International Perspectives on Educational Diversity and Inclusion Gajendra K. Verma, Christopher Bagley, Madan Jha, 2007-04-24 In light of new theories of multiculturalism and globalization this insightful book compares approaches to the educational inclusion of diverse minorities such as the ethnic and linguistic minorities in America Drawing on their extensive experience the contributors examine accounts from cross cultural cognitive psychology on the special interests and educational needs of certain ethnic groups research on social class divisions neighbourhood poverty and school exclusions in Britain educational developments for inclusion of minorities in Europe Greece and Eastern Europe India's educational policies surrounding its struggle to achieve education for all in a nation at the threshold of economic prosperity This book is unique in its breadth and scope of its integration of educational policy data generated by different countries with contrasted minority populations all at different stages of development The Education Systems of Europe Wolfgang Hörner, Hans Döbert, Botho von Kopp, Wolfgang Mitter, 2007-05-03 Education is a paradoxical phenomenon On the one hand it is universal as since the period of Enlightenment it has been declared universal good for everybody Moreover we learnt by historical research following the ideas of world system theory that since this time as far as its main structures are concerned compulsory state education given by professional teachers in classrooms it took even universal traits However on the other hand the fact that education became state education organised or at least controlled by the state was the beginning of another tradition line education in the form of state organised educational institutions became a means of creating national identity Universal inclusion as for the light of reason shining for everybody is opposed to more or less nationalist exclusion of all the others shaping the feature of a particular nation state with a particular educational system This fundamental dialectical tension between the universal and the particular was one of the important motives to make this handbook One of the central issues of the country studies is precisely to display the relationship between universal values and the search for national identity Another motive is given by the European dimension of the handbook Education Policy Outlook 2019

Working Together to Help Students Achieve their Potential OECD,2019-09-16 Taking the perspective of institutions and the system Education Policy Outlook 2019 Working Together to Help Students Achieve their Potential analyses the evolution of key education priorities and key education policies in 43 education systems It compares more recent developments in education policy ecosystems mainly between 2015 and 2019 with various education policies adopted between 2008 and 2014
