Christie, 2001 Drawing on books speeches documents and statements issued by key individuals and political and cultural movements in South East Asia between 1900 1975 this book is an ideological history of South East Asia Time Out of Hand Robert Shaplen, 1970 Ideology and Revolution in Southeast Asia 1900-75 Clive J. Christie, 2015-06-08 This book examines the interaction between Asian Values and European ideology and how this relationship influenced the nationalist and revolutionary movements that dominated Southeast Asian politics during 1945 1975 Republicanism, Communism, Islam John T. Sidel, 2021-05-15 In Republicanism Communism Islam John T Sidel provides an alternate vantage point for understanding the variegated forms and trajectories of revolution across the Philippines Indonesia and Vietnam a perspective that is de nationalized internationalized and transnationalized Sidel positions this new vantage point against the conventional framing of revolutions in modern Southeast Asian history in terms of a nationalist template on the one hand and distinctive local cultures and forms of consciousness on the other Sidel s comparative analysis shows how in very different decisive and often surprising ways the Philippine Indonesian and Vietnamese revolutions were informed enabled and impelled by diverse cosmopolitan connections and international conjunctures Sidel addresses the role of Freemasonry in the making of the Philippine revolution the importance of Communism and Islam in Indonesia s Revolusi and the influence that shifting political currents in China and anticolonial movements in Africa had on Vietnamese revolutionaries Through this assessment Republicanism Communism and Islam tracks how these forces rather than nationalism per se shaped the forms of these revolutions the ways in which they unfolded and the legacies which they left in their wakes Revolution, Reform and Regionalism in Southeast Asia Ronald Bruce St John, 2006-01-16 Based on research carried out over the three decades this book compares the post war political economies of Cambodia Laos and Vietnam in the context of their individual and collective impact on contemporary efforts at regional integration The author highlights the different paths to reform taken by the three neighbours and the effect this has had on regional plans for economic development through the ASEAN and the Greater Mekong Subregion Through its comparative analysis of the reforms implemented by Cambodia Laos and Vietnam over the last thirty years the book draws attention to parallel themes of continuity and change The author discusses how the three states have demonstrated related characteristics whilst at the same time making different modifications in order to exploit the unique strengths of their individual cultures Contributing to the contemporary debate over the role of democratic reform in promoting economic development the book provides a detailed account of the political economies of three states at the heart of Southeast Asia A Turning Wheel Robert Shaplen, 1979 China and Southeast Asia Jay Taylor, 1974 Revolution, Reform and Regionalism in Southeast Asia Ronald Bruce St. John, 2005 Forgotten Wars Christopher Alan Bayly, Timothy Norman Harper, 2007 This is a panoramic account of the bitter wars of the end of empire seen not only through the eyes of the fighters but also through the personal stories of ordinary people Thailand and the Southeast Asian Networks of the Vietnamese Revolution, 1885-1954 Christopher E. Goscha, 1999 Breaking with nationalist and colonial historiographies which have largely locked Vietnam into Indochinese or nation state straightjackets Goscha takes Thailand as his point of departure for exploring how the Vietnamese revolution was intimately linked to Asia between 1885 and 1954

Time Out of Hand Shaplen Robert, 1817 Thailand and the Southeast Asian Networks of The Vietnamese Revolution, 1885-1954 Christopher E. Goscha, 2013-09-05 Christopher Goscha resituates the Vietnamese revolution and war against the French into its Asian context Breaking with nationalist and colonial historiographies which have largely locked Vietnam into Indochinese or Nation state straightjackets Goscha takes Thailand as his point of departure for exploring how the Vietnamese revolution was intimately linked to Asia between the birth of the Save the King Movement in 1885 and the Battle of Dien Bien Phu in 1954 But his study is more than just a political history Goscha brings geography to bear on his subject with a passion While he considers the little known political movements of such well known faces as Phan Boi Chau and Ho Chi Minh across Southeast Asia the author takes us into the complex Asian networks stretching from northeastern Thailand and the port of Bangkok to southern China and Hong Kong and beyond There we see how Ho and Chau drew upon an invisible army of Vietnamese and Chinese traders criminals prostitutes sailors and above all the thousands of emigres living in Vietnamese communities in Thailand Region of Revolt Milton Osborne, 2013-10-22 Region of Revolt Focus on Southeast Asia deals with the phenomenon of revolt and revolutionary change in Southeast Asia Countries covered include Vietnam Laos Indonesia Burma Thailand Cambodia and the Philippines Images of revolt such as those indicating heroism are considered along with traditional patterns of revolt This book is comprised of 10 chapters and begins with an overview of images typically associated with revolt including those of brave but beautiful women leading their troops against the enemy The next chapter explores the four categories of revolt in Southeast Asia revolts against foreign domination revolt involving elite rivalries revolts of minorities and of regions and the millenarian revolt Subsequent chapters focus on tradition in anti colonial revolts the years before and during World War II revolts that failed such as those in Malaya and the Philippines and revolts that half succeeded such as the one staged by Vietnam against French colonial power The myth of the Vietnam War is also discussed along with theorists and theories of wars and revolts This monograph will be a useful resource for political scientists military strategists and foreign policymakers Southeast Asia and the Great Powers Nicholas Tarling, 2013-06-17 Southeast Asia has on the basis of the nation state secured both a large measure of interstate peace and cooperation and a degree of autonomy from great powers outside the region ASEAN both represents that position and promotes it But it also depends on the attitude of the great powers Rivalry and Revolution in South and East Asia Partha S. Ghosh, 2019-05-23 First published in 1997 this study reveals the forces of nationalism and internationalism at work side by side in the populous and volatile regions of South and East Asia which make up the 11 chapters of this volume They cover regional security political economy territorial disputes and national unification Problems such as those of Cambodia and the nuclearization of India Pakistan and North Korea create serious international concern while unresolved regional issues force nationalistic and military conflict The irresistible popular pressure for economic integration with the global system often without any corresponding commitment to political freedom underlies it all The cumulative effect of these diverse processes creates an explosive mix of international rivalries and national revolutions which raises the question of the possible arrival of the Asian Century Forgotten Wars Christopher Bayly,Tim Harper,2010-10 This is a panoramic account of the bitter wars of the end of empire seen not only through the eyes of the fighters but also through the personal stories of ordinary people
