Revaluing French Feminism Critical Essays On Difference Agency And Culture:

Revaluing French Feminism Nancy Fraser, Sandra Lee Bartky, 1992-04-22 Fraser and Bartky have brought the encounter between U S and French feminism to a new level of seriousness Ethics In the last decade elements of French feminist discourse have permeated and transformed the larger feminist culture in the United States This volume is the first sustained attempt to revalue French feminism and answer the question What has been gained and what has been lost as a result of this intercultural encounter Interviews with Simone de Beauvoir open the book essays by French feminists Sarah Kofman and Luce Irigaray follow the North American contributors are Judith Butler Nancy Fraser Diana J Fuss Nancy J Holland Eleanor H Kuykendall Dorothy Leland Diana T Meyers Andrea Nye and Margaret A Simons Julia Kristeva and Feminist Thought Birgit Schippers, 2011-04-15 This book appraises the relationship between contemporary feminism and Julia Kristeva a major figure in Continental thought It addresses the conflicting range of feminist responses to Kristeva s key ideas and Kristeva s equally conflicting as well as ambiguous position vis a vis feminism Schippers argues that this complex relationship can only be understood by positioning Kristeva along the fissures and fault lines which run through feminism By attending to feminism s internal debates and disputes and addressing the philosophical commitments and attachments held by Kristeva s critics the book clarifies the diverse Kristeva reception within feminism and illuminates how her ideas trouble contemporary feminist thought And despite Kristeva s fundamental ambiguity towards all matters feminist Schippers makes a case for Kristeva s important contribution to a feminist project which is sympathetic towards her account of fluid subjectivity and her critique of identity politics In doing so the author advances the scholarly understanding of Kristeva and of contemporary feminist thought Rethinking Culture, Organization and Management Robert McMurray, Alison Pullen, 2020-03-11 The purpose of this book is to reimagine the concept of culture both as an analytical category and disciplinary practice of dominance marginalization and exclusion For decades culture has been perceived as a hot topic It has been written about and deployed as part of a search for excellence as a tool through which to categorise rank motivate and mould individuals as a part of an attempt to align individual and corporate goals as a driver of organizational change and as a servant of profit maximisation The women writers presented in this book offer a different take on culture they offer useful disruptions to mainstream conceptions of culture Joanne Martin and Mary Douglas provide multi dimensional holistic accounts of social relations that point up similarity and difference Rather than offering totalising or prescriptive models each author considers the complex polyphonic and processual nature of culture s while challenging us to acknowledge and work with ambiguity fluidity and disruption In this spirit writings of Judi Marshall Arlie Hochschild Kathy Ferguson Luce Irigaray and Donna Haraway are employed to disrupt extant management cultures that lionise the masculine and marginalise the concerns perspectives and contributions of women and the diversity of women These writers bring bodies emotions difference resistance and politics back to the centre stage of organizational theory and practice They open us up to the possibility of cultures suffused with multifarious potentiality rather than homogeneity and faux certainty As such they offer new ways of understanding and performing culture in management and organization This book will be relevant to students and researchers across business and management organizational studies critical management studies gender studies and sociology Agency, Culture, and Human Personhood Jeanne M. Hoeft, 2009-01-01 Agency Culture and Human Personhood uses feminist theories process and liberation theologies psychodynamics and the problem of intimate partner violence to develop a pastoral theology of human agency The turn to cultural context for understanding what makes human beings