Dreams of a Patriot Oluneye Oluwole, 2011-10-11 The greatness of a nation is less a function of its physical geography than it is of the quality of its human content Any nation can rise to great heights if it has within its borders men and women who will dare to dream and see a life beyond the limitations of the times in which they live These are people who know that however dark and bleak the night may be there ll be light at the break of dawn and are willing both to persevere through the long dark night and to help others do so These men and women are those the world knows as patriots In Dreams of a Patriot Oluneye Oluwole confronts the monstrous subject of leadership crisis in Nigeria not from the boring and tedious perspective of a political analyst but from the refreshing everyday angle of a common citizen who knows that a nation so great and so immensely endowed as Nigeria deserves more from her people She lights a candle in the wind of our turbulent national experience and beckons on all who share in this dream of greatness to help shield its flickering flame from the extinguishing forces that have held her nation down all these years In a subtle unobtrusive way it is an expression of the dreams and hopes of that pained and distressed patriot in every one of us

Dreams of Equality Joan Sangster, 1989-12-15 Canadian women on the political left in the first half of the twentieth century fought with varying degrees of commitment for women s rights Women s dreams of equality were in part a vision of economic and class equality though they also represented profound desires for equality with men both within their own parties and in the larger society In both the Communist Party of Canada and the Co operative Commonwealth Federation a male dominated leadership seldom embraced women s causes wholeheartedly or as a doctrinal priority So called women s issues whether birth control consumer issues or equal pay usually took second place to an emphasis on the general needs of workers or farmers Nonetheless many women continued to promote their feminist causes through the socialist movement in the hope that eventually the socialist New Jerusalem would see their dreams of equality fulfilled In Dreams of Equality Joan Sangster chronicles in fascinating detail the first tentative stages of a politically aware women s movement in Canada from the time of women s suffrage to the 1950 s when the CPC went into decline and the CCF began to experience the changes that would evolve into the New Democratic Party a decade later
