Paul Et Virginie Roman:

Die Wende Von Der Aufklärung Zur Romantik 1760-1820 Horst Albert Glaser, György Mihály Vajda, 2000 This volume is the twelfth to date in a series of works in French or English presenting the epochs and movements of a Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages Histoire Comparée des Littératures de Langues Européennes The original intention of the editors was to publish a four volume history of European literature from 1760 1820 and the first of these volumes Des Lumières au Romantisme Genres en Vers appeared as long ago as 1982 The volumes Genres en Prose and Théâtre are still awaited In their absence the present volume Epoche im Übergang attempts a more comprehensive and rigorous treatment of the period and its historiographical problems than was initially planned providing the reader with an overview of sixty eventful years of European literary history years in which German Classicism coincided with the birth initially in Germany and England of Romanticism And at the centre of this turbulent period of European intellectual and literary history stands the French Revolution

Regressive Fictions Robin Howells, 2017-12-02 In a cultural shift around the mid point of the French eighteenth century the mode of wit is increasingly displaced by bourgeois pathos Social sophistication and sexual experience are rejected in favour of a retreat into ideal imagination Instead of the novel of worldliness we encounter fictions of better worlds original natural familial innocent and harmonious protected against reality and time The regressive shift is traced in this study in general terms and then through detailed analysis of three of the best selling novels of the period The turning point is represented by Mme de Graffignys Lettres d'une Péruvienne 1747 1752 with its profound ambivalence towards knowledge A new order is revealed and set out but still declared lacking in Rousseaus Julie ou la Nouvelle Héloïse 1761 The visionary return to the organic wholeness of nature is offered by Bernardins Paul et Virginie 1788

Thinking About Tears Marco Menin, 2022-07-28 A crucial period for the birth of the modern subject France's long eighteenth century approximately 1650 1820 was an era marked by the formulation of a new aesthetic and ethical code revolving around the intensification of emotions and the hyperbolic use of weeping Precisely because tears are not a simple biological fact but rather hang suspended between natural immediacy on one side and cultural artifice on the other the analysis of crying came to represent an exemplary testing ground for investigations into the enigmatic relations binding the realm of physiology to that of psychology Thinking About Tears explores how the link between tears and sensibility in France's long eighteenth century helps shed light on the process through which the European emotional lexicon has been built from viewing tears as governed by the sphere of passions and feelings thinkers began to view crying as first a matter of sensibility and then of sensibilité a pathological excess of sensibility thereby presupposing an intimate connection with the category of sentiments For this reason this volume examines not only or even primarily the actual emotion of crying but also the attempt to think about and explain this feeling Drawing on a wide range of early modern philosophical medical religious and literary texts including moral treatises on the passions medical textbooks letters life writings novels and stage plays

Thinking About Tears reveals another side to a period that has too often been saddled with the cursory label of the age of reason Bernardin De St Pierre, 1737-1814 M. C. Cook, 2017-12-02 Bernardin de St Pierre 1737 1814 was a major figure of the late French Enlightenment In this first full length critical biography of the author in English Malcolm Cook seeks to understand the importance of Bernardin s major works Drawing heavily on unpublished manuscript material he provides a fresh account of the writer s significance and status in a period of French history which during Bernardin s lifetime saw the transition from monarchy to republic and empire The book is both a critical account of a major author and a source of new insights into the cultural revolution taking place around him HISTOIRE DU ROMAN ET DE SES RAPPORTS AVEC ALEXIS CHASSANG, 1862 Colonialism, Race, and the French Romantic Imagination Pratima Prasad, 2009-05-07 This book investigates how French Romanticism was shaped by and contributed to colonial discourses of race It studies the ways in which metropolitan Romantic novels that is novels by French authors such as Victor Hugo George Sand Bernardin de Saint Pierre Fran ois Ren de Chateaubriand Claire de Duras and Prosper M rim e comprehend and construct colonized peoples fashion French identity in the context of colonialism and record the encounter between Europeans and non Europeans While the primary texts that come under investigation in the book are novels close attention is paid to Romantic fiction s interdependence with naturalist treatises travel writing abolitionist texts and ethnographies Colonialism Race and the French Romantic Imagination is one of the first books to carry out a sustained and comprehensive analysis of the French Romantic novel s racial imagination that encompasses several sites of colonial contact the Indian Ocean North America the Caribbean West Africa and France Its archival research and interdisciplinary approach shed new light on canonical texts and expose the reader to non canonical ones The book will be useful to students and academics involved with Romanticism colonial historians students and scholars of transatlantic studies and postcolonial studies as well as those interested in questions of race and colonialism A New and Complete Course of Strictly Graduated Grammatical and Idiomatic Studies of the French Language Auguste Aigre de Charente, 2025-09-17 Reprint of the original first published in 1881 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage A Practical French Grammar William Dwight Whitney, 2025-09-18 Reprint of the original first published in 1887 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Studia Litteraria Universitatis Iagellonicae Cracoviensis vol. 6 (2011) , The Uniform Trade List Annual , 1873 With alphabetical indexes of firms and trade specialties Bulletin of the New England Modern Language Association , 1926 Naturwissen, Asthetik Und Religion In Bernardin De Torsten König, 2010 Annotation Bernardin de Saint Pierres tudes de la nature 1784 stellen den Versuch dar die gesamte Natur und ihre Organisationsgesetze zu beschreiben Dabei verkn pfen sie verschiedenste Bereiche des Wissens Sie diskutieren and Berman shows how the campaign to reform slavery in the colonies converged with literary depictions of family life. Illuminating a literary genealogy that crosses political, familial, and linguistic lines, Creole Crossings reveals how racial, sexual, and moral boundaries continually shifted as the century's writers reflected on the realities of slavery, empire, and the home front. Berman offers compelling readings of the domestic fiction of Honoré de Balzac, Charlotte Brontë, Maria Edgeworth, Harriet Jacobs, George Sand, Harriet Beecher Stowe, and others alongside travel narratives, parliamentary reports, medical texts, journalism, and encyclopedias. Focusing on a neglected social classification in both fiction and nonfiction, Creole Crossings establishes the crucial importance of the Creole character as a marker of sexual norms and national belonging.
