Deng, 2011-10-01 The civil war that has intermittently raged in the Sudan since independence in 1956 is according to Francis Deng a conflict of contrasting and seemingly incompatible identities in the Northern and Southern parts of the country Identity is seen as a function of how people identify themselves and are identified in racial ethnic cultural linguistic and religious terms The identity question related to how such concepts determine or influence participation and distribution in the political economic social and cultural life of the country War of Visions aims at shedding light on the anomalies of the identity conflict The competing models in the Sudan are the Arab Islamic mold of the North representing two thirds of the country in territory and population and the remaining Southern third which is indigenously African in race ethnicity culture and religion with an educated Christianized elite But although the North is popularly defined as racially Arab the people are a hybrid of Arab and African elements with the African physical characteristics predominating in most tribal groups This configuration is the result of a historical process that stratified races cultures and religions and fostered a passing into the Arab Islamic mold that discriminated against the African race and cultures The outcome of this process is a polarization that is based more on myth than on the realities of the situation The identity crisis has been further complicated by the fact that Northerners want to fashion the country on the basis of their Arab Islamic identity while the South is decidedly resistant Francis Deng presents three alternative approaches to the identity crisis First he argues that by bringing to the surface the realities of the African elements of identity in the North thereby revealing characteristics shared by all Sudanese a new basis for the creation of a common identity could be established that fosters equitable      The Root Causes of Sudan's Civil Wars Douglas Hamilton Johnson, 2003 Sudan's post independence history has been dominated by long recurring and bloody civil wars Most commentators have attributed the country's political and civil strife either to an age old racial and ethnic divide between Arabs and Africans or to colonially constructed inequalities In The Root Causes of Sudan's Civil Wars Douglas H Johnson examines historical political economic and social factors to come to a more subtle understanding of the trajectory of Sudan's civil wars Johnson focuses on the essential differences between the modern Sudan's first civil war in the 1960s the current war and the minor conflicts generated by and contained within the larger wars Regional and international factors such as humanitarian aid oil revenue and terrorist organizations are cited and examined as underlying issues that have exacerbated the violence Readers will find an immensely readable yet nuanced and well informed handling of the history and politics of Sudan's civil wars      Identity,

Military Marxism Adam Mayer, 2024-12-16 Adam Mayer's Military Marxism Africa's Contribution to Revolutionary Theory 1957-2023 explores African Marxist theory and the intellectual merits of Afro Marxist schools of thought to show how they have developed and impacted sub Saharan Africa from the Cold War to the present He also discusses the efficacy of the movements influenced by Marxism and how they are contested today Through in depth research Mayer answers the following questions Who were the African Marxist intellectuals What happened to these intellectuals in the 1990s in NGO administered deindustrialized Africa How are these theories inspiring popular rebellions and radical anti Western military coups today This book explores how Military Marxism through its own rich and variegated African theory has continued to inform and guide the practice of various political movements today Hasan al-Turabi, the Last of the Islamists Abdullahi A. Gallab, 2018-07-15 This book is not a typical biography of Hasan al Turabi It is a project in the study of a Sudanese human experience at the heart of which Hasan al Turabi was an actor a victim and a victimizer Hasan al Turabi the rise and fall of his Islamism and the dramatic life of generations of the Sudanese community of state that link the underlying causes to the capacity of the state not only as a throwback to oppression and exploitation of the colonial state but also accompanied by an alarming persistence of violence and corruption that exists within the wilding and greed of al Turabi s Islamists Here the Sudanese experience of al Turabi Islamism stands as a very important one in the history of the Sudan the region and in general This not because of its success but because of its total failure It proved that what has been advocated as al Islam howa al Hal Islam is the solution turned into violence is the solution Hence what the Sudanese Islamism al Turabi Islamism presented to the world that such a state is itself an unachievable idea neither by default nor by design It is as Hasan al Turabi himself has stated that his Islamists tarnished the Image of Islam Hasan al Turabi endured more suffering under the hands of his merciless disciples more than he suffered from his enemies Gallab argues that Islamism like other isms is crucible for violence and evil Nevertheless al Turabi remains an albatross around the neck of the Islamist movement the Islamist movement remains as an albatross around his neck too This book illuminates al Turabi s life the human experience of his generation and his Islamists by brining into sharp focus a Turabi the man and his time without reproducing a giant of either one of them The Horn of Africa Peter Woodward, 1996-12-31 Nowhere is the crumbling of state structures more self evident than in Somalia the Sudan and Ethiopia Drawing on a wide range of little known material this book presents an overview of structural disintegration in the Horn of Africa from the dual perspectives of domestic and international political developments The breakdown of these three major states is due according to Woodward to the ravages of civil war He argues that while all three conflicts arise from domestic issues their scale has been magnified by international involvement which has also linked the three countries together with Ethiopia as the crux The Horn of Africa is a study of the national and international dimensions of these conflicts examining not only the relations between the three countries but also their relations with a variety of regional actors as well as with the superpowers The Cambridge History of Africa J. D. Fage, Roland Anthony Oliver, Michael Crowder, 1975 The eighth and final volume of The Cambridge History of Africa covers the period 1940 75 It begins with a discussion of the role of the Second World War in the political decolonisation of Africa Its terminal date of 1975 coincides with the retreat of Portugal the last European colonial power in Africa from its possessions and their accession to independence The fifteen chapters which make up this volume examine on both a continental and regional scale the extent to which formal transfer of political power by the European colonial rulers also involved economic social and cultural decolonisation A major theme of the volume is the way the African successors to the colonial rulers dealt with their inheritance and how far they benefited particular economic groups and disadvantaged others The contributors to this volume represent different disciplinary traditions and do not share a single theoretical perspective on the recent history of the continent a subject that is still the occasion for passionate debate
