To the Jew First or to the Jew at Last Antoine XJ Fritz,2014-09-25 Many missions to the Jewish people such as Jews for Jesus use Romans 1 16 as a proof text to encourage the evangelisation of the Jewish people as a priority to the Jew first and then to the Greek Jewish Missional Priority Is this interpretation of the text legitimate After considering when this priority first appeared the author exposes and evaluates the arguments commonly used to promote it His thorough exegesis of Romans 1 16 17 ultimately resolves the question He takes the opportunity to explore some possible eschatological implications developed from Romans 9 11 and the parables of Jesus Will the first also be the last John for Everyone, Part 2 N. Tom Wright,2006-01-01 This collection of nine meditations from renowned biblical scholar and Anglican Bishop Tom Wright carries Holy Week from its solemn beginnings to the dramatic conclusion on Good Friday and Easter I hope that these addresses Wright says in his preface will contribute both to the enriched understanding and also to the empowered living out of the vital and inexhaustible events at the heart of Christian faith The writings for Palm Sunday through Maundy Thursday morning as well as the Easter Vigil focus on texts from the Gospel of Matthew Maundy Thursday evening Good Friday and Easter morning focus on texts from the Gospel of John Being 'in Christ' in the Letters of Paul Teresa Morgan,2020-11-05

In this study Teresa Morgan offers a radically new interpretation of in Christ and related expressions in the undisputed letters of Paul Starting from a reassessment of Deissmann s Die neutestamentliche Formel in Christo Jesu she argues that Deissmann s philology is flawed the Schweitzerian concept of participation in Christ which is indebted to it is problematic and many contemporary accounts of participation are better understood in other terms Through close readings of each letter Teresa Morgan shows how Paul uses en Christo language instrumentally to speak of what God has done through Christ by Christ s death and encheiristically to speak of the life the faithful now live in Christ s hands in Christ s power under his authority under his protection and in his care This creative use of en Christo language forms part of and connects Paul s soteriology eschatology and Christology shaping his narrative of God s intervention in the world the relationship between God Christ and the faithful the lordship and work of Christ between the resurrection and the parousia and God s ultimate triumph This narrative is closely connected with Paul s ecclesiology and ethics where life in Christ s hands is envisaged as the this worldly dimension of the new creation an aspect of eternal life already active in the present time In Christ s hands the faithful not least Paul himself live a new life in communities with a distinctive structure and dynamic In Christ s hands they hope to remain in right standing with God and serve God until Christ s return ESV Expository Commentary (Volume 9)

Travels Through the Book of Acts (Volume One, Acts 1-15) Jim Duddleston, 2025-09-24 Acts is about the Spirit of God and mission The Spirit of God fills leads and empowers the people of God to travel to all people groups in and among the nations with the gospel One reads with anticipation of where the Spirit will lead next and what cultural and religious barriers he will enable the disciples to overcome so that all peoples hear the good news of Jesus Acts is about travel The gospel travels from a small group of Jewish disciples from the backwater province of Galilee now huddled together in prayer in a house in Jerusalem to Jews in Jerusalem to the despised Samaritans to a nation in Africa and through Greco Roman cities and villages until it reaches Rome the capital of the known world This book is about three journeys an explanation of the message of Acts itself as it moves outward from Jerusalem an invitation for us to move on what we learn and the author's travels to places where the gospel spreads in Acts Understanding the cities the countryside along with the roads one walked and ships one sailed to reach them helps readers visualize the journeys the gospel takes in Acts

Participation and Covenant Dick Moes, 2024-03-13 In Participation and Covenant Contours of a Theodramatic Theology Moes develops a theological framework that has participation in the life of God in Christ through the Spirit as its integrative center In doing so he enters into conversation with covenant or federal theology particularly as it has been presented by Michael Horton in which the integrative center is the concept of the covenant He argues that God's fundamental relationship with humanity does not entail a covenant ontology a fundamentally legal and ethical relationship to God as we find in Horton's presentation but rather an ontology of participating in God's loving presence in Christ through the Holy Spirit. For this relationship we were created and this participation is therefore natural to us. Accordingly a theodramatic framework that incorporates a reframed understanding of divine human covenants and that has participation in the life of God in Christ by the Spirit as its integrative center is better able to give direction for clearly communicating the gospel in our secular culture and for properly shaping our Christian identity and practice in the face of the secularism that affects the church too than Horton's framework of covenant theology.

A Theology of Paul the Apostle, Part One G. Roger Greene, 2023-07-21 The legacy of Paul looms large in all Christian theology. While the study of Paul is not a simple task proper interpretation should be sustainable on the basis of a thorough examination of Paul's letters within their historical matrix. The work Theology of Paul the Apostle is presented in two parts. Part One Paul's Eschatological Gospel addresses matters relevant for Paul's appreciation of the gospel of God in the establishment of the eschatological community in Christ. Paul's Judaism informs his apocalyptic description as he expresses his thought with consistent convictions within the varied contingent contexts of his communities within a Greco-Roman world. Part Two Cross and Atonement examines a perennial storm center within Paul's theology from both an exegetical and developmentally historical perspective. Paul was embraced by the gospel of God in Christ the resurrection being the turning point of the ages. While Paul's theology and the understandings of Paul must be established point by point Paul's theology has continuing relevance within the very different matrix of a postmodern world.

Additional information about Adult Bible Studies Fall 2022 Theme Freedom. This fall our Bible lessons follow the theme of Freedom. The lessons explore the concept of salvation and God's gracious acts in redeeming us. They challenge us who have experienced God's gracious salvation to work for freedom and justice on behalf of others. They acknowledge that as we do we will encounter those whose beliefs and values are different from our own so they encourage us to remain faithful to our beliefs while we act as neighbors to others.

Unit 1 Rescue The concept of salvation is broad and inclusive of many divine actions by which we are rescued from the human predicament. The lessons in this unit focus on the freedom to which we are liberated. In the Roman world the freer you were the more power you exercised over others. Today we think of freedom as the ability to do whatever we want without restrictions. In the Bible freedom is about choosing to whom or what we devote ourselves without restriction. Paul described that choice as servitude to sin or becoming a slave to Christ. Scriptures Exodus 1

Deficiencies in the Justification of the Ungodly Manuel (Manny) Alaniz, 2013-07-15 In recent years the traditional reformed view of imputed righteousness has come under heavy scrutiny and disagreement resulting in an injection of theological fervor centering on the writings of the Apostle Paul The primary source of much of the disagreement comes from a theological movement called the New Perspective on Paul NPP The NPP movement has come to the forefront of New Testament theological scholarship resulting in a continuing debate on the Pauline writings The debate centers on the exegetical interpretation of these writings To state this more clearly the debate involves the reinterpretation of Paul s corpus of work found in Holy Scripture based on a new or different perspective The NPP encompasses a multifaceted theological rubric which questions the traditional interpretation of the Pauline writings including the doctrine of imputed righteousness Currently one of the foremost advocates for the NPP is N T Wright Wright an evangelical New Testament scholar strongly criticizes the traditional interpretation of the doctrine of imputed righteousness This book takes a critical look at Wright s view of the doctrine of imputed righteousness and identifies some deficiencies from a traditional reformed perspective
