Revelation has fired the imaginations of theologians preachers artists and ordinary Christians across the centuries The resulting number of commentaries on the book is enormous and most studies can only touch upon at most a representative sample of this vast literature As a consequence many focus largely on the interpretation of the Apocalypse only within specific periods such as the patristic period or during the Reformation One result of this severe limitation given the vast literary corpus is how historical interpretations in critical commentaries of the Book of Revelations tend to prioritize authors from the modern period In The Book of Revelation and Its Interpreters Short Studies and an Annotated Bibliography editors Richard Tresley and Ian Boxall fill a significant gap in the scholarly literature At its heart is an extensive annotated bibliography covering commentaries on the book up to 1700 including most of the early illuminated Apocalypses Supporting the presentation of this survey of the historical interpretations of the Book of Revelation is an extended overview of Revelation s often colorful reception history by Christopher Rowland together with a number of short studies on various aspects of the book These include discussions of specific commentators such as Sean Michael Ryan s look at Tyconius and Francis X Gumerlock exploration of Chromatius of Aquileia alongside a more general treatment of Revelation s impact on the figure of John of Patmos in an essay by Ian Boxall and the visual reception of Revelation in Natasha O Hear s article The Book of Revelation and Its Interpreters provides a valuable bibliographical resource for those working in the field of Biblical Studies history of Christianity eschatology and apocalyptic studies The accompanying essays orient the authors recorded in the bibliography within a larger context offering specific examples of the Apocalypse s capacity to speak in fresh and often surprising ways to diverse audiences throughout history

The Origins of Pauline Pneumatology Finny Philip,2005 Finny Philip inquires into Paul's initial thoughts on the Holy Spirit Paul's conviction that he was called to be an apostle to the Gentiles and that God bestowed the Spirit upon the Gentiles apart from Torah obedience is the basis for any inquiry on this subject Central to Philip's argument is Paul's conviction that God graciously endowed his Gentile converts with the gift of the Spirit an understanding that is rooted primarily in his conversion experience and secondarily in his experience with and as a missionary of the Hellenistic community in Antioch In examining the range of expectations of the Spirit that were present in both Hebrew scripture and in the wider Jewish literature the author comes to the conclusion that such a concept is rare and that it is usually the covenant community to which the promise of the Spirit is given Furthermore Paul's own pre Christian convictions about the Spirit a result of his own self perception as a Pharisee and persecutor of the church display continuity between his thought patterns and those of Second Temple Judaism Paul's Damascus experience was an experience of the Spirit His experience of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ 2 Cor 3 14 6 provided him with the belief that there was now a new relationship with God which was possible through the sphere of the Spirit In addition Paul was influenced by the Hellenists whose theological beliefs included the perception of the church as the eschatological temple in which the Spirit of God is the manifest presence of God It is in these notions that one may trace the origins of Paul's thoughts on the Holy Spirit
