The year 1988 was notable for being the centennial of playwright Eugene O'Neill's birth and a time of unprecedented democratization in the People's Republic of China and rapprochement with the West. In this optimal climate a remarkable festival and conference devoted to O'Neill was held in Nanjing, China, orchestrated mainly by Haiping Liu, who secured the funds and cooperation necessary to lure noted O'Neill scholars and theatre artists from around the world. Liu selected and edited papers for publication after the conference but he realized that this would be a difficult task conducted from China. At his invitation, Lowell Swortzell, a conference participant, became co-editor and in the dark days following the political upheaval in China in 1989, Swortzell assumed much of the burden of editing, organizing, clearing rights, and generally readying the final volume. The essays included capture the intellectual and artistic stimulation of the conference. Organized in divisions similar to the order in which the papers were delivered, they explore the major areas of O'Neill scholarship by some of the most renowned scholars from the United States, Western and Eastern Europe, Japan, and China. They emphasize O'Neill's international reputation and productions, particularly in Asia. Included is an open forum discussion of the festival productions as well as photographs. The circumstances of the festival and conference are a story unto themselves, and in their individual introductions, the co-editors relate some of the background and convey some of the flavor of the events, providing insights into the continued appeal of O'Neill in China and the world.

Rawhide Ranger, Ira Aten Bob Alexander, 2011

Ira Aten was the epitome of a frontier lawman. He enrolled in Company D of the Texas Rangers during the transition from Indian fighters to peace officers. The years Ira spent as a Ranger were packed with adventure, border troubles, shoot-outs, major crimes, and manhunts. Aten's role in these events earned him a spot in the Ranger Hall of Fame.

Perhaps the Stars Ada Palmer, 2021-11-02

From the 2017 John W. Campbell Award Winner for Best Writer, Ada Palmer's Perhaps the Stars is the final book of the Hugo Award shortlisted Terra Ignota series. World Peace turns into global civil war. In the future, the leaders of Hive Nations, nations without fixed location, clandestinely committed nefarious deeds in order to maintain an outward semblance of utopian stability. But the facade could only last so long. The comforts of effortless global travel and worldwide abundance may have tempered humanity's darkest inclinations, but conflict remains deeply rooted in the human psyche. All it needed was a catalyst in the form of a special little boy to ignite half a millennium of repressed chaos. Now war spreads throughout the globe splintering old alliances and awakening sleeping enmities All transportation systems are in ruins causing the tyranny of distance to fracture a long united Earth and threaten to obliterate everything the Hive system built With the arch criminal Mycroft nowhere to be found his successor Ninth Anonymous must not only chronicle the discord of war but attempt to restore order in a world spiraling closer to irreparable ruin The fate of a broken society hangs in the balance Is the key to salvation to remain Earth bound or perhaps to start anew throughout the far reaches of the stars At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute,1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory Arthur Schlesinger Jr The Builder ,1880 The Morning Star and Free Baptist ,1902 Youth's Companion ,1875 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
