Revolution Of The Heart:

Revolution of the Heart Haiyan Lee, 2006-12-07 This book is an engagingly written critical genealogy of the idea of love in modern Chinese literature thought and popular culture It examines a wide range of texts including literary historical philosophical anthropological and popular cultural genres from the late imperial period to the beginning of the socialist era It traces the process by which love became an all pervasive subject of representation and discourse as well as a common language in which modern notions of self gender family sexuality and nation were imagined and contested Winner of the Association for Asian Studies 2009 Joseph Levenson Book Prize for the best English language academic book on post 1900 China

Times Change: a History of the Network of Sacred Heart Schools Susan Putman Maxwell RSCJ, 2017-08-04 Times Change is an apt description of the developments in schools of the Society of the Sacred Heart and other Catholic schools throughout the world in the era since the Second Vatican Council of the Catholic Church In this book the author who has played a significant role in these developments offers her memoir of the turbulence and the triumphs of this piece of educational history She traces the development of the vision statement of Sacred Heart education against the background of the educational philosophy of the society

Revolution of the Heart Albert Hammond, 2005 A New Republic of the Heart Terry Patten, 2018-03-06 A vision to address our environment economy politics culture and to catalyze the radical whole system change we need now Recasting current problems as emergent opportunities Terry Patten offers creative responses practices and conscious conversations for tackling the profound inner and outer work we must do to build an integral future In practical and personal terms he discusses how we can all become active agents of a transformation of human civilization and why that is necessary to our continued survival Patten s narrative focuses on two aspects of existence our dynamic but fractured and threatened world and our underlying wholeness and unity Only by honoring both of these realities simultaneously can we make sustainable changes in ourselves our communities our body politic and our planetary life support system A New Republic of the Heart provides a comprehensive understanding and inspiring vision for being the change in a way that can address the most intractable problems of our time Patten shows how we can come together in our communities for conversations that matter and describes new communities enterprises and forms of dialogue that integrate both inner personal growth work with outer awareness activism and service

The Seeking Heart Ian Mobsby, 2025-01-28 In the contemporary church the word mission has become synonymous with pace expansion and results Yet such an approach can often leave those with responsibilities in mission or ministry feeling exhausted and overwhelmed Not only that but mission which focuses on the rapid and the growing fails to recognise the rich resources the more contemplative Christian traditions can offer our post secular society and especially those who would call themselves spiritual but not religious

Songs from My Heart Daisaku Ikeda, 2014-10-01 For many years Daisaku Ikeda has used poetry to express his innermost observations and sensations He has given poetic voice to feelings that have emerged from real life and from the activities of an internationally known champion of peace and education and the leader of a worldwide lay Buddhist movement With a vigour and simplicity that derive from a style rooted in classical rather than colloquial traditions his poems celebrate the themes of youth and of progress and the mysteries of the natural world whether a wind that sighs with its melancholy chant to the traveller or a great sky with its transcendent beauty and stillness or a moon that shines with the light of the silver monarch These are poignant meditations above all on time transience and the eternal rendered visible through a palette of diverse poetic colour and framed within a universe where all people are called to strive for a better world Such a world is characterized not by division but by peace and love In that sense these are verses expressive of the author s deepest hopes and sentiments not merely poems but keenly felt songs from his heart A Handbook of Medical Diagnosis James was unrepresentative of the real work of the early revolution which was taking place ten miles west of Paris in Versailles There the nobles clergy and commoners of France had just declared themselves a republic toppling a rotten system of aristocratic privilege and altering the course of history forever The Revolution was led not by angry mobs but by the best and brightest of France s growing bourgeoisie young educated ambitious Their aim was not to destroy but to build a better state In just three months they drew up a Declaration of the Rights of Man which was to become the archetype of all subsequent Declarations worldwide and they instituted a system of locally elected administration for France which still survives today They were determined to create an entirely new system of government based on rights equality and the rule of law In the first three years of the Revolution they went a long way toward doing so Then came Robespierre the Terror and unspeakable acts of barbarism In a clear dispassionate and fast moving narrative Ian Davidson shows how and why the Revolutionaries in just five years spiralled from the best of the Enlightenment to tyranny and the Terror The book reminds us that the Revolution was both an inspiration of the finest principles of a new democracy and an awful warning of what can happen when idealism goes wrong A Practical Treatise on the Diseases of the Heart and Great Vessels Walter Hayle Walshe,1873
