Revolution of the Mind Mark Polizzotti,2009 Aptly described by playwright Eugene Ionesco as one of the four or five great reformers of modern thought Andre Breton 1896 1966 was the founder and prime mover of Surrealism the most influential artistic and literary movement of the 20th century Poet and theorist artistic impresario and political agitator Breton was a man of paradoxical character inspiring one moment crushingly tyrannical the next embracing friends like Brunel Dali Duchamp Miro Man Ray Aragon and Eluard only to exile them as enemies later From its emergence from Dada after World War I through its culmination in the 1960s here is the Surrealist world in detail Black Widow Press

Manifestoes of Surrealism André Breton,2020-07-04 A collection of both of the Manifestoes of Surrealism written by Andre Breton in 1924 and 1929 The pocket book size to make the two manifestoes more accessible in print without being part of some collected works Surrealism Nathalia Brodskaja,2015-09-15 Surrealists appeared in the aftermath of World War I with a bang revolution of thought creativity and the wish to break away from the past and all that was left in ruins This refusal to integrate into the bourgeois society was also a leitmotiv of Dada artists and Andr Breton asserted that Dada does not produce perspective Surrealism emerged amidst such feeling Surrealists and Dada artists often changed from one movement to another They were united by their superior intellectualism and the common goal to break free from the norm Describing the Surrealists with their aversive resistance to the system the author brings a new approach which strives to be relative and truthful Provocation and cultural revolution aren t Surrealists after all just a direct product of creative individualism in this unsettled period
