Lord Conrad's Lady Leo A. Frankowski,1998-12-01 Lord Conrad's Lady Leo Frankowski,1990 The modern day time traveling hero Conrad Stargard returns to medieval times where Countess Francine his wife complicates Conrad's swashbuckling life

Conrad's Lady Leo Frankowski,2005-12-01 One moment Conrad Schwartz was suffering from a severe hangover as he hiked through the mountains of present day Poland the next he was hurled back to the same country in the 13th century He remembered from his history classes that in another ten years Mongol hordes were scheduled to attack pillage burn and kill and Conrad was likely to suffer all of the above So he set out to turn Poland into a world power by introducing universal education aircraft radios steamboats and generally discourage Mongols or anybody else from messing with either Poland or Conrad But things weren't going to be quite that simple The Mongols were not quite as awed by advanced technology as he had hoped He was under observation by mysterious Time Lords who didn't approve of disruptions in the flow of historical time Last and anything but least he had married the formidable Lady Francine and there was absolutely nothing simple about that noble born and tempestuous woman At the publisher's request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management

A Burlesque Autobiography Mark Twain,1977-01-01 Two or three persons having at different times intimated that if I would write an autobiography they would read it when they got leisure I yield at last to this frenzied public demand and herewith tender my history Ours is a noble old house and stretches a long way back into antiquity The earliest ancestor the Twains have any record of was a friend of the family by the name of Higgins This was in the eleventh century when our people were living in Aberdeen county of Cork England Why it is that our long line has ever since borne the maternal name except when one of them now and then took a playful refuge in an alias to avert foolishness instead of Higgins is a mystery which none of us has ever felt much desire to stir It is a kind of vague pretty romance and we leave it alone All the old families do that way Arthour Twain was a man of considerable note a solicitor on the highway in William Rufus time At about the age of thirty he went to one of those fine old English places of resort called Newgate to see about something and never returned again While there he died suddenly Augustus Twain seems to have made something of a stir about the year 1160 He was as full of fun as he could be and used to take his old sabre and sharpen it up and get in a convenient place on a dark night and stick it through people as they went by to see them jump He was a born humorist But he got to going too far with it and the first time he was found stripping one of these parties the authorities removed one end of him and put it up on a nice high place on Temple Bar where it could contemplate the people and have a good time He never liked any situation so much or stuck to it so long
