Monthly Labor Review United States. Bureau of Labor Statistics, 1988 Publishes in depth articles on labor subjects current labor statistics information about current labor contracts and book reviews     Finding A Woman's Place David L. Balch, Jason T. Lamoreaux, 2011-01-01 This stimulating collection of essays by prominent scholars honors Carolyn Osiek The essays reflect her career and attempt to pay tribute to both the unity and the diversity of her accomplishments The authors interpret early Christians in their social world and women in early Christianity with interpretations spanning the New Testament and early church documents The editors have brought together an international group of scholars The book includes both a comprehensive bibliography of Osiek's work as well as a brief introduction by the editors reflecting on their experiences with her during her career Contributors David Balch Jeremy W Barrier Terri Bednarz R S M Laurie Brink O P Warren Carter Adela Yarbro Collins Amy Jill Levine Margaret Y MacDonald Jason L Merritt Halvor Moxnes Barbara Reid O P David Rhoads Donald Senior C P Yancy W Smith     National Food Review , 1988     List of Bureau of Mines Publications and Articles ... with Subject and Author Index United States. Bureau of Mines, 1990     New York Court of Appeals. Records and Briefs. New York (State).,     Family Economics Review , 1988     Customs Bulletin and Decisions , 1990     Customs Bulletin , 1994-05     Women and Comedy Susan Carlson, 2025-10-01 The first comprehensive study of its kind this book explores the contradictory connections between women and dramatic comedy Women and Comedy shows how a genre that has been used historically to restrict women's behavior is being reconfigured to express women's triumphs It thus redefines the assumptions with which both traditional comedy and contemporary women's plays are read and viewed Challenging a critical consensus that has seen comedy as a haven for female power Carlson argues that traditional comedy is deeply sexist welcoming strong women characters only because it can contain their power Through an analysis of a range of comedies by Shakespeare Congreve Maugham Shaw and Ayckbourn the author shows that even in these plays self consciously about liberated females women gain only a limited freedom a freedom that the endings of the plays work to negate This negotiation is seen to result in part from the comic structure itself which privileges a merely temporary inversion and an ultimate return to the status quo Carlson then examines the transitional work of three writers Aphra Behn Henry James and Ann Jellicoe whose heroines follow an unorthodox trajectory through their comic worlds While the work of these writers clearly remains within the mainstream comic tradition the author notes in them a subtle departure most notably in their description of the heroine as subject rather than object which prefigures the full scale transformations of women in comedy by contemporary women writers The book then examines contemporary comedy that revises traditional comic structure at the same time as it explores fundamental social change In making her case for the difference of contemporary comedy by women Carlson examines the reformulations of structure and character and considers issues of community self and sexuality in a broad range of plays by individual playwrights and by the new women's theater collectives

Women and Comedy is an important work for students of British drama and will appeal to theater practitioners critics feminist scholars and all those interested in the performing arts

The Muzzled Muse Margreet de Lange,1997-04-10 The long history of censorship is a parallel and equally powerful history of literature Censors bear witness to the power of the word even more forcefully than the writers and the readers they consider dangerous Index on Censorship 6 1996 A critical assessment of literature produced under censorship needs to take into account that the strategies of the censors are answered by strategies of the writers and the readers To recognize self censoring strategies in writing it is necessary to know the specific restrictions of the censorship regime in question In South Africa under apartheid all writers were confronted with the question of how to respond to the pressure of censorship This confrontation took a different form however depending on what group the writer belonged to and what language he she used By looking at white writers writing in Afrikaans and white and black writers writing in English this book gives the impact of censorship on South African literature a comparative examination which it has not received before The book considers works by J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer Andr Brink and others less known to readers outside South Africa like Karel Schoeman Louis Kr ger Christopher Hope Miriam Tlali and Mtutuzeli Matshoba It treats the censorship laws of the apartheid regime as well as in the final chapter the new law of the Mandela government which shows some surprising similarities to its predecessor Margreet de Lange teaches Comparative Literature at Utrecht University and coordinates the University s interdisciplinary program of South African Studies She received her Ph D from the Graduate Center of the City University of New York De Lange expertly sketches in the historical and literary backgrounds as she goes taking us right up to the recent unsatisfactory revision of the censorship laws making The Muzzled Muse a vitally important summary of literary censorship in South Africa and a handbook of what to guard against in the future Shaun de Waal Mail Guardian Sept 26 to October 1 1997
