Fort Dundas Derek Pugh,2018-10-01 Fort Dundas was the first outpost of Europeans in Australia's north It was a British fortification manned by soldiers marines and convicts and built by them on remote Melville Island in 1824 It lasted until February 1829 when it was abandoned and left to the termites The fort's purpose was twofold Firstly it was a physical demonstration of Britain's claim to the New Holland continent as far as longitude 129E which excluded the Dutch and the French from starting similar colonies and it was the first of a series of fortified locations around the coast Secondly it was promoted as the start of a British trading post that would become a second Singapore and compete with Batavia The settlement was named in a ceremony on 21 October 1824 but it was not a success In its short existence we have tales of great privation survival greed piracy slavery murder kidnapping scurvy and battles with the Indigenous inhabitants of the islands the Tiwi It was also the site of the first European wedding and the birth of the first European children in northern Australia None of the three military commandants who managed the outpost wanted to be there and all were gratefully relieved after their posting They left behind thirty four dead victims of disease poor diet and Tiwi spears Others died when the crews of the fort's supply ships were slaughtered and beheaded by Malay pirates on islands to the north Two cabin boys from one of them the Stedcombe were enslaved by the pirates What happened at Fort Dundas and why it was abandoned has been largely untold Nevertheless it is one of the most engaging stories of nineteenth century Australia

Diary of a Film Niven Govinden,2022-06-28 In this highly lauded novel a filmmaker meets a woman named Cosima at an Italian espresso bar spinning a gorgeous tale of love and the creative process An auteur together with his lead actors is at a prestigious European festival to premiere his latest film Alone one morning at a backstreet caf he strikes up a conversation with a local woman who takes him on a walk to uncover the city's secrets historic and personal As the walk unwinds a story of love and tragedy emerges and he begins to see the chance meeting as fate He is entranced wholly clear in his mind her story must surely form the basis for his next film This is a novel about cinema fl neurons and queer love it is about the sometimes troubled sometimes ecstatic creative process and the toll it takes on its makers But it is also a novel about stories and the persistent question of who has the right to tell them
