Solariad Surazeus Astarius, 2017-10-15 Solariad of Surazeus Guidance of Solaria presents 114 920 lines of verse in 1 660 poems lyrics ballads sonnets dramatic monologues eulogies hymns and epigrams written by Surazeus 2006 to 2011 Love Simon May, 2019-03-12 What is love's real aim Why is it so ruthlessly selective in its choice of loved ones Why do we love at all In addressing these questions Simon May develops a radically new understanding of love as the emotion we feel towards whomever or whatever we experience as grounding our life as offering us a possibility of home in a world that we supremely value He sees love as motivated by a promise of ontological rootedness rather than as two thousand years of tradition variously asserts by beauty or goodness by a search for wholeness by virtue by sexual or reproductive desire by compassion or altruism or empathy or in one of today's dominant views by no qualities at all of the loved one After arguing that such founding Western myths as the Odyssey and Abraham's call by God to Canaan in the Bible powerfully exemplify his new conception of love May goes on to re-examine the relation of love to beauty sex and goodness in the light of this conception offering among other things a novel theory of beauty and suggesting against Plato that we can love others for their ugliness while also seeing them as beautiful Finally he proposes that in the Western world romantic love is gradually giving way to parental love as the most valued form of love namely the love without which one's life is not deemed complete or truly flourishing May explains why childhood has become sacred and excellence in parenting a paramount ideal as well as a litmus test of society's moral health In doing so he argues that the child is the first genuinely modern supreme object of love the first to fully reflect what Nietzsche called the death of God
