Revolution In Zanzibar An Americans Cold War Tale:

Revolution In Zanzibar Donald Petterson, 2009-04-21 The Cold War exploded in Zanzibar in 1964 when African rebels slaughtered one of every ten Arabs Led by a strange messianic Ugandan Cuban trained factions headed the rebels making Zanzibar in the eyes of Washington a potentially cancerous base for the communist subversion of mainland Africa Exotic Zanzibar fabled island of spices former slave trading entrept and stepping off point for 19th century expeditions into the vast interior of the Dark Continent had succumbed to the terror of 20th century revolution and Cold War intrigue In the vivid eyewitness tradition of The Bang Bang Club and The Skull beneath the Skin Donald Petterson weaves an engrossing tale of human drama played out against a background of violence and horror As the only American in Zanzibar throughout the revolution Petterson reports with the inside authority of a highly placed diplomatic observer illuminating how the current troubles in Zanzibar are rooted in the Cold War and the revolution of 1964 Language and Collective Mobilization Nadra

O. Hashim, 2009-06-16 Language and Collective Mobilization analyzes the origins of communal conflict in five phases of Zanzibar s modern history The first phase examines the implementation of British colonial control focusing on the conversion of Zanzibar s subsistence farming economy to a cash crop plantation complex This first phase of colonial rule disrupted a variety of indigenous political and social institutions which traditionally promoted peace and stability During subsequent phases of colonial rule the British government devised political economic and educational policies that promoted elite Arab rule at the expense of the majority Swahili speaking population Colonial authorities rendered illegal any attempts by Swahilis to organize political resistance a rule which exacerbated anti Arab animosity Colonial rule ended in 1964 when Swahili speaking Zanzibaris led a violent revolution against English command and Arab control Having forced a variety of wealthy Arab and Indian communities off the island Swahili revolutionaries allowed a small number of Indian merchants and a few Shirazi farmers to remain Less than twenty years after the revolution in this fifth phase of Zanzibar s political history partisan conflict between the Shirazi and Swahili populations threatens to unleash a new rash of violence The social climate mirrors the first phase of British rule where economic stratification deepens and political tensions grow The analysis offered in this book will find an audience in students scholars journalists and policymakers interested in understanding so called ethnic conflict in Africa

Contemporary Issues in Swahili Ethnography Iain Walker, 2018-10-11 The term Swahili describes the Muslim peoples of the East African coast speakers of Kiswahili or closely related languages who have historically filled roles as middlemen and merchants the cosmopolitan products of a trading economy between Africa and the Indian Ocean world This collection brings together anthropologists working on the greater Swahili world and the issues it confronts dealing with societies from southern Somalia northern Mozambique and the Comoro Islands to Zanzibar and Mafia The authors discuss a range of contemporary issues such as the shifting roles of Islam on the mainland coast consumerism conservation memory and belonging in Zanzibar how a Muslim society deals with HIV AIDS social change development and political strategies in the Comoros and Swahili women in London The diversity of these themes reflects the diversity of the Swahili world itself despite a cohesive cultural identity built upon shared practices religious beliefs and language the challenges facing Swahili people are multiple and complex This book comprises articles originally published in the Journal of Eastern African Studies along with some new chapters

Negotiating Memory from the Romans to the Twenty-First Century Øivind Fuglerud,Kjersti Larsen,Marina

Prusac-Lindhagen,2020-09-14 Manipulation of the past and forced erasure of memories have been global phenomena throughout history spanning a varied repertoire from the destruction or alteration of architecture sites and images to the banning or imposing of old and new practices The present volume addresses these questions comparatively across time and geography and combines a material approach to the study of memory with cross disciplinary empirical explorations of historical and contemporary cases This approach positions the volume as a reference point within several fields of humanities and social sciences The collection brings together scholars from different fields within humanities and social science to engage with memorialization and damnatio memoriae across disciplines using examples from their own research The broad chronological and comparative scope makes the volume relevant for researchers and students of several historical periods and geographic regions

Zanzibar Was a Country Nathaniel Mathews,2024-04-09 Zanzibar Was a Country explores the transregional impact of the Zanzibar Revolution of 1964 through the historical memory of its exiles Thousands of former citizens of Zanzibar and their offspring live in Oman and are a significant contemporary example of an Arab community that maintains a living connection to Africa in diaspora These Zanzibaris as they are often known in Oman speak Swahili sustain community originally formed in Africa and continue to remember Zanzibar s history as an independent country Drawing on their life histories their historiography of Zanzibar and the archival traces of their migrations Nathaniel Mathews demonstrates how these exiles were important to nation building and economic development in Oman

Modern Architecture in Africa Antoni S. Folkers,Belinda A. C. van Buiten,2019-07-22 This book offers unique insights into modern

African architecture influenced by modern European architecture and at the same time a natural successor to existing site specific and traditional architecture It brings together the worlds of traditional site specific architecture with the Modernist Project in Africa which to date have only been considered in isolation The book covers the four architectural disciplines urban planning building technology building physics and conservation It includes an introduction with a historical outline and an analysis and comparison of a number of projects in various countries in Africa On the basis of examples drawn from practice the author documents and describes the hybrid architectural forms that have emerged from the confrontation and fusion with pre modern Western architecture and urban planning and in so doing he also narrates the history of African architecture

