

RETURNS TO VENICE

- They had been away so long and were so much changed in appearance that none of their relations and old friends knew them when they arrived in Venice
- At length, in order to show that they were the men that they declared themselves to be, they gave a dinner to all their relations and old friends.
- He then brought into the room the rough Tatar filled with rubies, emeralds and diamonds. It was the finest collection of jewels ever seen in Venice.
