Mediterranean region The Home of Jesus Philip E. Dotson,2024-04-16 A creative yet biblically based examination of the person and life of Jesus Christ The Home of Jesus A Conversational Tour journeys through Jesus earthly home from the entrance gate onto the front porch into and through the rooms in the home and exiting onto a pathway for life's travels Readers are led to reflect upon the historicity of Jesus the birth of Jesus the deity of Jesus and the love and incarnate nature of Jesus Did He exist in history Does He exist today Will He exist in the future Along the way the author holds an engaging and thought provoking conversation with readers making this a unique and meaningful reading experience Phil Dotson a skillful tour guide challenges readers to form their own beliefs based on their examination of the evidence for Christ without total reliance on others to tell them what to believe Readers are asked to challenge their own beliefs as well as the beliefs of others to include the author's Accompanying readers on the tour are the voices of other authors poets and even hymn writers including John Bunyan L M Montgomery and John Milton adding to the rich narrative of the journey The first in a series this intriguing book will appeal to believers and nonbelievers alike An excellent addition to personal and church libraries

Saints Françoise Meltzer,Jas Elsner,2024-05-31 While the modern world has largely dismissed the figure of the saint as a throwback we remain fascinated by excess marginality transgression and porous subjectivity categories that define the saint In this collection Fran oise Meltzer and Jas Elsner bring together top scholars from across the humanities to reconsider our denial of saintliness and examine how modernity returns to the lure of saintly grace energy and charisma Addressing such problems as how saints are made the use of saints by political and secular orders and how holiness is personified Saints takes us on a photo tour of Graceland and the cult of Elvis and explores the changing political takes on Joan of Arc in France It shows us the self fashioning of culture through the reevaluation of saints in late antique Judaism and Counter Reformation Rome and it questions the political intent of underlying claims to spiritual attainment of a Muslim sheikh in Morocco and of Sephardism in Israel Populated with the likes of Francis of Assisi Teresa of Avila and Padre Pio this book is a fascinating inquiry into the status of saints in the modern world      The Urban World and the First Christians Steve Walton,Paul Trebilco,David W. J. Gill,2017 In the tradition of The First Urban Christians by Wayne Meeks this book explores the relationship between the earliest Christians and the city environment Experts in classics early Christianity and human geography analyze the growth development and self understanding of the early Christian movement in urban settings The book s contributors first look at how the urban physical cultural and social environments of the ancient Mediterranean basin affected the ways in which early Christianity progressed They then turn to how the earliest Christians thought and theologized in their engagement with cities With a rich variety of expertise and scholarship The Urban World and the First Christians is an important contribution to the understanding of early Christianity      American Apocalypse Rena Steinzor,2024-07-09 A thorough analysis of the right wing interests contributing to the downfall of American democracy The war on American democracy is at a fever pitch Such a corrosive state of affairs did not arise spontaneously up from the people but instead was pushed top down by six private sector special interest groups big business the House Freedom Caucus the Federalist Society Fox News white evangelicals and armed militias In American Apocalypse Rena Steinzor argues that these groups are nothing more than well financed armies fighting a battle of attrition against the national government with power money and fame as their central motivations The book begins at the end of Lyndon Johnson s presidency when the modern regulatory state was born Agencies like the Environmental Protection Agency and the Food and Drug Administration ensured that everything from our air to our medicine was safe But efforts to thwart this big government agenda began swiftly albeit in the shadows Business leaders built a multi billion dollar presence in the Capitol and the rest of the six interest groups soon followed While the groups do not coordinate their attacks and sometimes their short term goals even conflict their priorities fall within a surprisingly tight bullseye the size and power of the administrative state In the near term their campaigns will bring the crucial functions of government to a halt which will lead to immediate suffering by the working classes and a rapid deterioration of race relations Over the long term as the prevalence of global pandemics and climate crises increase an incapacitated national government will usher in unimaginable harm This book is the first to conceptualize these groups together as one deconstructive and awe inspiring force Steinzor delves into each of their histories mapping the strategies tactics and characteristics that make them so powerful She offers the most comprehensive story available about the downfall of American democracy reminding us that only by recognizing what we are up against can we hope to bring about change      Preaching Through Time Casey C. Barton,2017-07-28 As preachers who come to the pulpit before God and before God s people each and every week how do we make sense of the text as we live a new moment of its ongoing story Most options available to the preacher necessitate a hermeneutical step that requires us to preach outside of time in timeless truths experiences or realities But the gospel is the drama of God appearing to and working with and loving God's people in time Preaching Through Time gives the preacher a timely homiletic for preaching together the times of God's gospel then and now while calling God's people to perform their own roles in today's moment of that gospel drama Anachronism preaching together the moments of God's drama is the language event that will get us from text to timely sermon week by week

Youth Beyond the Developmental Lens Wesley W. Ellis, 2024-01-23 What happens when we stop thinking of young people as projects and recognize them for who they are here and now Wesley Ellis exposes the insidious impact of developmental psychology upon youth ministry and practice arguing instead for a theological anthropology of youth that can help us see all people including adolescents as uniquely created in the image of God Propelled by the conviction that ministry requires us to see youth as beings rather than becomings Ellis demonstrates how we can reorient our vision toward ministry that prioritizes relationship and inclusion over rigid developmental frameworks A veteran youth minister across multiple denominations Ellis knows his subject deeply as both practitioner and theologian Youth beyond the Developmental Lens mines personal accounts the biblical narrative and a vast array of theological expertise to release readers from restrictive assumptions that have long bound youth ministry Ellis's finely tuned pastoral sensibilities bring all these elements into focus helping us understand ministry as relational and all humans as part of God's story Rostered ministers lay leaders and others engaged with youth will find an antidote to anxiety about the future of the church Ellis reminds us that God is here already Our call is simply to be

Love, Violence, and the Cross Gregory Anderson Love, 2010-08-01 Does God use violence to redeem us What is the relationship between divine love and violence in regard to the saving significance of the cross of Christ In Love Violence and the Cross Gregory Love dialogues with two responses to this question while presenting a third alternative in which Jesus's death is simultaneously a crime and an element of God's saving actions Through familiar stories in history literature and film Love presents five constructive models that cumulatively affirm God's saving act in the person and work of Christ while letting go the myth of redemptive violence They affirm redemption but one with a different shape Instead of exacting the absolute punishment God redeems by making good God's promise to humanity to secure human life Love argues that God is nonviolent while retaining the core idea presented in the New Testament witnesses that reconciliation occurs in the work of Christ and that the cross plays a role in that divine work

Creation and Doxology Gerald L. Hiestand, Todd Wilson, 2018-10-23 What does it mean to both affirm the goodness of God's creation and anticipate the new creation Bringing together contributions from church leaders academic theologians and scientists on the doctrine of creation this volume engages with Scripture scientific theory church history and current issues to help Christians understand the beginning and ending of God's good creation
