The Writer's Quotebook
Jim Fisher, 2006

If you have ever stared at a page that remains stubbornly blank, if you have ever wondered why writers write or whether good writers are born or made, if you are a novelist, playwright, poet, or journalist, or simply delight in the written word, The Writer's Quotebook is for you. Whether you keep it in your office, on your coffee table next to your keyboard, or your bed, this rich compendium of over one thousand quotations will inspire, invigorate, and illuminate the often challenging, sometimes humorous but always fascinating task of those who bring words to life. From William Faulkner and Ernest Hemingway to Doris Lessing and Joyce Carol Oates, more than five hundred published writers put pen to paper on what the literary life is all about. Selections come from seasoned professionals as well as those just establishing their voice, and they represent a variety of nationalities and genres. The book is divided into three sections. The first part is devoted to the creative process, including thoughts on where writers get their ideas, the role of inspiration, what kind of people write, and where talent comes from. In part two, the subject shifts to writing as a craft. Here authors ponder the creation of protagonists and points of view, the writing of dialogue, setting and description, creating plots, and the anatomy of style. The final third of the book deals with the challenges and rewards that come with the writing life. Subjects in this section include the economic realities of writing, classes, conferences, and workshops; dealing with rejection and bad reviews; writing habits and rituals; despair, alcohol, suicide, and fame. Articulated with elegant metaphor in straightforward prose or with wry wit, the carefully selected and thoughtfully organized quotations come together to form a narrative that entertains, informs, and, in the case of aspiring writers, shows the way to better writing.
