The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

In the Dark Room Rosanna Maule,Julie Beaulieu,2009 This book examines Duras s contribution to contemporary cinema The dark room in the collection s title refers to one of Duras s metaphors for the writing process la chambre noire as the solitary space of literary creation the place where she struggles to project her internal shadow onto the blank page The dark room is also a metaphor for the film theater and by extension for the filmic experience Duras rejected conventional forms of cinematic address that encourage the spectator to develop a positive identification with the film s diegesis and narrative Her films create unusual rapports between image and sound diegetic and extra diegetic elements and textual and intertextual dimensions of cinematic representation In doing so they allow the film spectator to establish new connections with the screen This collection focuses on the aesthetic conceptual and political challenges involved in Duras's innovative approach to cinematic representation from an interdisciplinary perspective including film and literary theory psychoanalytic analysis music theory gender studies and post colonial criticism The book opens with a theoretical introduction to Duras's cinematic practice and its peculiar position in contemporary cinema and contemporary film theory and is divided into five parts each one devoted to a specific aspect of Duras's films the interaction between literature and cinema Part One the reconfiguration of the cinematic gaze Part Two and of the image sound relation Part Three the representation of history and memory Part Four and of cultural identity Part Five

Broken Narratives, 2014-08-07 The end of the Cold War reshuffled the power relations between former friends and enemies In Broken Narratives the contributors offer an account of the consequences of the end of the Cold War for the re telling of history in film literature and academic historiography in Europe and East Asia Despite the post modern claim that there is no need for a master narrative the contributions to this book show that we are in the middle of an intense and difficult search for a common understanding of the past However instead of common narratives polyphony and dissonances are produced which reflect a world in a period of transition As the contributions to this volume show the year 1989 has generated broken narratives Contributors include Peter Verstraten Rotem Kowner Susanne Weigelin Schwiedrzik Carsten Sch fer Martin Gieselmann Yonson Ahn Chang Lung chih Andrea Riemenschnitter Shingo Minamizuka Petra Buchholz and Tatiana Zhurzhenko
