Your Honor... How Dare You Deceive Me! A Memoir of Vindication. T. Axel Smith,2024-02-29 What began as a genuine though radical effort to obtain justice became an exploration of hidden agendas where the more I probed the more I discovered that certain jurists had committed the most serious crime of Fraud on the Court against the judicial machinery in U S history By doing so their actions served to preclude me from obtaining justice

See What I See Craig E. Whitsey,2015-03-09 Being blessed to have traveled extensively around the world I have had the pleasure to truly see the differences and the similarities of all humans upon this earth It is not an easy thing to see people suffering in their lives and not be moved to some kind of action or at the least speak openly about it Bringing attention to things that can be changed that often is ignored because no one wants to be responsible for speaking out against wrong Seeing that if a situation isn t directly affecting a person then it seems to not be important to help change it I am compelled to often write about the common things in life that effects every human yet for some reason or another no one wants to address Life is about growth not living in denial about what can be made right Everyone in this life deserves a chance to have joy peace and happiness without others pressing their ways upon them I believe that we are our worst enemies and until we come to the realization that most of our suffering in life comes from ourselves and we have the power within ourselves to change that Then and only then will this world be the place it was intended to be I encourage all who read this book to be encouraged and know that there is nothing in this world you can t overcome Just believe in yourself and never give up

The Surrogate Tania Carver,2013-02-13 Carver s internationally bestselling debut thriller features a very different kind of serial killer A shocking double murder scene greets Detective Inspector Philip Brennan when he is called to a flat in Colchester Two women are viciously cut open and lying spread eagled one tied to the bed one on the floor The woman on the bed has had her stomach cut into and her unborn child is missing But this is the third time Phil and his team have seen such an atrocity Two other pregnant women have been killed in this way and their babies taken from them No one can imagine what sort of person would want to commit such horrible crimes When psychologist Marina Esposito is brought in Phil has to put aside his feelings about their shared past and get on with the job But can they find the killer before another woman is targeted Spiritual Midwifery Ina May Gaskin, 2002 Shares the birthing stories of women who chose to have their babies at home with the help of a midwife provides information about the safety of techniques used in the hospital before and after birth discusses postpartum depression and maternal death and includes resources for doulas birth centers and other organizations Maternal & Child Health Nursing Adele Pillitteri, 2010 Growing research shows that many children from immigrant and refugee families are not doing well in school due in part to linguistic and cultural disadvantages Teaching dual language learners requires cultural sensitivity an understanding of language acquisition and intentional teaching strategies Combining research and techniques this resource helps early childhood educators support dual language learners as they develop the skills necessary for school readiness and success Granger's Index to Poetry and Recitations , 1929 The Baby's Coming Virginia Howes, 2014-03-13 Virginia Howes was a mother of four doing the ironing when she had a revelation Still broody but not really wanting to add to her family she realised that becoming a midwife was her true vocation It was a long journey to get the education and qualifications she needed especially with a young family but she was determined and never doubted her decision Following her training she spent three years working within the NHS but her naturally independent spirit fought against the constraints of the system and twelve years ago she decided to set up on her own Virginia works with mothers who want to give birth at home naturally something which Virginia believes in passionately 350 births later Virginia still loves what she does The Baby's Coming is Virginia's memoir and tells the stories of her training as a midwife as well as some of the most memorable of those 350 births the most dramatic the most touching Virginia particularly remembers the births of her own grandchildren whose arrivals in the world were some of the most special moments for her as both a midwife and grandmother
