New Art Some Recent New Zealand Sculptur:

New Zealand Sculpture Michael Dunn,2002 This work charts the growth of sculpture in this former British colony from the era of British imports through a period of strong British influence to the more confident art of the 20th century using a wider set of sources and materials and more personal forms of expression Tony Fomison Mark Forman,2025-03-13 he wanted to make room at the back of our heads From the introduction by the author In a career spanning three decades Tony Fomison 1939 activist archaeologist and scholar trickster addict and disrupter and above all else an artist who shed light on the human condition and reimagined life in Aotearoa In this compelling biography developed over more than a decade Mark Forman draws on archival material and interviews with more than 150 people including Fomison's family and close friends leading contemporary artists political activists and art professionals The result is a comprehensive yet lively and accessible biography that reveals the man and his art to a new generation of readers New Art Jim Allen,Wystan Curnow,1976

Art New Zealand ,1980 One and Five Ideas Terry Smith,2017-01-06 In One and Five Ideas eminent critic historian and former member of the Art Language collective Terry Smith explores the artistic philosophical political and geographical dimensions of Conceptual Art and conceptualism These four essays and a conversation with Mary Kelly published between 1974 and 2012 contain Smith's most essential work on Conceptual Art and his argument that conceptualism was key to the historical transition from modern to contemporary art Nothing less than a distinctive theory of Conceptual and contemporary art One and Five Ideas showcases the critical voice of one of the major art theorists of our time Samoan Art and Artists

Sean Mallon,2002-01-01 Samoan Art and Artists is a wide ranging survey of both the traditional and contemporary arts of Samoa The author has drawn on an extensive research base to present a contemporary and accessible picture of a vibrant culture The book has a broad sweep covering all facets of the Samoan arts including canoe and house building siapo tapa weaving tattooing oratory adornment all forms of performance art the visual arts and literature An important feature of the book is the inclusion of profiles of living practitioners both from Samoa and the large Samoan communities in other Pacific countries Publisher description Sonic Sculpture and the Performative Impulse Melissa Christine Warak,2025-03-28

This study considers the performativity of sound producing sculptures made in the twenty first century through a cultural history of certain works A subfield of the sound art medium sonic sculpture presents new possibilities in sensory engagement with the viewer creating a mediated experience for eye and ear Contextualized within three linking nodes of sonic engagement sonic sculpture as a socially engaged art listening to history and the use of the human body as the material of sonic sculpture itself each chapter interrogates one or two works by a contemporary artist These in depth analyses of the works serve as lenses to the artists larger practices and engagements with things that sound Artists covered include Nick Cave Kara Walker Janet Cardiff George Bures Miller and Ragnar Kjartansson The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history sound studies musicology and cultural studies Australian National Bibliography ,1978 Art and

Copyright Simon Stokes, 2012-02-21 In recent years the intellectual property protection afforded to works of art has received increased attention from artists museums galleries auction houses publishers and their professional staff and legal advisers as well as from those teaching or studying copyright and or the law of cultural property This was the first text to examine in detail the intellectual property rights protecting artistic works and artists rights generally in the United Kingdom First published in 2001 Art and Copyright has established itself as a leading text in the field Now revised and updated the second edition includes expanded coverage of Artist s Resale Right and the relationship between designs law and artistic works as well as greater coverage of new media and art and digital developments generally It also includes additional precedent materials and checklists It remains an invaluable work for all those involved in art law and for intellectual property lawyers involved with the exploitation and or sale of artistic works as well as for intellectual property academics researchers law students curators publishers artists gallery owners and all those interested in how the law protects artistic works Horizon John Neylon, Greg Johns, 2002 HORIZON GREG JOHNS SCULPTURES 1970 2002 traces the ideas and career of the Adelaide based artist from his first commission in the late 1970s through to participation in recent exhibitions in New York and Bahrain The story is told by noted Adelaide writer and art critic John Neylon of the Art Gallery of South Australia His text examines all aspects of the artist s development as a creator of large scale public sculptures and explains the philosophy that has shaped the work The reader is led through a rich array of ideas and images relating to the use of sculptural form as a language in which the works serve as metaphors for the human psyche and the natural cosmic systems that define our world A number of key sculptures are examined in detail as are issues surrounding public art and its reception within the community The processes of commissioning creating and installing the sculptures are described along with intimate glimpses into the creation of each work as it proceeds from the artist s studio to the engineering works where it is fabricated and then on to its intended site