who they are and do the things they do raises significant questions about human agency To what extent is agency the human capacity to act self determined and to what extent is it determined by external factors If we conceive of persons with too little agency we negate the possibility for change but too much agency negates the necessity for resistance movements Hoeft argues that agency arises ambiguously from and is constituted of culture She suggests that such a conception of agency enables the church to foster in victims perpetrators and congregations more resistance to violence and proposes practices of ministry that can do just that The book will challenge deeply ingrained notions of personal responsibility and one's capacity to choose change yet offers concrete proposals for a creating a less violent world Philosophy and the Maternal Body Michelle Boulous Walker, 2002-01-22 Philosophy and the Maternal Body gives a new voice to the mother and the maternal body which have often been viewed as silent within philosophy Michelle Boulous Walker clearly shows how some male theorists have appropriated maternity and suggests new ways of articulating the maternal body and women's experience of pregnancy and motherhood Religion, Society, And Psychoanalysis Janet L Jacobs, 2018-02-12 Distinguished contributors provide an overview of three generations of psychoanalytic theory including the work of Freud Horney Winnicott and Kristeva and discuss the evolution of psychoanalytic thought as it relates to the role that religion plays in modern culture Religion clearly remains a powerful social and political force in Western society Freudian based theory continues to inform psychoanalytic investigations into personality development gender relations and traumatic disorders Using a historical framework this collection of new essays brings together contemporary scholarship on religion and psychoanalysis These various yet related psychoanalytic interpretations of religious symbolism and commitment offer a unique social analysis on the meaning of religion Beginning with Freuds views on religion and mystical experience and continuing with those of Horney Winnicott Kristeva Miller and others this volume surveys the work of three generations of psychoanalytic theorists Special attention is given to objects relations theory and ego psychology as well as to the recent work from the European tradition Distinguished contributors provide a basic overview of a given theorists scholarship and discuss its place in the evolution of psychoanalytic thought as it relates to the role that religion plays in modern culture Religion Society and Psychoanalysis marks a major interdisciplinary step forward in filling the void in the social psychology of religion It is an extremely useful handbook for students and scholars of psychology and religion Political Narratosophy Senka Anastasova, 2023-09-29 Political Narratosophy offers a critically subversive rethinking of the political and philosophical significance of narrative and why feminist epistemology and feminist social theory matters for the meaning of the self and narrativity Through a re examination of the notions of democracy and emancipation Senka Anastasova coins the term political narratosophy a unique interpretation of the philosophy of narrative identification and disidentification developed in conversation with philosophers Jacques Rancière Nancy Fraser and Paul Ricoeur Utilizing the author's own identity as a feminist philosopher has lived in socialist Yugoslavia post Yugoslavia and Macedonia now North Macedonia Anastasova explores the fluctuating and disappearing borders around which identity is situated in a country that no longer exists She expertly reveals how the subject finds makes and unmakes itself through narrativity politics and imagination Political Narratosophy is an important intervention in political philosophy and a welcome contribution to the historiography on female authors who lived through twentieth century communism and its aftermath It will be of great interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of political theory philosophy women's studies international relations identity studies comparative literary studies and aesthetics studies

