Paul Cezanne 1839-1906:

Paul Cézanne, 1839-1906 Ulrike Becks-Malorny, 2001 From banker to painter Cezanne and the Impressionists
Harmony in parallel with nature Still lifes Mont Saint Victoire Latter years Paul Cézanne 1839-1906 Anna Barskaya, Yevgenia Georgievskaya, 2011-07-01 Since his death 200 years ago Cezanne has become the most famous painter of the nineteenth century He was born in Aix en Provence in 1839 and the happiest period of his life was his early youth in Provence in company with Emile Zola another Italian Following Zola's example Cezanne went to Paris in his twenty-first year During the Franco-Prussian war he deserted the military dividing his time between open-air painting and the studio He said to Vollard an art dealer I'm only a painter Parisian wit gives me a pain Painting nudes on the banks of the Arc a river near Aix is all I could ask for Encouraged by Renoir one of the first to appreciate him he exhibited with the impressionists in 1874 and in 1877 He was received with derision which deeply hurt him Cezanne's ambition in his own words was to make out of Impressionism something as solid and durable as the paintings of the museums His aim was to achieve the monumental in a modern language of glowing vibrating tones Cezanne wanted to retain the natural colour of an object and to harmonise it with the various influences of light and shade trying to destroy it to work out a scale of tones expressing the mass and character of the form Cezanne loved to paint fruit because it afforded him obedient models and he was a slow worker He did not intend to simply copy an apple He kept the dominant colour and the character of the fruit but heightened the emotional appeal of the form by a scheme of rich and concordant tones In his paintings of still life he is a master His fruit and vegetable compositions are truly dramatic they have the weight the nobility the style of immortal forms No other painter ever brought to a red apple a conviction so heated sympathy so genuinely spiritual or an observation so protracted No other painter of equal ability ever reserved for still life his strongest impulses Cezanne returned to painting the pre-eminence of knowledge the most essential quality to all creative effort The death of his father in 1886 made him a rich man but he made no change in his abstemious mode of living Soon afterwards Cezanne retired permanently to his estate in Provence He was probably the loneliest of painters of his day At times a curious melancholy attacked him a black hopelessness He grew more savage and exacting destroying canvases throwing them out of his studio into the trees abandoning them in the fields and giving them to his son to cut into puzzles or to the people of Aix At the beginning of the century when Vollard arrived in Provence with intentions of buying on speculation all the Cezannes he could get hold of the peasantry hearing that a fool from Paris was actually handing out money for old linen produced from barns a considerable number of still lifes and landscapes The old master of Aix was overcome with joy but recognition came too late In 1906 he died from a fever contracted while painting in a downpour of rain

Paul Cézanne, 1839-1906 Hajo Düchting, 1999 Cezanne painted still lifes and landscapes portraits and spatial and visual values that influenced the Modernist painters who followed Cezanne Paul Cézanne, Theodore Rousseau, 1953 On life and works of French artist Paul Cezanne The World of Cézanne, 1839-1906 Richard W. Murphy, Time-Life

Books, 1968 The life and work of the French artist Madame Cézanne Dita Amory, 2014 A new account of Cézanne's complex relationship with his wife who served as the subject of some of his most iconic portraits Paul Cézanne's 1839-1906 portraits of Hortense Fiquet 1850-1922 his wife and the subject of some of his iconic portraits rank among the most powerful of their kind in French modernism Yet posterity has not been kind to Madame Cézanne She was called a distraction blamed for her husband's lackluster landscapes and disdained for her impenetrable expression in the paintings The reality is more complex for while Fiquet may not have been the passion of Cézanne's lifetime she was a willing accomplice as model mother of his only son and unwavering partner against all odds Madame Cézanne examines this unique relationship as it looks at Cézanne the painter draftsman and portraitist Featuring 24 of Cézanne's oil portraits of Fiquet and most of the known drawings Madame Cézanne both reevaluates with insight and compassion the long held misconceptions about the Cézannes unconventional marriage and shows how Cézanne's portraits of his wife provide a lens through which to better understand his overall technique Published by The Metropolitan Museum of Art Distributed by Yale University Press Exhibition Schedule The Metropolitan Museum of Art 11-18-14-03-15-15 Exposition Cézanne (1839-1906) Galerie Pigalle, Paris, 1929 Gauguin and Impressionism Richard R. Impressionism Phoebe Pool, 1967 The Impressionists Monet Manet Cézanne Degas Pissarro and Renoir are probably the most popular of all artistic schools With imagination and insight the author brings Impressionism into focus by showing it through the eyes of the artists and their contemporaries using letters critical reviews and reminiscences of the people who were part of the story As we see in Bernard Denvir's compelling survey the Impressionists had new ways of painting but they also had a new world to paint a world of stream tricycles emergent photography and modern ideas about perception
