Southern Kentucky and Oceans Far Away Brian L. Tucker, 2023-12-20 Few family members stick around long enough to see their children grow up In Preston Adam's case his father is estranged and rheumatic living alone an hour north Despite fallouts between his dad and sister Preston attempts to make amends when his stepmother suddenly passes In an odd twist of fate she gifts him a trip from beyond the grave His father never one to ask for help attempts to get him and his sister to go on an adventure Preston resists and his sister wants no part of it With time running out he decides to help his dad and see if travel is even possible The two must rely on each other as health fails and trouble intercepts them It is a quest to have fun and try to remember what families are really for At the end of it all will anyone still be smiling From a Land Far, Far Away Wes Trueblood, 2010-12-14 It has been a difficult week in many ways for me Things just didn't go smoothly on different operational fronts Still compared to the students our lives are a breeze Last week one of our students was in his wedding procession when a gunman opened fire and killed his cousin standing nearby Upon his arrival in Baghdad Wes Trueblood was faced with the unenviable task of finding a daily routine in the heart of a war zone. As an English instructor for the Department of Defense, Trueblood was charged with teaching Iraqi pilots the English language so they could receive further peacekeeping training. In this unique position, Trueblood found himself intertwined with the lives of American servicemen, NATO allies, and Iraqi soldiers. Over a nine-month deployment in Iraq and a six-month deployment in Afghanistan, Trueblood gathered insights into the dedication and personal sacrifices of American military personnel. He observed the lives and culture of the Islamic people, finding truths about how ordinary Muslims view the United States. He found reasons to laugh and reasons to cry; he recorded them and returned these messages of success, tribulation, and hope home in the form of weekly correspondences to his wife, family, and friends. A Land Far Far Away is the story of Trueblood's time at the front, told through the letters he wrote home. From his time sleeping in tents to his struggle to stay cool in the summer sun to the ever-changing demands of a fluid mission at the front, Trueblood's story sheds light on the lives of people living in chaos. Over the Hills and Far Away Matthew Dennison, 2017-04-04. Inspired by the twenty-three tales, Matthew Dennison takes a selection of quotations from Potter's stories and uses them to explore her multi-faceted life and character: repressed Victorian daughter, thwarted lover, artistic genius, formidable countrywoman. They chart her transformation from a young girl with a love of animals and fairy tales into a bestselling author and canny businesswoman, so deeply unusual for the Victorian era in which she grew up. Embellished with photographs of Potter's life and her own illustrations, this biography will delight anyone who has been touched by Beatrix Potter's work. For the fans of her children's literature who want to know the real life animals behind Mrs. Tiggy-Winkle, Jemima Puddle-duck, and of course Peter Rabbit. Far Away and Long Ago -

Autobiography of His Youth William Henry Hudson, 2013-04-18. William Henry Hudson spent the first 18 years of his life living among the stunning landscape of the Argentine Pampas and studying the diverse flora and fauna there. This fascinating autobiography of his early years shows a young man with an enquiring mind that would help him become the leading ornithologist of his day; he was fascinated by the interactions of animals and humans alike living on the border of what was then a wild frontier. Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before, are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive. Pomona Press are republishing these classic works in affordable, high-quality modern editions using the original text and artwork. Star Wars: Essays Exploring a Galaxy Far, Far Away Emily Strand, Amy H.
