Return To The African Mother Principle Of Male And Female Equality:

Return to the African Mother Principle of Male and Female Equality Oba T'Shaka, 1995-01-01 The Afrikan Revolution in Ayiti Kimoni Yaw Ajani, 2023-12-18 Throughout the history of Western academia there have been scholars who have interpreted and examined various aspects of human history and made it a point to universalize their own interpretations of different people's histories and cultures. This type of scholarship tends to ignore the contributions and historical realities of other people. This case is especially true of the scholars who have interpreted the historiography around the Afrikan revolution in Ayiti, otherwise known as The Haitian Revolution. Kimoni Yaw Ajani's The Afrikan Revolution in Ayiti: Liberty or Lanm Freedom or Death is an Afrocentric re-examination and interpretation around the historiography of the Revolution in Ayiti and provides an in-depth study that highlights several significant Afrikan epistemological and cosmological aspects that led to freedom. These aspects include but are not limited to the persistence of Afrikan complementary forces in Ayiti: Vodou, Vodun, and Afrikan cosmology; Afrikan combat traditions such as Tire Machet and the numerous Afrikan languages, personalities, and roles that emerged from the growing numbers of Afrikans brought to Ayiti as a result of the European slave trade. Ajani calls for building communities on the best of Afrikan epistemological foundations and reclaiming Afrikan history.

African American Rhetoric(s) Elaine B. Richardson, Ronald L. Jackson, 2007-02-12 African American Rhetoric(s): Interdisciplinary Perspectives is an introduction to fundamental concepts and a systematic integration of historical and contemporary lines of inquiry in the study of African American rhetorics. Edited by Elaine B. Richardson and Ronald L. Jackson II, the volume explores culturally and discursively developed forms of knowledge, communicative practices, and persuasive strategies rooted in freedom struggles by people of African ancestry in America. Outlining African American rhetorics found in literature, historical documents, and popular culture, the collection provides scholars, students, and teachers with innovative approaches for discussing the epistemologies and realities that foster the inclusion of rhetorical discourse in African American studies. In addition to analyzing African American rhetoric, the fourteen contributors project visions for pedagogy in the field and address new areas and renewed avenues of research. The result is an exploration of what parameters can be used to begin a more thorough and useful consideration of African Americans in rhetorical space. The Righteous Way

(Part 1) Starmel Allah, 2013-08-18 The Righteous Way is an introduction to the Five Percent Nation that influenced Hip Hop culture and New York City urban youth. This work lays a foundation for readers to meaningfully build and organize based on the moral and ethical implications of the Nation's teachings. It features an exclusive interview with Allah B. on the history of the Nation and The Word, the Nation's first national newspaper, and is Part 1 of The Righteous Way Trilogy. African

Literature Safoura Salami-Boukari, 2012 How do we resolve the insider/outsider interpreting conundrum? Why do readers from different parts of the world read, interpret, or understand foreign literatures the way they do? What drives peculiar critical reactions, canon formations, and such issues which determine the survival of cultural productions or their continued adoption as useful bolsters for a people's self definition or indeed self preservation and self determination African Literature Gender Discourse Religious Values and the African Worldview offers a series of fresh insights into most of the old problematics which used to sustain the interpretations of African literature especially by women Students scholars and general readers wishing to consider issues of gender in relation to African cultural and socioeconomic systems and what Salami Boukari interrogates and names as an African worldview will find the interdisciplinary discussion of historical analyses literary criticism and gender discourses a useful method for engaging contemporary African perspectives

Dismantling Black Manhood Daniel P. Black, 1997 Drawing on documents between 1794 and 1863 shows how the forms and symbols of manhood in pre colonial West Africa were destroyed by slavery and how male slaves strove to redefine what it meant to be an adult male in the absence of the communal discussion Captivity is shown to have erased not only the rites of manhood the functions and activities by which men fulfilled the social roles as warrior husband father and protector The reconstructed notions included such aspects as sexual performance absolute patriarchal domination of the household and the devaluation of and commitments that impinge on independence They seemed to be largely in place by the time slavery ended and African American men carried them into their new status Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Ponterotto, 2001-04-25 This Second Edition of the Handbook of Multicultural

