Horne Italian Tina Modotti and Mexicans Agustín Víctor Casasola and Manuel Álvarez Bravo are discussed not just as windows onto events but as artworks that offer both objective reporting and stylized expression The twenty five years covered in the book encompass some of the most convulsive developments in Mexico from the violence and cataclysmic changes wrought by the Mexican Revolution to the immense struggles to forge a new nation and a new government During this period the work of the four photographers two primarily documentary one propagandistic and one artistic and personal enabled Mexicans to understand the forces that had brought their nation to armed conflict and social transformation      A New History of Photography Michel Frizot, 1998 A collection of entries that help chronicle the history of photography explaining the different techniques that have been used and defining the common terms used in the field      Américas, 1990
