My Faust composed of two unfinished plays: Luste or the Crystal Girl and The Only One and three allegorical plays written for music and performed at the Paris Opera. With two related prose pieces. The Collected Works of Paul Valéry: Plays Paul Valéry, 1956 Plays of Paul Valéry Paul Valéry, 1960 The Collected Works of Paul Valéry: Plays, translated by D. Paul and R. Fitzgerald Paul Valéry, 1956 The Collected Works of Paul Valéry, Vol. 3 Paul Valéry, 1960 The Collected Works of Paul Valéry: Plays Paul Valéry, 1960 The Collected Works of Paul Valéry Paul Valéry, 1960 *The Collected Works of Paul Valéry: Plays, translated by D. The Collected Works of Paul Valéry Paul Valéry, 1960 Moot Plays of Corneille Pierre Corneille, 1959 For contents see Author Catalog Sallies of the Mind Francis Fergusson, 2018-04-17 Francis Fergusson was one of the foremost American literary critics and scholars of the twentieth century. A man of the theater as well as a man of letters, Fergusson's versatility and mastery traversed a wide range of intellectual disciplines. As George Core notes, one of the most remarkable aspects of Fergusson's criticism is that it stands comfortably at ease with the best work stemming from diverse schools of criticism that are sometimes in conflict: the New Critics, the New York intellectuals, the myth critics, and various distinguished critics of the modern theater. Though allied with the New Critics, Fergusson was intellectually capacious enough to be associated with many critical schools of vastly different persuasions. R. W. B. Lewis once remarked of this respected original that his critical theories and practices possess a severely beautiful purity. Sallies of the Mind is a collection of Fergusson's essays drawn from a variety of virtually unattainable works. It incorporates Fergusson's representative criticism on such major authors as Dante, Shakespeare, James, and Eliot on myths as well as action on the modern stage and on the modern novel. Essays in this collection include: T. S. Eliot and His Impersonal Theory of Art; Humanism; Maritain's Creative Intuition; Two Perspectives on European Literature; Two Acts from Dante's Drama of the Mind; The Divine Comedy as a Bridge across Time; Hamlet; Measure for Measure; Eugene O'Neill; Exiles; and Ibsen's Work Oedipus. According to Freud, Sophocles and Freud: The Theater of Paul Valéry; D. H. Lawrence's Sensibility; and The Drama in The Golden Bowl. Francis Fergusson's criticism endures not only owing to its originality, depth, and range but also to its classically austere clarity of style. Looking at the present-day critical scene, we see few who match Fergusson's intelligence, learning, and verve. Sallies of the Mind is a tribute to his legacy as well as to the themes he treats. The Faust Legend Sara Munson Deats, 2019-09-19 Explores the influence of the Faust legend on drama and film from the sixteenth century to the contemporary era The American Play Marc Robinson, 2009-01-01 In this brilliant study, Marc Robinson explores more than two hundred years of plays, styles, and stagings of American theater. Mapping the changing cultural landscape from the late eighteenth century to the start of the twenty-first he explores how theater has and has not changed and offers close readings of plays by O'Neill, Stein, Wilder, Miller, and Albee as well as by important but perhaps lesser known dramatists such as Wallace Stevens, Jean Toomer, Djuna Barnes, and many others. Robinson reads each work in an ambitiously interdisciplinary context linking advances in theater to developments in American literature, dance, and visual art. The author is particularly attentive to the continuities in American drama and expertly teases out recurring themes such as the significance of visuality. He avoids neatly categorizing nineteenth and twentieth century plays and depicts a theater more restive and mercurial than has been recognized before. Robinson proves both a fascinating and thought provoking critic and a spirited guide to the history of American drama. Cherchez la femme Erika Fülöp, 2011-05-25 Throughout history the most fundamental values at the basis of societal organization and culture were determined and sanctified almost exclusively by men including the values traditionally associated with women such as corporeal beauty, purity, motherhood, or empathy. However, from ancient times and increasingly toward the end of the second millennium, women have succeeded in finding ways to overcome such limits and have made their contributions to the revision of values and to the establishment of new ones. Cherchez la femme offers a selection of essays inquiring into the nature of aesthetic, linguistic, cultural, and social values created, informed, or reformed by women in the French speaking world as well as studies on how the discourse of male power used female figures to strengthen its own position. With topics ranging in time from Semiramis's ancient legend to today and in space from Quebec to Haiti, metropolitan France, and New Caledonia, the volume shares the richness and fruitfulness of the female perspective in art, culture, theory, and political action.

Renaissance Drama Sandra Clark, 2007-11-19 This work provides a comprehensive overview of one of the richest periods of theatre history: the drama of early modern England. Medieval and Renaissance Drama in England S. P. Cerasano, 2012 Medieval and Renaissance Drama in England is an international volume published annually. Playing with Earth and Sky James Housefield, 2016-07-05 Playing with Earth and Sky reveals the significance astronomy, geography, and aviation had for Marcel Duchamp, widely regarded as the most influential artist of the past fifty years. Duchamp transformed modern art by abandoning unique art objects in favor of experiences that could be both embodied and cerebral. This illuminating study offers new interpretations of Duchamp's momentous works from readymades to the early performance art of shaving a comet in his hair. It demonstrates how the immersive spaces and narrative environments of popular science, from museums to the modern planetarium, prepared paths for Duchamp's nonretinal art. By situating Duchamp's career within the transatlantic cultural contexts of Dadaism and Surrealism, this book enriches contemporary debates about the historical relationship between art and science. This truly original study will appeal to a broad readership in art history and cultural studies. Thematics Claude Bremond, Joshua Landy, Thomas G. Pavel, 1995-01-01 The contributors of international reputation include Jean-Yves Bosseur, Claude Bremond, Menachem Brinker, Peter Cryle, Lubomir Dolezel, Francoise Escal, Thomas Pavel, Shlomith Rimmon-Kenan, Georges Roque, Jean-Marie Schaeffer, Cesare Segre, and Werner Sollars. In the theoretical section the authors assess the need for new thematics relate thematics to structural analysis and interpretation and sketch a history of the discipline
