Displaced Memories M. Edurne Portela, 2009 Displaced Memories analyzes the representation of traumatic memories political imprisonment torture survival and exile in the literary works of Alicia Kozameh Alicia Partnoy and Nora Strejilevich survivors of Argentina's Dirty War 1976-1983 Beginning with an examination of the history of Argentina's last dictatorship the conditions that led the authors to exile and the contexts in which the texts were published Portela provides the theoretical tools for the understanding of narratives of trauma and displacement caused by political violence The author proposes a theory that critiques post structuralist paradigms of trauma which present trauma as an unclaimed experience impossible to apprehend as she argues for an analysis of the symbolic uses of language presenting trauma as a claimed experience that can be brought into representation and therefore create the conditions of possibility for working through

Disappearing Acts Diana Taylor, 1997 Taylor uses performance theory to explore how public spectacle both builds and dismantles a sense of national and gender identity Here nation is understood as a product of communal imaginings that are rehearsed written and staged and spectacle is the desiring machine at work in those imaginings Taylor argues that the founding scenario of Argentineness stages the struggle for national identity as a battle between men fought on over and through the feminine body of the Motherland She shows how the military's representations of itself as the model of national authenticity established the parameters of the conflict in the 70s and 80s feminized the enemy and positioned the public limiting its ability to respond *Cambridge English Prepare! After Exile Amy K. Kaminsky, 1999 Can an exiled writer ever really go home again What of the writers of Argentina Uruguay and Chile whose status as exiles in the 1970s and 1980s largely defined their identities and subject matter After Exile takes a critical look at these writers at the effect of exile on their work and at the complexities of homecoming a fraught possibility when democracy was restored to each of these countries Both famous and lesser known writers people this story of dislocation and relocation among them Jose Donoso Ana Vasquez Luisa Valenzuela Cristina Peri Rossi and Mario Benedetti In their work and their predicament Amy K Kaminsky considers the representation of both physical uprootedness and national identity or more precisely an individual s identity as a national subject Here national identity is not the double abstraction of identity and nation but a person s sense of being and belonging that derives from memories and experiences of a particular place Because language is crucial to this connection Kaminsky explores the linguistic isolation miscommunication and multilingualism that mark late exile and post exile writing She also examines how gender difference affects the themes and rhetoric of exile how for example traditional projections of femininity such as the idea of a mother country are used to allegorize exile Describing exile as a process sometimes of acculturation sometimes of alienation this work fosters a new understanding of how writers live and work in relation to space and place particularly the place called home
