Love Lyrics Of Ancient Egypt:

Love Lyrics of Ancient Egypt, 1994 Ancient Egypt is often thought of as a gloomy society obsessed with death But a collection of papyri dating to the latter half of the New Kingdom ca 1305 1080 B C presents us with delicate love lyrics that dispel any such illusion These vibrant love poems purported to be by boys and girls perhaps as young as thirteen or fourteen years of age are remarkable for their innocent sensuousness Combining her notable skills as a translator and a poet Barbara Fowler provides the first accurate translation of these love lyrics into modern English language poetry Her renderings are both elegant and correct They preserve the charm of a long lost civilization while making it possible for readers to appreciate one aspect of that culture in our time and through our language Originally published in 1994 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value Come Swiftly to Your Love Ezra Pound, 1971 The Literature of Ancient Egypt Raymond Oliver Faulkner, 2003-01-01 Presents annotated translations of papyrus writings and tomb inscriptions from the middle and late periods of ancient Egypt Ancient Egyptian Love Lyrics Raymond Aloysius McCoy, Phyllis McCoy, 1975 Leviticus Johnson M. Kimuhu, 2008 Whereas many books in this field deal with individual aspects or texts of the study of family laws Leviticus The Priestly Laws and Prohibitions from the Perspective of Ancient Near East and Africa examines extensively biblical texts ancient Near Eastern text and oral traditions from Africa Thus three different cultures converge the world of the Hebrew Bible the world of the ancient Near East and the world of Africa This volume examines in detail the history of the development of ancient laws in general and family laws in particular especially the laws relating to marriages between close relatives Furthermore Johnson M Kimuhu looks at prohibitions and taboos in Africa and the problems they pose with regard to the interpretation and translation of difficult biblical concepts into African languages In that sense Kimuhu provides an example of how to contextualize or integrate African traditions into the study of biblical Hebrew and he also offers insights into the current debate on the study of kinship from the point of view of social cultural anthropology and the Hebrew Bible legal system Teachers students and researchers in biblical studies ancient Near Eastern studies African traditions and social cultural anthropology will find this book helpful in their quest to understand family laws prohibitions and taboos Ancient Egyptian Literature Antonio Loprieno, 2023-12-28 This volume deals with the development and the characteristics of the literature of Ancient Egypt over a period of more than two millennia from the monumental origins of autobiography at the end of the Old Kingdom ca 2150 BCE down to the latest literary compositions in Demotic during the Graeco Roman period 300 BCE 200 CE This book the result of an international co operation among more than twenty scholars is divided into sections devoted to the definition of literary discourse in Ancient Egypt the history and genres of these texts their linguistic and stylistic features and the image of

Ancient Egypt as displayed in later literary traditions of the Mediterranean world Greek Coptic Arabic With over thirty chapters this volume provides an interdisciplinary account of current research in one of the methodologically most advanced fields of Egyptology

Frederick II David Abulafia,1992 In this the first revisionist biography of Frederick II David Abulafia dispels Frederick's long lived distorted reputation as a monarch tolerant to the Jews and Muslims defiant of papal rule and eager to create a new secular world order Abulafia is the first to place Frederick in the wider historical context his enormous empire demands portraying him as less tolerant and far sighted in his cultural religious and politics ambitions than generally thought

Ancient Egyptian Literature Miriam Lichtheim,2019-05-07 First published in 1973 this anthology has assumed classic status in the field of Egyptology and portrays the remarkable evolution of the literary forms of one of the world's earliest civilizations Beginning with the early and gradual evolution of Egyptian genres it includes biographical and historical inscriptions carved on stone the various classes of works written with pen on papyrus and the mortuary literature that focuses on life after death

It then shows the culmination of these literary genres within the single period known as the New Kingdom 1550 1080 B C and ends in the last millennium of Pharaonic civilization from the tenth century B C to the beginning of the Christian era An introduction written in three parts by Antonio Loprieno Hans W Fischer Elfert and Joseph G Manning completes this classic anthology Ancient Egyptian Literature, Volume I Miriam Lichtheim, 2006-04-03 First published in 1973 and followed by Volume II in 1976 and Volume III in 1980 this anthology has assumed classic status in the field of Egyptology and portrays the remarkable evolution of the literary forms of one of the world's earliest civilizations Volume I outlines the early and gradual evolution of Egyptian literary genres including biographical and historical inscriptions carved on stone the various classes of literary works written with pen on papyrus and the mortuary literature that focuses on life after death Introduced with a new foreword by Antonio Loprieno Volume II shows the culmination of these literary genres within the single period known as the New Kingdom 1550 1080 B C With a new foreword by Hans W Fischer Elfert Volume III spans the last millennium of Pharaonic civilization from the tenth century B C to the beginning of the Christian era With a new foreword by Joseph G Manning

