Reverend F G Kayser Journal Letters:

Rev. F. G. Kayser Friedrich Gottlob Kayser, 1990 The Journal and Selected Letters of Rev. William J.

Shrewsbury, 1826-1835 William James Shrewsbury, 1994 Shrewsbury's correspondence focuses attention almost exclusively on the Xhosa and their interaction with the missionaries providing an insight into the dynamics of the relationship between evangelist and evangelized His journal includes observations and impressions of his encounters A Living Man from Africa Roger S. Levine, 2010-12-21 Born into a Xhosa royal family around 1792 in South Africa Jan Tzatzoe was destined to live in an era of profound change one that witnessed the arrival and entrenchment of European colonialism As a missionary chief and cultural intermediary on the eastern Cape frontier and in Cape Town and a traveler in Great Britain Tzatzoe helped foster the merging of African and European worlds into a new South African reality Yet by the 1860s despite his determined resistance he was an oppressed subject of harsh British colonial rule In this innovative richly researched and splendidly written biography Roger S Levine reclaims Tzatzoe's lost story and analyzes his contributions to and experiences with the turbulent colonial world to argue for the crucial role of Africans as agents of cultural and intellectual change

Evangelical Magazine and Missionary Chronicle, 1827 An Age of Hubris Timothy Keegan, 2023-07-05 An Age of Hubris is the first comprehensive overview of the impact of missionary enterprise on the Xhosa chiefdoms of South Africa in the first half of the nineteenth century chronicling a world punctuated by war and millenarian eruptions and the steady encroachment of settler land hunger and colonial hegemony With it Timothy Keegan contributes new approaches to Xhosa history and most important a new dimension to the much trodden but still vital topic of the impact cultural social and political of missionary activity among African peoples The most significant historical works on the Xhosa have either become dated foreground imperial colonial history or remain heavily theoretical in nature In contrast Keegan draws fruitfully on the rich Africanist comparative and anthropological literature now available as well as extant primary sources to foreground the Xhosa themselves in this crucial work In so doing he highlights the ways in which Africans utilized new ideas resources and practices to make sense of react to and resist the forces of colonial dispossession confronting them emphasizing missionary frustration and African agency The Evangelical Magazine and Missionary Chronicle, 1827 Eish, but is it

English? Rajend Mesthrie, 2011-12-05 What makes South African English different Have you ever wondered where the words gogga tsotsi and larney come from Did you know that the first sentence uttered by a South African in English may have been spoken by a Khoikhoi man in 1613 South African English is unique and is made up of several varieties This entertaining and informative book looks at the forms of English spoken here where they come from and how they fit into the spectrum of world Englishes Humorous and engaging it is packed with common expressions slang grammatical variations and distinctive South African words and phrases including just now busy waiting and of course eish The book explores the influence of Afrikaans Zulu Xhosa and other languages on English as it is spoken in the diverse context of South Africa It considers the social implications of language questions notions of correctness and incorrectness and celebrates South African English for its innovations and expressiveness Eish but is it English is a book for everyone who is interested in the way we use language and make it our own The Letters of Jane Elizabeth Waterston, 1866-1905 Jane Elizabeth Waterston,1983

Empire And Others Professor M Daunton,Rick Halpern,2020-09-10 Much has been written about the forging of a British identity in the 17th and 18th centuries from the multiple kingdoms of England Scotland and Ireland But the process also ran across the Irish sea and was played out in North America and the Caribbean In the process the indigenous peoples of North America the Caribbean the Cape Australia and New Zealand were forced to redefine their identities This text integrates the history of these areas with British and imperial history With contributions from both sides of the Atlantic each chapter deals with a different aspect of British encounters with indigenous peoples in Colonial America and includes for example sections on Native Americans and Early Modern Concepts of Race and Hunting and the Politics of Masculinity in Cherokee treaty making 1763 1775 This book should be of particular interest to postgraduate students of Colonial American history and early modern British history When Races Meet Donovan Williams,1967 Colonizing Consent Elizabeth Thornberry,2019

Using a wealth of court records Colonizing Consent shows how rape cases were caught up in and helped shape the major political debates in colonial South Africa History in Africa ,1993 THE SCOTTISH CONGREGATIONAL MAGAZINE ,1868 African Books in Print ,1993 Kronos ,1990 Africa Bibliography 1992 International African Institute,1994 This volume contains works on Africa published during 1992 The Evangelical Magazine and Missionary Chronicle ,1850

Joint Acquisitions List of Africana ,1994 Imperial Networks Alan Lester,2005-08-19 Imperial Networks investigates the discourses and practices of British colonialism It reveals how British colonialism in the Eastern Cape region was informed by and itself informed imperial ideas and activities elsewhere both in Britain and in other colonies It examines the origins and development of the three interacting discourses of colonialism official humanitarian and settler the contests compromises and interplay between these discourses and their proponents the analysis of these discourses in the light of a global humanitarian movement in the aftermath of the antislavery campaign the eventual colonisation of the Eastern cape and the construction of colonial settler identities For any student or resarcher of this major aspect of history this will be a staple part of their reading diet Blood Ground Elizabeth Elbourne,2002 In Blood Ground Elizabeth Elbourne looks at the relationship between the Khoekhoe the British empire and the London Missionary Society in the early nineteenth century a time of intense conflict in which different groups competed to mobilize Christianity for their own political ends She explores the social history of the early missionary movement as well the political impact of British evangelicals arguing that religious change in southern Africa can only be understood in the material context of ethnic conflict and bitter struggles over land and labour In doing so she reintegrates the history of religion into the mainstream historical narrative of South Africa offering a view of Christianity not as a monolithic system but as a language subject to interpretation and highly politicized conflicts
