

Revolution of the Word

The background of the cover is a dark, textured surface. It features a series of concentric circles and lines that radiate from a central point, creating a sense of depth and movement. The lines are drawn in a light, sketchy style, giving the impression of a hand-drawn diagram or a map of a celestial body.

Butterick, 1982 This anthology includes many of the major poets to have emerged and gained pre eminence since World War II and whose writing reflects not only the significant changes in this nation's postwar history and the coming to grips with a nuclear age but also an entirely new way of looking at and structuring reality United by their postmodernist concerns with spontaneity instantism formal and syntactic flexibility and the revelation of both the creator and the process through the writing itself these 38 poets represent very diverse strains of an essential American individualism Included are many of the poets whose work first gained widespread national attention with the 1960 publication of The New American Poetry Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg Paul Blackburn LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Denise Levertov Robert Duncan and others Among the poets included here for the first time are Anne Waldman Diane di Prima Ed Sanders Jerome Rothenberg and James Koller In addition to a new preface by

Man from Babel Eugène Jolas, 1998-01-01 The autobiography of Eugene Jolas available for the first time nearly half a century after his death in 1952 is the story of a man who as the editor of the expatriate American literary magazine transition was the first publisher of James Joyce's Finnegans Wake and other signal works of the modernist period Jolas's memoir provides often comical and compelling details about such leading modernist figures as Joyce Stein Hemingway Breton and Gide and about the political aesthetic and social concerns of the Surrealists Expressionists and other literary figures during the 1920s and 1930s Man from Babel both enriches and challenges our view of international modernism and the historical avant garde Born in New Jersey of immigrant parents Jolas moved back to France with them at the age of two He grew up in the borderland of Lorraine and later lived in Paris Berlin London and New York where he pursued a career as a journalist and aspiring poet As an American press officer after the war Jolas was actively involved in the denazification of German intellectual life A champion of the international avant garde he continually sought translinguistic transcultural and suprapolitical bridges that would transform Western culture into a unified continuum Compiled and edited from Jolas's drafts and illustrated with contemporary photographs this memoir not only reveals the multicultural concerns of the man from Babel as Jolas saw himself but also illuminates an entire literary and historical era

The Ends of Theory Jerry Herron, 1996 Featuring diverse disciplines and including creative as well as critical work The Ends of Theory both exemplifies the impact of critical theory and questions its future The sixteen essays in this anthology reflect on the nature and purpose of theoretical work in the humanities and succeed in bridging critical and creative production Contributors include Arthur Danto Paul A Bov Bob Perelman and Steve McCaffery

American Literature in Transition, 1910-1920 Mark W. Van Wienen, 2017-12-28 American Literature in Transition 1910-1920 offers provocative new readings of authors whose innovations are recognized as inaugurating Modernism in US letters including Robert Frost Willa Cather T S Eliot Ezra Pound Gertrude Stein H D and Marianne Moore Gathering the voices of both new and established scholars the volume also reflects the diversity and contradictions of US literature of the 1910s Literature itself is construed variously leading to explorations of jazz the movies and political writing as well as little magazines lantern slides and sports reportage One section of thematic essays cuts across genre boundaries Another section oriented to formats drills deeply into the workings of specific media genres or forms Essays on institutions conclude the collection although a critical mass of contributors throughout explore long term literary and cultural trends where political repression race prejudice war and counterrevolution are no less prominent than experimentation progress and egalitarianism

