Revolucion Y Desilusion La Venezuela De Hugo Chavez:

Revolución y desilusión Carlos Blanco, 2002 Revolutions in Cuba and Venezuela Silvia Pedraza, Carlos A. Romero, 2023-03-28 This book compares the sociopolitical processes behind two major revolutions Cuba in 1959 when Fidel Castro came to power and Venezuela in 1999 when Hugo Chavez won the presidential election Venezuela Steve Ellner, Miguel Tinker Salas, 2006-12-07 This authoritative book offers a comprehensive assessment of contemporary Venezuela Analyzing the multifaceted phenomenon of Hugo Chavez leading scholars move beyond his flamboyant style to focus on the concerns of popular social and political movements The book challenges the misleading notions that for several decades glorified Venezuelan exceptionalism and minimized the role of important actors After setting the historical and socio economic contexts the contributors explore racial issues social and labor movements electoral politics economic and oil policy and United States support for the Venezuelan opposition Underscoring the complexity of Chavez and his popularity the book highlights the need to avoid simplistic assessments of the past and present and offers a clear eyed understanding of Venezuelan reality today Contributions by Christopher I Clement Steve Ellner Maria Pilar Garcia Guadilla Daniel Hellinger Jesus Mar a Herrera Salas Edgardo Lander Dick Parker Miguel Tinker Salas and Crist bal Valencia Ramirez Revolución y desilusión Carlos Blanco, 2002 Constructing Democratic Governance in Latin America Jorge I. Domínguez, Michael Shifter, 2013-07-31 After more than a century of assorted dictatorships and innumerable fiscal crises the majority of Latin America's states are governed today by constitutional democratic regimes Some analysts and scholars argue that Latin America weathered the 2008 fiscal crisis much better than the United States How did this happen Jorge I Domínguez and Michael Shifter asked area specialists to examine the electoral and governance factors that shed light on this transformation and the region's prospects They gather their findings in the fourth edition of Constructing Democratic Governance in Latin America This new edition is completely updated Part I is thematic covering issues of media constitutionalism the commodities boom and fiscal management vis vis governance Part II focuses on eight important countries in the region Argentina Brazil Bolivia Chile Colombia Mexico Peru and Venezuela Already widely used in courses Constructing Democratic Governance in Latin America will continue to interest students of Latin American politics democratization studies and comparative politics as well as policymakers Political Violence and the Construction of National Identity in Latin America Peter Lambert, 2006-11-27 This topical volume seeks to analyze the intimate but under studied relationship between the construction of national identity in Latin America and the violent struggle for political power that has defined Latin American history since independence The result is an original fascinating contribution to an increasingly important field of study The Construction of Democracy Jorge I. Domínguez, Anthony Jones, 2007-07-06 How should democracies balance the hopes and constraints of their societies with the architecture of their constitutions and institutions to secure freedom promote citizenship and foster prosperity In The Construction of Democracy leading scholars from seven different countries and key decision makers from eight come together to analyze the dimensions of democratic design and draw not only practical but feasible recommendations Here citizens politicians and government officials offer valuable insight into the craft of politics with real examples of success and failures from some of the leading policy makers of our time including the president of Portugal former presidents of Brazil and Colombia and a former prime minister of India Drawing on the work of the Club of Madrid s Conference on Democratic Transition and Consolidation the contributors discuss building and sustaining a contemporary democratic state strengthening pluralism and public participation designing effective constitutions confronting economic challenges for new democracies and controlling corruption In a rare instance where the expertise of practical minded scholars is melded with the experience of thoughtful policy makers this volume offers much needed insight to others seeking sensible and effective solutions Contributors Carlos Blanco minister for the reform of the state Venezuela Fernando Henrique Cardoso former president of Brazil Anibal Cavaco Silva president of Portugal António Guterres Secretary General of the United Nations António Guterres the Research Service of the Brazilian Chamber of Deputies Rut Diamint Universidad Torcuato Di Tella Buenos Aires Jorge I Domínguez Harvard University Grzegorz Ekiert Harvard University César Gaviria former president of Colombia Anna Grzymala Busse University of Michigan Inder Kumar Gujral former prime minister of India Anthony Jones the Gorbachev Foundation of North America Marcelo Barroso Lacombe the Research Service of the Brazilian Chamber of Deputies Jos Luis Méndez El Colegio de México Andrew Richards Instituto Juan March of the Centro de Estudios Avanzados de Ciencias Sociales Madrid Susan Rose Ackerman Yale University Richard Simeon University of Toronto Luc Turgeon University of Toronto

