Prayers from the Darkness Lyn Fraser,2005-10 The difficult psalms which amount to more than a third of the Psalter shock us with their cries of pain anger and alienation They call on God for revenge on their enemies and mercy for themselves Lyn Fraser following the lead of Old Testament theologian Walter Brueggemann shows how to integrate these psalms of disorientation in Sunday morning worship pastoral care and any situation of extreme need

The Farewell Discourses in Practice John Vincent,2019-08-26 Practice Interpretation takes the everyday social conditions of people as they are described in the Bible and looks at emerging issues that confront today s interpreters in daily life This volume in the Practice Interpretation series deals with the Farewell Discourses of Jesus in the Gospel of John The key element and dynamic in the Johannine practice reflections in this volume is that John s Gospel sometimes explicitly often implicitly sets forth a continuing Jesus style practice by Jesus followers in the gospel time in the longer term behaviour of early Christian communities and in contemporary Christian disciples and communities today Each contributor indicates this at work in very different contexts and happenings The contributors are Leslie Francis David Blatherwick Sarah Pullin David McLoughlin Ian Wallis Nirmal Fernando John Vincent and Alan Saxby     Psychological Perspectives on Religious Education Leslie J. Francis, 2020-02-03 In this monograph Leslie J Francis reviews and assesses the contributions made by the individual differences tradition of psychology over the past 50 years to research in religious education In this context religious education is conceived broadly to embrace what takes place in schools within religious communities and within households across the age span Topics include the centrality of the attitudinal dimension of religion the place of personality in the individual differences tradition sex as a core individual difference in religion the consequences of individual differences in religious affect the role of church schools and the role of the family in religious nurture the factors that account for individual differences in attitude toward religious diversity the relevance of the individual differences tradition for adult religious education the implications of the individual differences tradition for biblical hermeneutics and discipleship learning     Year D Timothy Matthew Slemmons, 2012-05-04 Although one often hears of the need to preach the whole counsel of God few resources have seriously and specifically attempted to assist the preacher and planner of worship to do just that until now Year D makes the case for the need and promise of supplementing the Revised Common Lectionary with a fourth year of lections and arranges many previously excluded biblical texts in an orderly one year preaching plan It fills a need widely voiced by preachers that the lectionary effectively limits and censors the functional canon of Scripture Destined to serve as a staple source of significant revitalization in mainline preaching and worship Year D banks on the agency of Word and Spirit to renew the church as few practical proposals have done in the last twenty years lending new focus and impetus for exploring the Bible's forgotten riches A timely and urgently needed return to the sources Year D represents a fresh appropriation of neglected and marginalized texts for preaching worship education and devotion and thus constitutes a substantive scriptural attempt to address what Walter Brueggemann has called the current preaching emergency