Montage of a Dream John Edgar Tidwell, Cheryl R. Ragar, 2007 Over a forty six year career Langston Hughes experimented with black folk expressive culture creating an enduring body of extraordinary imaginative and critical writing Riding the crest of African American creative energy from the Harlem Renaissance to the onset of Black Power he commanded an artistic prowess that survives in the legacy he bequeathed to a younger generation of writers including award winners Alice Walker Paule Marshall and Amiri Baraka Montage of a Dream extends and deepens previous scholarship multiplying the ways in which Hughes s diverse body of writing can be explored The contributors including such distinguished scholars as Steven Tracy Trudier Harris Juda Bennett Lorenzo Thomas and Christopher C De Santis carefully reexamine the significance of his work and life for their continuing relevance to American African American and diasporic literatures and cultures Probing anew among Hughes s fiction biographies poetry drama essays and other writings the contributors assert fresh perspectives on the often overlooked Luani of the Jungles and Black Magic and offer insightful rereadings of such familiar pieces as Cora Unashamed Slave on the Block and Not without Laughter In addition to analyzing specific works the contributors astutely consider subjects either lightly explored by or unavailable to earlier scholars including dance queer studies black masculinity and children s literature Some investigate Hughes s use of religious themes and his passion for the blues as the fabric of black art and life others ponder more vexing questions such as Hughes s sexuality and his relationship with his mother as revealed in the letters she sent him in the last decade of her life Montage of a Dream richly captures the power of one man s art to imagine an America holding fast to its ideals while forging unity out of its cultural diversity By showing that Langston Hughes continues to speak to the fundamentals of human nature this comprehensive reconsideration invites a renewed appreciation of Hughes s work and encourages new readers to discover his enduring relevance as they seek to understand the world in which we all live Digital Modernism Jessica

Pressman,2014-01-03 While most critical studies of born digital literature celebrate it as a postmodern art form with roots in contemporary technologies and social interactions Digital Modernism provides an alternative genealogy Grounding her argument in literary history media studies and the practice of close reading Jessica Pressman pairs modernist works by Ezra Pound James Joyce and Bob Brown with major digital works like William Poundstone s Project for the Tachistoscope Bottomless Pit Young hae Chang Heavy Industries s Dakota and Judd Morrissey s The Jew s Daughter to demonstrate how the modernist movement of the 1920s and 1930s laid the groundwork for the innovations of electronic literature Accordingly Digital Modernism makes the case for considering these digital creations as literature and argues for the value of reading them carefully closely and within literary history A Field on Mars Jerome Rothenberg,2016-07-12 Rothenberg says Look hear weigh touch feel consider this is where humans have been this is the signandflesh and signature and shadow of our ancestry and lineage our past present and future this is the trail the human trail this is where there is nothing to hide nothing to fear only sharing infinite sharing Bruce Andrews and Charles Bernstein's L=A=N=G=U=A=G=E Matthew Hofer,Michael Golston,2020-06 In February 1978 the L A N G U A G E newsletter founded and edited by Charles Bernstein and Bruce Andrews established the first public venue for the thriving correspondence of an emerging set of ambitious young poets It circulated fresh perspectives on writing politics and the arts Instead of poems it published short essays and book reviews on the model of the private letter It also featured extensive bibliographies and excerpts of cultural social and political theory Bruce Andrews and Charles Bernstein s L A N G U A G E The Complete Facsimile makes available in print all twelve of the newsletter s original issues along with three supplementary issues American Socialist Triptych Mark Van Wienen,2012 A closer look at three American writers sheds new light on the evolution of socialist thought in the U S The Fourth Dimension and Non-Euclidean Geometry in Modern Art, revised edition Linda Dalrymple Henderson,2018-05-18 The long awaited new edition of a groundbreaking work on the impact of alternative concepts of space on modern art In this groundbreaking study first published in 1983 and unavailable for over a decade Linda Dalrymple Henderson demonstrates that two concepts of space beyond immediate perception the curved spaces of non Euclidean geometry and most important a higher fourth dimension of space were central to the development of modern art The possibility of a spatial fourth dimension suggested that our world might be merely a shadow or section of a higher dimensional existence That iconoclastic idea encouraged radical innovation by a variety of early twentieth century artists ranging from French Cubists Italian Futurists and Marcel Duchamp to Max Weber Kazimir Malevich and the artists of De Stijl and Surrealism In an extensive new Reintroduction Henderson surveys the impact of interest in higher dimensions of space in art and culture from the 1950s to 2000 Although largely eclipsed by relativity theory beginning in the 1920s the spatial fourth dimension experienced a resurgence during the later 1950s and 1960s In a remarkable turn of events it has returned as an important theme in contemporary culture in the wake of the emergence in the 1980s of both string theory in physics with its ten or eleven dimensional universes and computer graphics Henderson demonstrates the importance of this new conception of space for figures ranging from Buckminster Fuller Robert Smithson and the Park Place Gallery group in the 1960s to Tony Robbin and digital architect Marcos Novak Imagining Language Jed Rasula,Steve McCaffery,2001 When works such as Joyce s Finnegans Wake and Stein s Tender Buttons were first introduced they went so far beyond prevailing linguistic standards that they were widely considered unreadable if not scandalous Jed Rasula and Steve McCaffery take these and other examples of twentieth century avant garde writing as the starting point for a collection of writings that demonstrates a continuum of creative conjecture on language from antiquity to the present The anthology which spans three millennia generally bypasses chronology in order to illuminate unexpected congruities between seemingly discordant materials Together the writings celebrate the scope and prodigality of linguistic speculation in the West going back to the pre Socratics Kathy Acker Georgina Colby,2016-08-30 An in depth analysis of the work of one of the twentieth centurys most innovative writersKathy Ackers body of work is one of the most significant collections of experimental writing in English In Kathy Acker Writing the Impossible Georgina Colby explores Ackers compositional processes and intricate experimental practices from early poetic exercises written in the 1970s to her final writings in 1997 Through original archival research Colby traces the stages in Ackers writing and draws on her knowledge of unpublished manuscripts notebooks essays illustrations and correspondence to produce new ways of reading Ackers works Rather than treating Acker as a postmodern writer this book argues that Acker continued a radical modernist engagement with the crisis of language and carried out a series of experiments in composition and writing that are comparable in scope and rigor to her modernist predecessors Stein and Joyce Each chapter focuses on a particular compositional method and insists on the importance of avant garde experiment to the process of making new non conventional modes of meaning Combining close attention to the form of Ackers experimental writings with a consideration of the literary cultures from which she emerged Colby positions Acker as a key figure in the American avant garde and a pioneer of contemporary experimental womens writing Key FeaturesExamines unpublished manuscripts notebooks lecture notes letters and manuscripts from the Kathy Acker PapersFeatures eleven previously unpublished images of original manuscripts correspondence and colour illustrations from the Kathy Acker PapersUtilises major archival study of Ackers experimental compositional practicesSituates Acker as a late modernist writer and a key figure in the American Avant Garde

