Revenge Of The Sarong Party Girl:

Revenge of the Sarong Party Girl Jim Aitchison, 1995 The Mirth of Nations Christie Davies, 2017-07-28 The Mirth of Nations is a social and historical study of jokes told in the principal English speaking countries It is based on use of archives and other primary sources including old and rare joke books Davies makes detailed comparisons between the humor of specific pairs of nations and ethnic and regional groups In this way he achieves an appreciation of the unique characteristics of the humor of each nation or group A tightly argued book The Mirth of Nations uses the comparative method to undermine existing theories of humor which are rooted in notions of hostility conflict and superiority and derive ultimately from Hobbes and Freud Instead Davies argues that humor merely plays with aggression and with rule breaking and that the form this play takes is determined by social structures and intellectual traditions It is not related to actual conflicts between groups In particular Davies convincingly argues that Jewish humor and jokes are neither uniquely nor overwhelmingly self mocking as many writers since Freud have suggested Rather Jewish jokes like Scottish humor and jokes are the product of a strong cultural tradition of analytical thinking and intelligent self awareness The volume shows that the forty year popularity of the Polish joke cycle in America was not a product of any special negative feeling towards Poles Jokes are not serious and are not a form of determined aggression against others or against one's own group The Mirth of Nations is readable as well as revisionist It is written with great clarity and puts forward difficult and complex arguments without jargon in an accessible manner Its rich use of examples of all kinds of humor entertains the reader who will enjoy a great variety of jokes while being enlightened by the author's careful explanations of why particular sets of jokes exist and are immensely popular The book will appeal to general readers as well as those in cultural studies

The Portrayal of Foreigners in Indonesian and Malay Literatures V. I. brother Occidentalism and Todorov's theory of monological and dialogical inter cultural and inter ethnic relations the authors of the papers concentrate on the problem of the other The crux of this problem is how literary discourse of the examined writers both traditional and modern reveals the images and perceptions of their Malay and Indonesian neighbors and the world beyond the Western world in particular International Books in Print ,1997 Asiaweek ,1993