Ride of the Second Horseman Robert L. O'Connell, 1997-10-23 Accurst be he that first invented war wrote Christopher Marlowe a declaration that most of us would take as a literary not literal construction But in this sweeping overview of the rise of civilization Robert O'Connell finds that war is indeed an invention an institution that arose due to very specific historical circumstances an institution that now verges on extinction In Ride of the Second Horseman O'Connell probes the distant human past to show how and why war arose He begins with a definition that distinguishes between war and mere feuding war involves group rather than individual issues political or economic goals and direction by some governmental structure carried out with the intention of lasting results With this definition he finds that ants are the only other creatures that conduct it battling other colonies for territory and slaves But ants unlike humans are driven by their genes in humans changes in our culture and subsistence patterns not our genetic hardware brought the rise of organized warfare O'Connell draws on anthropology and archeology to locate the rise of war sometime after the human transition from nomadic hunting and gathering to agriculture when society split between farmers and pastoralists Around 5500 BC these pastoralists initiated the birth of war with raids on Middle Eastern agricultural settlements The farmers responded by ringing their villages with walls setting off a process of further social development intensified combat and ultimately the rise of complex urban societies dependent upon warfare to help stabilize what amounted to highly volatile population structures beset by frequent bouts of famine and epidemic disease In times of overpopulation the armies either conquered new lands or self destructed leaving fewer mouths to feed In times of underpopulation slaves were taken to provide labor O'Connell explores the histories of the civilizations of ancient Sumeria Egypt Assyria China and the New World showing how war came to each and how it adapted to varying circumstances On the other hand societies based on trade employed war much more selectively and pragmatically Thus Minoan Crete long protected from marauding pastoralists developed a wealthy mercantile society marked by unmilitaristic attitudes equality between men and women and a relative absence of class distinctions In Assyria by contrast war came to be an end in itself in a culture dominated by male warriors Despite the violence in the world today O Connell finds reason for hope The industrial revolution broke the old patterns of subsistence war no longer serves the demographic purpose it once did Fascinating and provocative Ride of the Second Horseman offers a far reaching tour of human history that suggests the age old cycle of war may now be near its end Homoeroticism in the Biblical World Martti Nissinen,2004-02-01 Nissinen s award winning book surveys attitudes in the ancient world toward homoeroticism that is erotic same sex relations Focusing on the Bible and its cultural environment Mesopotamia Greece Rome Israel Nissinen concisely and readably introduces the relevant sources and their historical contexts in a readable way Homoeroticism is examined as a part of gender identity i e the interplay of sexual orientation gender identification gender roles and sexual practice In the patriarchal cultures of the biblical world Nissinen shows homoerotic practices were regarded as a role construction between the active and passive partners rather than as expressions of an orientation moderns call homosexuality Nissinen shows how this applies to the limited acceptance of homoerotic relationships in Greek and Roman culture as well as to Israel s and the early church s condemnation of any same sex erotic activity For readers interested in the ancient world or contemporary debates Nissinen s fascinating study shows why the ancient texts both biblical and nonbiblical are not appropriate for use as sources of direct analogy or argument in today s discussion 1994 Massimo Mastrogregori,2013-05-08 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors The World Is a Waiting Lover Trebbe Johnson,2011-02-08 Johnson explores the concept of the Beloved the elusive alluring force that beckons us forth to passionate engagement with the world and shows how our sense of love is often linked to something far greater than ourselves She explains that mistaking a human lover for the inner eternal Beloved is the first step in any romance yet the ability to distinguish between the two ultimately holds the key to our quest for personal freedom and fulfillment Steeped in Western and Eastern myth and romantic imagery The World is a Waiting Lover guides us through story and thought in order to discover passion Eros and our authentic selves It is a personal story and at the same time an invitation to explore our individual yearnings to live with fearless authenticity as we find more passion and meaning in our work relationships and view of the future I, You, and the Word "God" Sarah Zhang,2016-11-03 I You and the Word God introduces the approach of lyrical ethics inspired by Emmanuel Levinas s ethical phenomenological philosophy Through the optics of lyrical ethics the reader discovers how the ancient erotic poems of the Song of Songs bear ethical and theological significance for contemporary readers Levinas s intertwined concepts oneself qua sensibility otherness perceived through responsibility and transcendence embodied in one's love for the other reveal themselves as lyrical colors woven into the fabric of Song 4 1 7 5 2 8 and 8 6 More importantly Levinas's understanding that poetic language breaks the tautology of logocentric discourse and gestures to the outside of consciousness provides the theoretical ground for the listener to solicit meaningfulness from the Song Through this lyrical reading of the selected poetic units the book demonstrates that the traditional interpretive methods of representative description narrative paraphrase and thematic distillation fail to encounter the otherness of poetry In contrast lyrical ethics pays attention to that which transcends consciousness the awakening of the reader's subjectivity the saying underlying the said the sound of the sense and the invisibility of the visible The Song so caressed reveals in human love the purposelessly purposive encounter with God
