The Routledge Handbook of Religious Literacy, Pluralism, and Global Engagement Chris Seiple, Dennis R. Hoover, 2021-12-27 This pioneering handbook proposes an approach to pluralism that is relational principled and non relativistic going beyond banal calls for mere tolerance The growing religious diversity within societies around the world presents both challenges and opportunities A degree of competition between deeply held religious worldview perspectives is natural and inevitable yet at the same time the world urgently needs engagement and partnership across lines of difference None of the world's most pressing problems can be solved by any single actor and as such it is not a question of if but when you partner with an individual or institution that does not think act or believe as you do The authors argue that religious literacy defined as a dynamic combination of competencies and skills continuously refined through real world cross cultural engagement is vital to building societies and states of neighborly solidarity and civic fairness Through examination reflection and case studies across multiple faith traditions and professional fields this handbook equips scholars and students as well as policymakers and practitioners to assess analyze and act collaboratively in a world of deep diversity The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