Counseling marks an important turning point. It brings together the voices of some pioneers who have paved the way and introduces us to new voices who while influenced by the pioneers have taken different paths. Because the multicultural community is well represented in content and scholarship in this second addition the reader can be assured that the view points represented in this book speak to the core issues of the field. I am excited about this Handbook because the authors answer the question that is often heard at many a conference: Where is the research to support multicultural counselling? I am equally excited about this Handbook because it breaks new ground by using as its anchor oral histories which demonstrate that for many of us multicultural counselling is not simply a research agenda but a life long journey that cannot always be measured. The underlying theme of social justice only reinforces our commitment to this journey. Drs Ponterotto, Casas, Suzuki and Alexander have once again helped shape the multicultural conversation. To those who have often said: Where is the research? Look no further. Donald B. Pope-Davis, University of Notre Dame. Its First Edition set a standard for a then emerging field. Now The Handbook of Multicultural Counseling, Second Edition presents not merely an update of the original but a completely reconceived work reflecting the many developments that continue to expand the field of multicultural counselling. This new edition features mostly brand new chapters and expanded coverage of historical perspectives on the field highlighted by personal accounts from some of the pioneers in the area. Professional and ethical issues, counselling's role in fighting oppression, psychological measurement theories, research design, gender issues and higher education issues. With contributions once again from the field's key leaders as well as top emerging scholars, this new edition maintains the breadth and comprehensiveness of the original. The Handbook of Multicultural Counseling, Second Edition is a critical resource for counsellors, counselling students and other mental health professionals who seek to improve their competence in treating a culturally diverse clientele.

Hip-Hop Revolution in the Flesh G. Thomas, 2009-02-16. An extended study of the writings of Lil Kim, the multi platinum selling Hip Hop artist. Examines Lil Kim's anti sexist, gender defiant and ultra erotic verse alongside issues of race and the politics of imprisonment. This is the first study to apply the tools of literary criticism to Hip Hop's lyrical writings.

New African Intellectuals and New African Political Thought in the Twentieth Century Mbukeni Herbert Mnguni, 2015. This book is purposely and deliberately entitled New African Intellectuals and New African Political Thought in the Twentieth Century. It encapsulates the recent debate about the political and cultural role played by the New African intellectuals in developing modern African political thought. The authors argue that the New African Intellectuals was a culturally and politically dominant movement of the twentieth century despite the fact that it was suppressed and oppressed by white colonialism and racism. It was a political and cultural expression of the oppressed and disposed people. During its cultural and political splay the New African Intellectuals was preoccupied with three inseparable historical issues forming the concept of the New African: constructing the foundations of African modernity and formulating the principles of African Nationalism. Offering fresh insights that are both empirically and theoretically informed, this book illuminates the processes and consequences of the New African scholars and writers The political contribution made by the New African intellectuals is traced from its origins in literature music and language The discussion concludes with an exploration of the dilemma faced by African languages as they are dominated by European languages The authors argue that this dominance has resulted to the petrification and mummification of African languages because outstanding even great African writers are not using them in relation to modern technological and linguistic experience The authors believe that this broad ranging book will be of interest to all those studying African politics and culture and who are concerned with understanding modern African societies in the light of post colonialism      Serving African American Children Sondra

Jackson, Sheryl Brissett-Chapman, 1999 Serving African American Children was initiated to present an African American perspective on child welfare issues affecting African American children The chapters in this volume challenge the child welfare community to ensure that all African American children receive protection nurturing and an improved quality of life to create and sustain mutual communication and support through program development to ensure that African American consultants are involved in the evaluation of agencies where African American populations represent a significant proportion of the service population and to increase African American leadership through education and training opportunities in preparation for executive level positions Major chapters and contributors to Serving African American Children include Family Preservation and Support Services A Missed Opportunity for Kinship Care by Julia Danzy and Sondra M Jackson Achieving Same Race Adoptive Placements for African American Children by Ruth G McRoy Zena Oglesby and Helen Grape African American Families and HIV AIDS Caring for Surviving Children by Alma J Carten and Ilene Fennoy A Rite of Passage Approach Designed to Preserve the Families of Substance Abusing African American Women by Vanesta L Poitier Makini Niliwaambieni and Cyprian Lamar Rowe and An Afrocentric Program for African American Males in the Juvenile Justice System by Aminifu R Harvey and Antoinette A Coleman The chapters reflect a variety of policy research and practice issues clinical techniques and treatment models and new perspectives in child welfare The theme that runs throughout each chapter is the grave concern about the overrepresentation of African American children and families in the child welfare system and about the limited if not missing influence of the African American perspective on policy and practice Serving African American Children is a book of vital importance and should be read by all social workers sociologists African American studies specialists and professionals in the field of child welfare      Group Work With Populations at Risk Geoffrey L.
