Long Ships And Round Ships:

Long-ships from the beginning of the Christian era to end of the Crusades John Forsyth Meigs, 1924 The Art and Archaeology of Venetian Ships and Boats Lillian Ray Martin, 2001 Presents a brief history of Venetian art and then catalogues each known piece of Venetian art that depicts watercraft Through detailed analysis of these images the author reveals important facts about the construction rigging and use of these watercraft Venetian Ships and Shipbuilders of the Renaissance Frederic Chapin Lane, 2018-12-01 ORIGINALLY published in 1934 this major study by Frederic Lane tracks the rise and decline of the great shipbuilding industry of Renaissance Venice Drawing on a wealth of archival sources Lane presents detailed descriptions of the Venetian arsenal including the great galleys that doubled as cargo ships and warships the sixteenth century round ships which introduced dramatic innovations in rigging and were less vulnerable to attack than the galleys and the majestic galleons whose straight lines and greater speed made them ideal for merchantmen but whose narrowness made them liable to capsize if loaded with artillery Lane also includes vivid accounts of the rivalries between the famous shipbuilders of the period There was the impassioned competition between Leonardo Bressan and Marco Francesco Rosso to design the quickest lightest galley a contest that Bressan won when Rosso was crushed to death the race between Vettor Fausto and Matteo Bressan to build the best galleon for use against pirates and the rivalry between Bernardo di Bernardo and Nicol Palopano to be the master builder of great merchant galleys Additional chapters detail the actual process of ship construction from the design stage to framing and ribbing the hull to building the rigging the organization and activity of the shipbuilders craft guilds and the various private shipyards and the development and management of the Arsenal Tables and appendixes detail the types measurements number and capacity of the ships as well as the wages of the shipbuilders The Book of Old Ships Henry B. Culver, 2012-09-26 DIV Superb authoritative history of sailing vessels with 80 magnificent line illustrations Galley bark caravel longship whaler many more Detailed informative text on each vessel by noted naval historian Introduction div The Edinburgh Review Or Critical Journal , 1804 The Edinburgh Review , 1804 The Edinburgh Review, Or Critical Journal: ... To Be Continued Quarterly , 1804 A Brief History of Venice Elizabeth Horodowich, 2013-02-07 In this colourful new history of Venice Elizabeth Horodowich one of the leading experts on Venice tells the story of the place from its ancient origins and its early days as a multicultural trading city where Christians Jews and Muslims lived together at the crossroads between East and West She explores the often overlooked role of Venice alongside Florence and Rome as one of the principal Renaissance capitals Now as the resident population falls and the number of tourists grows as brash new advertisements disfigure the ancient buildings she looks at the threat from the rising water level and the future of one of the great wonders of the world The History Of Greece William Mitford, 1808 A History of Sea Power William Oliver Stevens, Allan F. Westcott, 2022-09-04 A History of Sea Power is a meticulously curated anthology that navigates through the expansive and tumultuous waters of naval history The collection artfully examines the crucial role of sea power from ancient times to modern day conflicts offering a wide ranging exploration of maritime influence on global dynamics The pieces encompass a spectrum of literary styles from rigorous academic analysis to captivating historical narratives each contributing to a comprehensive understanding of the subject Standout pieces include those that vividly depict pivotal naval battles and the evolution of maritime strategy underscoring the transformative impact of sea power on the course of history Authors William Oliver Stevens and Allan F Westcott bring an authoritative voice to this anthology drawing from their extensive backgrounds in naval history and maritime strategy Their editorial oversight ensures that the collection thoughtfully engages with various historical cultural and strategic facets of sea power By integrating voices from diverse historical contexts the anthology aligns with both scholarly research and a broader initiative to recognize the intersection of naval strength and global influence The varied contributions create a tapestry that deepens the reader's appreciation of historical and contemporary maritime affairs This collection stands as a vital resource for readers eager to explore the profound influence of naval forces across eras A History of Sea Power offers a unique opportunity to engage with a multiplicity of perspectives and styles each piece contributing to a dialogue that bridges past and present It is recommended for anyone seeking an educational and insightful journey through the complexities of sea power its historical significance and its enduring legacy on the world stage

The Works of James William Gilbart ...: Lectures and essays James William Gilbart,1865 Lectures and essays James William Gilbart,1865 Sailing Ships and Their Story :the Story of Their Development from the Earliest Times to the Present Day Edward Keble Chatterton,1915 Lepanto 1571

Nic Fields,2021-05-04 A military historian s enlightening reassessment of the famous 16th century naval battle between the Ottoman Empire and Pope Pius V s Holy League The battle of Lepanto has long been considered one of the decisive naval battles of history Yet the savage fighting on October 7th 1571 left the strategic map unchanged The defeated Ottoman Turks were able to replace their losses and launch a new fleet the following year In Lepanto 1571 historian Nic Fields reexamines the battle and concludes that its importance was psychological It sank the perception of Ottoman dominance and the inevitability of Islam s westward encroachment beyond the Balkans With over 200 ships per side it was the largest naval battle in sixteen centuries and the last major fight between fleets composed entirely of the muscle driven galley These slender ships were the direct descendants of the Classical trireme but carried cannon and marines bearing firearms although massed archery and cold steel still played a major role on the fateful day Nic Fields gives an excellent account of this fascinating and spectacular battle The Cambridge World History: Volume 5, Expanding Webs of Exchange and Conflict, 500CE-1500CE Benjamin Z. Kedar,Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks,2015-04-09 Volume 5 of the Cambridge World History series uncovers the cross cultural exchange and conquest and the accompanying growth of regional and trans regional states religions and economic systems during the period 500 to 1500 CE The volume begins by outlining a series of core issues and processes across the world including human relations with nature gender and family social hierarchies education and warfare Further essays examine maritime and land based networks of long distance trade and migration in agricultural and nomadic societies and the transmission and exchange of cultural forms scientific knowledge technologies and text based religious systems that accompanied these The final section surveys the development of centralized regional states and empires in both the eastern and western hemispheres Together these essays by an international team of leading authors show how processes furthering cultural commercial and political integration within and between various regions of the world made this millennium a proto global era The Cambridge World History Merry E.