The Letters of Robert Duncan and Denise Levertov Robert Edward Duncan, Robert J. Bertholf, Albert Gelpi, 2004 This volume presents the complete correspondence between two of the most important and influential American poets of the postwar period The almost 500 letters range widely over the poetry scene and the issues that made the period so lively and productive But what gives the exchange its special personal and literary resonance is the sense of spiritual affinity and shared conviction about the power of the visionary imagination Duncan and Levertov explore these matters in rich detail until under the stress of dealing with the Vietnam War in poetry they discover deep seated differences in the religious and ethical convictions underlying their politics and poetic stance The issues that drew them together and those that drove them apart create a powerful personal drama with far reaching historical and cultural significance The editors have provided a critical Introduction full notes a chronology and a glossary of names

I Am a Beautiful Monster Francis Picabia, 2012-02-10 The first definitive edition in English of writings by poet painter pickpocket plagiarist and consummate anti artist Francis Picabia one of Dada s leading figures Poet painter self described funny guy idiot failure pickpocket and anti artist par excellence Francis Picabia was a defining figure in the Dada movement indeed Andr Breton called Picabia one of the only true Dadas Yet very little of Picabia s poetry and prose has been translated into English and his literary experiments have never been the subject of close critical study I Am a Beautiful Monster is the first definitive edition in English of Picabia s writings gathering a sizable array of Picabia s poetry and prose and most importantly providing a critical context for it with an extensive introduction and detailed notes by the translator Picabia s poetry and prose is belligerent abstract polemical radical and sometimes simply baffling For too long Picabia s writings have been presented as raw events rule breaking manifestations of inspirational carpe diem This book reveals them to be something entirely different maddening in their resistance to meaning full of outrageous posturing and hiding a frail confused and fitful personality behind egoistic bravura I Am a Beautiful Monster provides the texts of of Picabia's significant publications all presented complete many of them accompanied by their original illustrations
