Hoffman, 2006 A critical and challenging look at reinventing the synagogue as the centerpiece of a refashioned Jewish community America is undergoing a spiritual revolution only the fourth religious awakening in its history I plead therefore for an equally spiritual synagogue knowing that any North American Jewish community that hopes to be around in a hundred years must have religion at its center with the synagogue the religious institution that best fits North American culture at its very core from Chapter 1 Synagogues are under attack and for good reasons But they remain the religious backbone of Jewish continuity especially in America the sole Western industrial or post industrial nation where religion and spirituality continue to grow in importance To fulfill their mandate for the American future synagogues need to replace old and tired conversation with a new way of talking about their goals their challenges and their vision for the future In this provocative clarion call for synagogue transformation Rabbi Lawrence A Hoffman summarizes a decade of research with Synagogue 2000 a pioneering experiment that reconceptualized synagogue life providing fresh ways for synagogues to think as they undertake the exciting task of global change The Women's Haftarah Commentary Rabbi Elyse Goldstein, 2012-11-13 Women rabbis are changing the face of Judaism Discover how their interpretations of the Prophets Writings and Megillot can enrich your perspective The Haftarah is a potent tool for understanding the values ethics and moral lessons contained in the Torah readings In this first of its kind volume more than eighty women rabbis from the Reform Conservative and Reconstructionist movements offer fresh perspectives on the beloved texts that make up the Haftarah the Prophets and Writings and the Five Megillot Based on readings that are rich in imagery some poetic some narrative some dark and brooding their commentaries include surprising insights on the stories of Deborah and Yael David and Goliath David and Bathsheva and the witch of Endor among many others Themes such as Jerusalem as woman the story of Jonah and the fish and other prophetic images are informed and challenged by this groundbreaking work A rich resource a major contribution to modern biblical commentary and the ideal companion to The Women's Torah Commentary The Women's Haftarah Commentary will inspire all of us to gain deeper meaning from the Hebrew scriptures and a heightened appreciation of Judaism The Rituals & Practices of a Jewish Life Kerry M. Addison, 2011-12-06 Who am I What are the sacred tasks that are uniquely mine The most basic questions in life are also the most important You can take a powerful step toward self fulfillment if you first recognize the roots of your spiritual makeup

In Cast in God's Image Rabbi Howard A. Addison helps you to do this through an understanding of your personality type and the types of the people around you. Using two of the most important maps of consciousness known to us, the kabbalistic Tree of Life and the nine-pointed Enneagram, Addison decodes spiritual meaning and provides you with the tools to determine your personality type by identifying your own patterns of behavior. Strengthen your relationships with others by learning how to observe their response patterns and recognize how these patterns correspond with your own. Discover how your personality type's virtues and vices connect with the Divine and ways you can use this knowledge to enrich your life in many ways. Including more than twenty hands-on spiritual exercises and guided meditations, Cast in God's Image gives you an accessible and enjoyable way to learn about yourself and guidance on how to use this insight to reveal the sacred tasks that are uniquely yours to perform in this world. Which are you? The Perfectionist, The Caregiver, The Achiever, The Romantic, The Loyal, The Cynic, The Adventurer, The Confronter, The Mediator, The Observer.
