Struggles for Representation Phyllis Rauch Klotman,Janet K. Cutler,1999 Struggles for Representation examines over 300 non fiction films by more than 150 African American film videomakers and includes an extensive filmography bibliography and excerpts from interviews with film videomakers In eleven original essays contributors explore the extraordinary scope of these aesthetic and social documents and chart a previously undiscovered territory documentaries that examine the aesthetic economic historical political and social forces that shape the lives of black Americans as seen from their perspectives Until now scholars and

critics have concentrated on black fiction film and on mainstream non fiction films neglecting the groundbreaking body of black non fiction productions that offer privileged views of American life Yet these rich and varied works in film video and new electronic media convey vast stores of knowledge and experience Although most documentary cannot hope to match fiction film s mass appeal it is unrivaled in its ability to portray searing indelible impressions of black life including concrete views of significant events and moving portraits of charismatic individuals Documentary footage brings audiences the moments when civil rights protestors were attacked by state troopers it provides the sights and sounds of Malcom X delivering an electrifying speech Betty Carter performing a heart wrenching song and Langston Hughes strolling on a beach Uniting all of this work is the struggle for representation that characterizes each film an urgent desire to convey black life in ways that counter the uninformed and often distorted representations of mass media film and television productions African American documentaries have long been associated with struggles for social and political empowerment for many film videomakers documentary is a compelling mode with which to present an alternative more authentic narrative of black experiences and an effective critique of mainstream discourse Thus many socially and politically committed film videomakers view documentary as a tool with which to interrogate and reinvent history their works fill gaps correct errors and expose distortions in order to provide counter narratives of African American experience Contributors include Paul Arthur Houston A Baker Jr Mark F Baker Pearl Bowser Janet K Cutler Manthia Diawara Elizabeth Amelia Hadley Phyllis R Klotman Tommy Lee Lott Erika Muhammad Valerie Smith and Clyde Taylor

Paul Robeson Gerald Horne, 2016-01-20 A world famous singer and actor a trained lawyer an early star of American professional football and a polyglot who spoke over a dozen languages These could be the crowning achievements of a life well lived yet for Paul Robeson the higher calling of social justice led him to abandon both the NFL and Hollywood and become one of the most important political activists of his generation battling both Jim Crow and Joseph McCarthy Gerald Horne s biography uses Robeson s remarkable and revolutionary life to tell the story of the 20th century s great political struggles against racism against colonialism and for international socialism This critical and searching account provides an opportunity for readers to comprehend the triumphs and tragedies of the revolutionary progressive movement of which Robeson was not just a part but perhaps its most resonant symbol

Great Thinkers and Doers Teresa

Zackodnik, 2025-07 This book examines how Black women as readers writers and editors were foundational to the Black Press in its first 100 years and models new reading protocols that foreground Black women's politicization of press forms

The Journal of Negro Education Charles Henry Thompson, 1976 The purpose of the Journal is threefold first to stimulate the collection and facilitate the dissemination of facts about the education of Black people second to present discussions involving critical appraisals of the proposals and practices relating to the education of Black people third to stimulate and sponsor investigations of issues incident to the education of Black people

The Path to the Greater, Freer, Truer World

Lindsey R. Swindall, 2019-04-08 The Southern Negro Youth Congress and the Council on African Affairs were two organizations created as part of the early civil rights efforts to address race and labor issues during the Great Depression They fought within a leftist Pan African framework against disenfranchisement segregation labor exploitation and colonialism By situating the development of the SNYC and the Council on African Affairs within the scope of the long civil rights movement Lindsey Swindall reveals how these groups conceptualized the U S South as being central to their vision of a global African diaspora Both organizations illustrate well the progressive collaborations that maintained an international awareness during World War II Cleavages from anti radical repression in the postwar years are also evident in the dismantling of these groups when they became casualties of the early Cold War By highlighting the cooperation that occurred between progressive activists from the Popular Front to the 1960s Swindall adds to our understanding of the intergenerational nature of civil rights and anticolonial organizing

Attack of the Difficult Poems Charles

Bernstein, 2011-04-30 Charles Bernstein is our postmodern jester of American poesy equal part surveyor of democratic vistas and scholar of avant garde sensibilities In a career spanning thirty five years and forty books he has challenged and provoked us with writing that is decidedly unafraid of the tensions between ordinary and poetic language and between everyday life and its adversaries Attack of the Difficult Poems his latest collection of essays gathers some of his most memorably irreverent work while addressing seriously and comprehensively the state of contemporary humanities the teaching of unconventional forms fresh approaches to translation the history of language media and the connections between poetry and visual art Applying an array of essayistic styles Attack of the Difficult Poems ardently engages with the promise of its title Bernstein introduces his key theme of the difficulty of poems and defends often in comedic ways not just difficult poetry but poetry itself Bernstein never loses his ingenious ability to argue or his consummate attention to detail Along the way he offers a wide ranging critique of literature s place in the academy taking on the vexed role of innovation and approaching it from the perspective of both teacher and practitioner From blues artists to Tin Pan Alley song lyricists to Second Wave modernist poets The Attack of the Difficult Poems sounds both a battle cry and a lament for the task of the language maker and the fate of invention Mintirho ya Vulavula Jabulisile Mhlambi,Sandile Ngidi,2021-04-19 Mintirho ya Vulavula Arts National Identities and Democracy examines the role of arts and culture in development and specifically its value in consolidating our nascent democracy and in facilitating the transformation of South African society Contributors to this edited volume interrogate the role of arts culture and heritage from a transdisciplinary perspective enriched by the cross generational perspectives offered by young and older artists cultural practitioners activists and scholars Authors also offer some policy recommendations on how the contribution of arts and culture to social cohesion and nation building can be enhanced

Arise Africa, Roar China Yunxiang Gao,2021-12-17 This book explores the close relationships between three of the most famous twentieth century African Americans W E B Du Bois Paul Robeson and Langston Hughes and their little known Chinese allies during World War II and the Cold War journalist musician and Christian activist Liu Liangmo and Sino Caribbean dancer choreographer Sylvia Si lan Chen Charting a new path in the study of Sino American relations Gao Yunxiang foregrounds African Americans combining the study of Black internationalism and the experiences of Chinese Americans with a transpacific narrative and an understanding of the global remaking of China s modern popular culture and politics Gao reveals earlier and more widespread interactions between Chinese and African American leftists than accounts of the familiar alliance between the Black radicals and the Maoist Chinese would have us believe The book s multilingual approach draws from massive yet rarely used archival streams in China and in Chinatowns and elsewhere in the United States These materials allow Gao to retell the well known stories of Du Bois Robeson and Hughes alongside the sagas of Liu and Chen in a work that will transform and redefine Afro Asia studies