Resistance, Flight, Creation Dorothea Olkowski, 2000 Thirteen women at the forefront of philosophy locate new feminist points of view within the discipline by rigorously engaging works of contemporary French philosophy In so doing they both transform the standard practices of the field and carve out new territory These writers amplify the work of feminist philosophers such as Simone de Beauvoir Luce Irigaray and Sarah Kofman in ways that are both stylistically and substantively creative They also appropriate for radical feminist use the works of male philosophers such as Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze Maurice Merleau-Ponty and Jean-Paul Sartre The essays illustrate the manner in which feminist philosophers bypass traditional methodology in favor of a disciplinary freedom characterized by fluid methodologies best exemplified in Beauvoir's work and by the employment of imaginative forms including the autobiographical and the poetic The modes of inquiry used here range variously from psychoanalysis and existentialism to deconstruction post-structuralism and newly resurgent phenomenology This volume also contains a comprehensive bibliography of feminist thinkers who are enacting French philosophy in English German and French

Education and Cultural Studies Henry A. Giroux, Patrick Shannon, 2013-12-02 Although the disciplines of critical education and cultural studies have traditionally occupied separate spaces as they have addressed different audiences their concerns as well as the political and pedagogical nature of their work overlap Education and Cultural Studies brings members of these two groups together to demonstrate how a critical understanding of culture and education can transgressively implement broad political change All written from within this framework of cultural studies and critical pedagogy the contributors illuminate the possibilities and opportunities open to practicing educators In eschewing a romantic utopianism and in assessing the current climate of what is attainable and practical this book teaches us how we can begin to translate and perhaps even transform the vexing social problems that confront us daily Contributors include Carol Becker Harvey J. Kaye David Theo Goldberg Jeffrey Williams Sharon Todd Douglas Kellner Deborah Britzman Jacqueline Reid

Walsh Claudia Mitchell Cameron McCarthy Mike Hill Susan Searls Stanley Aronowitz Douglas Noble Kakie Urch Henry Giroux David Trend and Robert Mikilitsch French Feminists on Religion Morny Joy, Kathleen O'Grady, Judith L. Poxon, 2002 This collection gathers together the writings on religion of the major voices of French feminism Also included are introductory essays by the editors which provide a context and demonstrate the importance of these works Sacrificed Lives Martha J. Reineke, 1997-10-22 Why did medieval women mystics starve themselves What caused the European witch hunts and why were its victims tortured and killed Why has the Christian West regularly found maternal figures threatening To answer these questions Martha Reineke advances a theory of sacrifice inspired by Julia Kristeva and Rene Girard that attempts to account for violence in Western culture the human proclivity for bodily mutilation and abuse and women s special vulnerability to violence A challenging and controversial book Sacrificed Lives constructs an important bridge between esoteric postmodern theory and ordinary human life as it furthers a vital philosophical debate on the question of violence

Engaging with Irigaray Carolyn Burke, Naomi Schor, Margaret Whitford, 1994 The authors of these essays including Judith Butler Elizabeth Weed and Rosi Braidotti shed new light on the relationship of Irigaray to many of the philosophers she has romanced from Aristotle to Deleuze The Impossibility of Motherhood Patrice DiQuinzio, 1999 An adequate analysis of experiences and situations specific to women especially mothering requires consideration of women s difference A focus on women s difference however jeopardizes feminism s claims of women s equal individualist subjectivity and risks recuperating the inequality and oppression of women especially the view that all women should be mothers want to be mothers and are most happy being mothers This book considers how thinkers including de Beauvoir Kristeva Chodorow and Rich struggle to negotiate this dilemma of difference in analyzing mothering encompassing the paradoxes concerning embodiment gender and representation they encounter Patrice DiQuinzio shows that mothering has been and will continue to be an intractable problem for feminist theory and argues for a reconceptualization of feminist theory itself and suggests the political usefulness of an explicitly paradoxical politics of mothering The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of Philosophers in America John R. Shook, 2016-02-11 For scholars working on almost any aspect of American thought The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America presents an indispensable reference work Selecting over 700 figures from the Dictionary of Early American Philosophers and the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers this condensed edition includes key contributors to philosophical thought From 1600 to the present day entries cover psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology and political science before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy Clear and accessible each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading Featuring a new preface by the editor and a comprehensive introduction The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America includes 30 new entries on twenty first century thinkers including Martha Nussbaum and Patricia Churchland With in depth overviews of Waldo Emerson

Margaret Fuller Noah Porter Frederick Rauch Benjamin Franklin Thomas Paine and Thomas Jefferson this is an invaluable one stop research volume to understanding leading figures in American thought and the development of American intellectual history

After Postmodernism Richard Smith, Philip Wexler, 2005-09-27 This work presents a set of thematic essays aimed at clarifying the educational problems and paradoxes of postmodern educational conditions and theory The major concerns of the book are the possibility of achieving substantive political objectives and of theorising such possibilities These concerns arise from a dissatisfaction with the organisational and political conditions of postmodern educational practice The seeming inability of academics to intervene in the public sector especially in matters of equality provides a driving force to the book For individuals who care about the future of education and its role in social reconstruction the pessimistic nature of postmodern theories of society and education is an additional impetus for the book All the chapters exemplify the issues that confront lecturers in contemporary university teacher education contexts A notable feature of the book is a theme that current theorisation about education and society are historically outmoded and that the future lies in post postmodern theories

