Church and Revolution Thomas Bokenkotter,2010-05-19 Though sometimes a source of controversy regarding certain issues the Catholic Church has in many ways lead the struggle for social justice and rights for the poor in our age Pope John Paul II never lets an opportunity pass without insisting on the need for greater respect for human rights and the need to alleviate the pains of poverty In the United States the Catholic Church is the single largest private organization providing assistance to the underprivileged operating soup kitchens and shelters for the homeless providing care for the sick and education for the needy But this struggle was not always a top priority In fact at the time of the French Revolution the Catholic Church was among the most conservative and reactionary of the world s powers Church and Revolution deals with the interesting historical question How did the Catholic Church develop from being a defender of the status quo to being a progressive force in world affairs Thomas Bokenkotter traces the development of social justice in the Church over the 200 years since the French Revolution through portraits of fifteen colorful figures who were all key to the political revolutions of the past two centuries and who also effected the Church s response to them including Salvadoran Archbishop Oscar Romero Irish emancipator Daniel O Connell founder of the American Catholic Worker movement Dorothy Day and Polish electrician and President Lech Walesa

Church God's Kingdom Among Men There is no need more urgent on our planet than that apostolic Christianity should be restored Considering the desperate conditions that exist on this planet that is a bold statement indeed Can the establishment of a religious organization really be more important than the resolution of the world's desperate problems Properly understood the answer is a resounding yes You see if the churches were to enter into the Biblical teaching and obedience described in the following chapters she would provide a form of human society within which none of those wretched conditions mentioned above would ever need exist again Hear this Christian Christ in His church is God's solution to all human needs and problems not just its supposedly religious ones The thesis of this book is that within the society of the Church of Christ and only within that divine society there is such a solution a solution that actually used to exist and a solution that God intends to restore When the Kingdom of God is manifested on the earth a visible society is created As created by God the church is that society of regenerated humans who have accepted Jesus as the divinely appointed ruler of the entire race of man Her charter includes a demonstration of how the entire race of humans could function if they yielded to the authority and the Spirit of Jesus His church is the sphere where God's plans for the total man and for every aspect of human society are accomplished Indeed His church is the true form of human society such is her call such is what is necessarily implied in being Christ's body a chosen race a holy nation the people of God