Practising Self-Government Yash Ghai, Sophia Woodman, 2013-08-29 Autonomy provides a framework that allows for regions within countries to exercise self government beyond the extent available to other sub state units This book presents detailed case studies of thirteen such autonomies from around the world in which noted experts on each outline the constitutional legal and institutional frameworks as well as how these arrangements have worked in practice to protect minority rights and prevent secession of the territories in question The volume s editors draw on the case studies to provide a comparative analysis of how autonomy works and the political and institutional conditions under which it is likely to become a workable arrangement for management of the differences that brought it into being

coast port city of Dar es Salaam literally the Haven of Peace hosts a population reflecting a legacy of long relations with the Arabian Peninsula and a diaspora emanating in waves from the Indian subcontinent By the 1960s after decades of European imperial intrusions Tanzanian nationalist forces had peacefully dismantled the last British colonial structures of racial segregation and put in place an official philosophy of nonracial nationalism Yet today more than five decades after independence race is still a prominent and publicly contested subject in Dar es Salaam What makes this issue so dizzyingly elusive for government bureaucrats and ordinary people alike is East Africa's location on the Indian Ocean a historic crossroads of diverse peoples possessing varied ideas about how to reconcile human difference social belonging and place of origin Based on a range of archival oral and newspaper sources from Tanzania and India this book explores the history of cross cultural encounters that shaped regional ideas of diaspora and nationhood from the earliest days of colonial Tanganyika when Indian settlement began to expand dramatically to present day Tanzania a nation always under construction The book focuses primarily on two prominent city spaces schools and cinemas the one a site of education the other a site of leisure one typically a programmatic entity of government the other usually a bastion of commercial enterprise Nonetheless the forces shaping schools and cinemas as they developed into busy centers of urban social interaction were surprisingly similar the state community organizations nationalist movements economic change and the transnational winds of Indian Ocean culture and capital Whether in the form of institutional apparatuses like networks of Indian teacher importation and curricula adoption or through the market predominance of the Indian film industry schools and cinemas in East Africa historically were influenced by actions and ideas from around the Indian Ocean Diaspora and Nation in the Indian Ocean argues that an Indian Ocean wide perspective enables an examination of the transnational production of ideas about race against a backdrop of changing relationships and claims of belonging as new notions of nationhood and diaspora emerged It bridges an academic divide because historians often either focus on the Indian diaspora in isolation or write it out of the story of African nation building Further in contrast to the swell of publications on global Indian or South Asian diasporas that highlight longings for and contacts with the homeland the book also demonstrates that much of the creative production of diasporic Indian identities formed in East Africa was a result of local albeit cosmopolitan encounters across cities like Dar es Salaam

The Fate of Africa Martin Meredith, 2011-09-06 The definitive story of African nations after they emerged from colonialism from Mugabe's doomed kleptocracy to Mandela's inspiring defeat of apartheid The Fate of Africa has been hailed by reviewers as A masterpiece The nonfiction book of the year The New York Post a magnificent achievement Weekly Standard a joy Wall Street Journal and one of the decade's most important works on Africa Publishers Weekly starred review Spanning the full breadth of the continent from the bloody revolt in Algiers against the French to Zimbabwe's civil war Martin Meredith's classic history focuses on the key personalities events and themes of the independence era and explains the myriad problems that Africa has faced in the past half century It covers recent events like the ongoing conflict in Sudan the controversy over

Western aid the exploitation of Africa's resources and the growing importance and influence of China The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights [2 Volume Set] Nat Rubner, 2023 A landmark study of the African Charter on human and peoples rights one of the most important documents in modern African history that positions it within the African Lives Matter struggle to assert an African identity rather than as simply a human rights document This set describes its underlying African origins and how the principles of the OAU influenced its path and content A Good African Story Andrew Rugasira, 2013-02-07 Since it was founded in 2003 Good African Coffee has helped thousands of farmers earn a decent living send their children to school and escape a spiral of debt and dependence Africa has received over 1 trillion in aid over the last fifty years and yet despite these huge inflows the continent remains mired in poverty disease and systemic corruption In A Good African Story as Andrew Rugasira recounts the very personal story of his company and the challenges that he has faced and overcome as an African entrepreneur he provides a tantalising glimpse of what Africa could be and argues that trade has achieved what years of aid have failed to deliver This is a book about Africa taking its destiny in its own hands and dictating the terms of its future Disposable Cities Garth Andrew Myers, 2017-03-02 Based on in depth fieldwork in three cities Dar es Salaam Zanzibar and Lusaka this book provides a critical analysis of the United Nations Sustainable Cities Program in Africa SCP Focusing on the SCP's policies for solid waste management which was identified as the top priority problem by the SCP the book examines the success of these pilot schemes and the SCP's record in building new relationships between people and government It argues that the SCP has operated in a political vacuum without recognition of the long and problematic histories and cultural politics of urban environmental governance in Eastern and Southern Africa This book brings these cultural and political histories to the fore in its examination of the contemporary dynamics In doing so it not only provides an insightful analysis of the policies and outcomes for the SCP but also puts forward a historically grounded critique of neoliberalism good governance and sustainable development discourses Building a Peaceful Nation Paul Bjerk, 2015 A compelling account of the establishment of Tanzania's stable and ambitious government in the face of external threats and internal turmoil Rethinking Conflict Resolution and Management I. W. Zartman, Siniša Vuković, 2023-02-14 Rethinking and revising the established knowledge and practice of conflict resolution and management this innovative book brings together complementary perspectives to consider what novel approaches to conflict need to be invented after the collapse of the World Order The Black Power Movement Peniel E. Joseph, 2013-08-21 The Black Power Movement remains an enigma Often misunderstood and ill defined this radical movement is now beginning to receive sustained and serious scholarly attention Peniel Joseph has collected the freshest and most impressive list of contributors around to write original essays on the Black Power Movement Taken together they provide a critical and much needed historical overview of the Black Power era Offering important examples of undocumented histories of black liberation this volume offers both powerful and poignant examples of Black Power Studies scholarship

Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