Girls, Texts, Cultures Clare Bradford, Mavis Reimer, 2015-06-22 This book focuses on girls and girlhoods texts for and about girls and the cultural contexts that shape girls experience It brings together scholars from girls studies and children s literature fields that have traditionally conducted their research separately and the collaboration showcases the breadth and complexity of girl related studies Contributors from disciplines such as sociology literature education and gender studies combine these disciplinary approaches in novel ways with insights from international studies postcolonial studies game studies and other fields Several of the authors engage in activist and policy development work around girls who experience poverty and marginalization Each essay is concerned in one way or another with the politics of girlhood as they manifest in national and cultural contexts in the everyday practices of girls and in textual ideologies and agendas In contemporary Western societies girls and girlhood function to some degree as markers of cultural reproduction and change The essays in this book proceed from the assumption that girls are active participants in the production of texts and cultural forms they offer accounts of the diversity of girls experience and complex significances of texts by for and about girls

Ethics of Eros Tina Chanter, 2016-02-04 Ethics of Eros sheds light on contemporary feminist discourse by questioning the basic distinctions and categories in feminist theory Tina Chanter uses the work of Luce Irigaray as the focus for a critique of French and Anglo American feminism as it is articulated in the debate over essentialism While these two branches of feminism represent opposing views Chanter advocates a productive exchange between the two

Educational Leadership and Nancy Fraser Jill Blackmore, 2016-06-10 Drawing on the work of Nancy Fraser this book offers a critical view of contemporary educational leadership and reform discourses exploring how her key concepts of redistribution recognition and representation may apply to social and therefore educational justice Fraser offers a political and pragmatic reconciliation between feminist neo Marxist critical and post structuralist theories This book outlines how Fraser has worked on and worked over theories of social justice and how this can inform how we can understand educational theory policy and practice generally In particular the book focuses on the field of educational administration and leadership ELMA as it relates to equity issues such as school choice and inequality gender and inclusive leadership and alternative schooling Fraser s argument about scaling up social justice theory is shown to be highly salient given the emergence of the field of transnational education policy and its role in the context of intensified nation state and edu business competition Overall through the lens of Nancy Fraser s unitary framework this book considers epistemological questions about the nature of knowledge examines the relationship between the state the individual education and social movements addresses the difficulties and dilemmas which arise due to the intersections of gender class race sexuality and culture in a globalized context and illustrates how the principles of social justice can be mobilized by leaders in everyday practice Educational Leadership and Nancy Fraser is an illuminating read for those policymakers researchers and practitioners engaged in the field of educational administration leadership and social justice

Moving Words Gay Morris,2005-06-28 Moving Words provides a direct line into the most pressing issues in contemporary dance scholarship as well as insights into ways in which dance contributes to and creates culture Instead of representing a single viewpoint the essays in this volume reflect a range of perspectives and represent the debates swirling within dance The contributors confront basic questions of definition and interpretation within dance studies while at the same time examining broader issues such as the body gender class race nationalism and cross cultural exchange Specific essays address such topics as the black male body in dance gender and subversions in the dances of Mark Morris race and nationalism in Martha Graham s American Document and the history of oriental dance

Poststructuralist Agency Rae Gavin Rae,2020-02-14 Gavin Rae shows that the problematic status of agency caused by the poststructuralist decentring of the subject is a central concern for poststructuralist thinkers First Rae shows how this plays out in the thinking of Deleuze Derrida and Foucault He then demonstrates that it is with those poststructuralists associated with and influenced by Lacanian psychoanalysis that this issue most clearly comes to the fore He goes on to reveal that the conceptual schema of Cornelius Castoriadis best explains how the founded subject is capable of agency