Racism and Discourse in Spain and Latin America Teun A. van Dijk, 2005-07-05 This new book extends Teun A van Dijk s earlier research on discursive racism to the Latin world He presents a first inventory of elite discourse and racism in Spain and Latin America by examining discursive reactions in Spain to recent immigration as well as age old racism and ethnicism in text and talk in Latin America especially Mexico Brazil Argentina and Chile Through careful analysis of the media political discourse textbooks and other public discourses in these countries he shows that discursive euro racism is ubiquitous also in countries outside Europe Spain reproduces but as yet in a less radical way the kind of racist discourse we find elsewhere in Western Europe In Latin America ethnicism and racism against the indigenous peoples and against Afrolatins has prevailed in elite discourse since colonialism and slavery This is the first integrated study of discursive racism in the Latin world and provides a useful framework for similar research

Multicultural America Ronald H. Bayor, 2011-07-22 This encyclopedia contains 50 thorough profiles of the most numerically significant immigrant groups now making their homes in the United States telling the story of our newest immigrants and introducing them to their fellow Americans One of the main reasons the United States has evolved so quickly and radically in the last 100 years is the large number of ethnically diverse immigrants that have become part of its population People from every area of the world have come to America in an effort to realize their dreams of more opportunity and better lives either for themselves or for their children This book provides a fascinating picture of the lives of immigrants from 50 countries who have contributed substantially to the diversity of the United States exploring all aspects of the immigrants lives in the old world as well as the new Each essay explains why these people have come to the United States how they have adjusted to and integrated into American society and what portends for their future Accounts of the experiences of the second generation and the effects of relations between the United States and the sending country round out these unusually rich and demographically detailed portraits

Encyclopedia of the Developing World Thomas M. Leonard, 2013-10-18 A RUSA 2007 Outstanding Reference Title The Encyclopedia of the Developing World is a comprehensive work on the historical and current status of developing countries Containing more than 750 entries the Encyclopedia encompasses primarily the years since 1945 and defines development broadly addressing not only economics but also civil society and social progress Entries cover the most important theories and measurements of development relate historical events movements and concepts to development both internationally and regionally where applicable examine the contributions of the most important persons and organizations and detail the progress made within geographic regions and by individual countries

We Are the State! Cristobal Valencia, 2015-05-28 Chavistas are the local leaders and activists in Venezuela s Bolivarian Revolution working to establish democracy through government sponsored social missions community self governance and popular collectives We Are the State tells the story of their grassroots activism In perspectives gleaned from participant observation with barrio residents in workplaces communal kitchens city wide forums and grassroots meetings and assemblies as well as family and recreational events anthropologist Cristobal Valencia vividly recounts tensions between activists local officials and the wealthy opposition The author offers an anthropological analysis of the state social movements and democracy as lived experiences of the poor gendered and racialized residents of two parishes in Caracas Venezuela and Afro Venezuelan communities nearby Ethnographic research reveals the shift in relationships of power and the evolving political practices among the Chavistas the Chavez government and the opposition Examining the subjective experiences of barrio residents in everyday processes of state formation this book provides a new perspective on the Chavistas arguing that they are a broad based social movement and driving force behind a revolution struggling to transfer state power to organized civil society Through his intense engagement with the constantly changing social political and economic dynamics Valencia dramatically challenges top down understandings of the state and power in Venezuela He shows the unequal relationships between sectors of civil society and he shows state formation as a process enmeshed in the struggles for social justice demonstrating that the state is a sociopolitical entity that acts through civil society rather than above it

Leadership by Resentment Ruth Capriles, 2012-01-01 What do such disparate events as Occupy Wall Street Iran s Islamic revolution and Venezuela s socialist revolution have in common Often resentment based on past grievances or shortcomings seems to emerge from the depths of individual and collective psyches over the course of such emotionally charged movements This resentment and the related philosophical concept of resentment can have a profound impact on the course of history and on the role of leadership within societies Expanding on the concept of resentment this book addresses the importance of emotions in historical events The author explores the conditions that foster the development of resentment the role of leaders and followers and the phases of the phenomenon as it encourages destructive behaviors such as murder and suicide Often considered an incurable disease with destructive social and political repercussions it is a core motive for acts of terrorism revolutions social upheavals and processes of toxic leadership The author puts forth a model that helps to describe certain historical processes led by resentment like some revolutions and terrorist acts and to distinguish them from other movements that are usually treated as similar e g independence revolutions The book then tackles a seemingly impossible question Can we find a cure for this powerful and destructive impulse With care and deliberation the author demonstrates the power of ethical leadership recognition and redemption as positive unifying forces during human conflicts A philosophical endeavor to understand events from the Boston Tea Party to Occupy Wall Street from the French revolution to Hugo Ch vez s revolution in Venezuela this book will be fascinating reading for scholars and students of the social sciences and humanities and those with a particular interest in leadership Pretorianismo venezolano del siglo XXI ,2007 Una lectura sociológica de la Venezuela actual ,2005
