Latham Diaries Mark Latham,2011-04-01 Here are the political diaries of one of Australia s most promising national leaders published within twelve months of his resignation from office an historic first The Latham Diaries are searingly honest bulletins from the front line of Labor politics They provide a unique view into the life of a man the Party and the nation at a crucial time in Australian history Mark Latham resigned from parliament in January 2005 after only fourteen months as Leader of the Opposition amid bitter post election recrimination and his own ill health From the beginning of his career he was viewed by many observers as the ALP s resident intellectual and larrikin the great hope of a new generation with the drive and talent to become prime minister So why did his career end so abruptly As The Latham Diaries reveal the rising tide of public cynicism about politics the cult of celebrity the dangerous liaison between politics and the media and the sickness at the heart of the Labor machine all played their part As did Latham s own errors as he candidly records in these diaries This is a riveting chronicle of life inside politics the backroom deals the frontroom conniving the bitter defeat of idealism and the triumph of opportunism The Latham Diaries is not just the story of the Labor Party in the last years of the twentieth century and the early twenty first century but a sobering account of the state of Australian democracy 100 years after Federation John Winston Howard Peter Van Onselen,Wayne Errington,2008 A portrait of one of Australia s longest serving prime ministers this biography goes behind the public image to find neither the strong willed man of principle his supporters like to imagine nor the cunning opportunist painted by his foes The discussion covers Howard s suburban middle class upbringing and his success at implementing his policies concluding that although the image of the ordinary bloke has helped his enduring popularity heandmdash like George Bushandmdash possesses a number of uncommon strengths that have made him one of the most formidable leaders in Australian political history Historical Dictionary of Australia Norman Abjorensen,James C. Routledge International Handbook on Electoral Debates Julio Juárez-Gámiz, Christina Holtz-Bacha, Alan Schroeder, 2020-04-29 This Handbook is the first major work to comprehensively map state of the art scholarship on electoral debates in comparative perspective. Leading scholars and practitioners from around the world introduce a core theoretical and conceptual framework to understand this phenomenon and point to promising directions for new research on the evolution of electoral debates and the practical considerations that different country level experiences can offer. Three indicators to help analyze electoral debates inform this Handbook: the level of experience of each country in the realization of electoral debates; geopolitical characteristics linked to political influence and democratic stability; and electoral competitiveness. Chapters with examples from the Americas, Europe, Africa and the Middle East, Asia and Oceania add richness to the volume. Each chapter traces local historical constitutive relationships between traditional forms of electoral debates and contexts of their emergence. Compares and critiques different perspectives regarding the function of debates on democracy. Probes, discusses and evaluates recent and emergent theoretical resources related to campaign debates in light of a particular local experience. Explores and assesses new or neglected local approaches to electoral debates in a changing media landscape where television is no longer the dominant form of political communication. Provides a prospective analysis regarding the future challenges for electoral debates. The Routledge International Handbook on Electoral Debates will set the agenda for scholarship on the political communication for years to come.

Quarterly Essay 35 Radical Hope Noel Pearson, 2009-10-01 In Radical Hope one of Australia's most original and provocative thinkers turns his attention to the question of education. Noel Pearson begins with two fundamental questions: How to ensure the survival of a people, their culture and way of life? And can education transform the lives of the disadvantaged many or will it at best raise up a fortunate few? In an essay that is personal and philosophical, wide ranging and politically engaged, Pearson discusses what makes a good teacher and recalls his own mentors and inspirations. He argues powerfully that underclass students, many of whom are Aboriginal, should receive a rigorous schooling that gives them the means to negotiate the wider world. He examines the long term failure of educational policy in Australia, especially in the indigenous sector, and asks why it is always Groundhog Day when there are lessons to be learned from innovations now underway. This is an essay filled with ideas and arguments and information from a little known educational revolutionary named Siegfried Englemann to the No Excuses ethos and the Knowledge Is Power program to Barack Obama's efforts to balance individual responsibility and historical legacy. Pearson introduces new findings from research and practice and takes on some of the most difficult and controversial issues. Throughout he searches for the radical centre, the way forward that will raise up the many, preserve culture and ensure no child is left behind. It is time to ask: are we Aborigines a serious people Do we have the seriousness necessary to maintain our languages traditions and knowledge The truth is that I am prone to bouts of doubt and sadness around these questions But I have hope Our hope is dependent upon education Our hope depends on how serious we become about the education of our people Noel Pearson Radical Hope A work of universal significance in which Pearson once again shows himself to be Australia s most powerful contemporary thinker His essay is essential reading for all who care about the true nature of the society we have created in Australia For the first time in my life I encountered here a mature insight into the private hells produced by the very kind of failed education I received as a boy growing up at the bottom of a class ridden culture in London after the war Alex Miller

The Forest Wars Judith Ajani,2007 After four decades the wars over Australia s forests continue to collect scalps and to make strange bedfellows of politicians And yet as forest expert Judith Ajani contends Australia is in the enviable position of being able to meet nearly all its wood needs from economically superior plantations We have the potential to benefit fully from the value of native forests as carbon sinks water catchments and wildlife habitat There is no irreconcilable conflict between development and environment publisher

Stop at Nothing Annabel Crabb,2009-06-01 What does Malcolm Turnbull stand for In Stop at Nothing Annabel Crabb tells the story of the man who would be prime minister Based on extensive interviews with Turnbull as well as those who have worked with him this is an essay full of revelations Crabb delves into young Malcolm s university exploits which included co authoring a musical with Bob Ellis and his remarkable relationship with Kerry Packer the man for whom he was at first a prized attack dog and then a mortal enemy She asks whether Turnbull colourful aggressive humorous and ruthless has what it takes to re invigorate the Australian Liberal Party in the wake of John Howard She discusses his vexed relationship with Kevin Rudd and the looming presence of Peter Costello This is a scintillating portrait by one of the country s most incisive reporters How would Australia be different if he were prime minister What are his most closely held policy convictions I asked dozens of Malcolm Turnbull s political colleagues this question asking them to name three Many of them had to pause before responding You ll have to excuse me I m eating some chocolate was the best initial response from a Liberal on the other end of a phone line Annabel Crabb Stop at Nothing This issue also contains correspondence discussing Quarterly Essay 33 Quarry Vision from Patrice Newell Bernard Keane Robert Merkel Brian Toohey John Hewson David Karoly and Guy Pearse
