Three Popes Jeremiah Barker,2023-04-12 This book arises from the conviction that the ways in which John Paul II and Benedict XVI were confused as allies with American conservatism is as misleading unclear and confusing as any misapprehension of Francis s genuine orthodoxy As the author does not have a stake in reacting against a liberal Catholicism that he sees dying out anyway the bigger threat in his view sociologically for the North American church is falling into a right wing tribalism and Francis resists precisely that First Things editor R R Reno highly critical of Francis has called for a redemption of hints and suggestions of a cogent argument in the Francis message Jeremiah Barker reappropriates Reno s call as a call to draw out or highlight what he takes to be the underlying rationale of the Francis message That underlying rationale he compellingly argues is strikingly identical to that of the two previous popes Barker who has learned much from Reno is in fact inspired by Francis s call and teaching and it is the aim of this book to draw out what inspires him and to identify what he hopes Reno and fellow John Paul II Catholics don t miss in the Francis message the theological ethical and spiritual core of his social teaching which Francis shares with that of John Paul II and Benedict XVI A Warlock's Tarot

Screening Torture Michael Flynn, Fabiola Fernandez Salek, 2012-09-18 Before 9/11 films addressing torture outside of the horror slasher genre depicted the practice in a variety of forms In most cases torture was cast as the act of a desperate and depraved individual and the viewer was more likely to identify with the victim rather than the torturer Since the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 scenes of brutality and torture in mainstream comedies dramatic narratives and action films appear for little other reason than to titillate and delight In these films torture is devoid of any redeeming qualities represented as an exercise in brutal senselessness carried out by authoritarian regimes and institutions This volume follows the shift in the representation of torture over the past decade specifically in documentary action and political films It traces and compares the development of this trend in films from the United States Europe China Latin America South Africa and the Middle East Featuring essays by sociologists psychologists historians journalists and specialists in film and cultural studies the collection approaches the representation of torture in film and television from multiple angles and disciplines connecting its aesthetics and practices to the dynamic of state terror and political domination
