

A black and white photograph of a person's silhouette walking away on a path covered in fallen leaves. The person is on the left side of the frame, walking towards the right. The path is covered in a thick layer of fallen leaves, and the background is a dense forest. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Fanthorpe, 2014-02-27 The human personality had been defined by leading psychologists as the integrated and dynamic organisation of psychical mental moral and social qualities A personality is the product of heredity and environment Every experience records itself in the neurons of the brain producing an almost infinite number of possible combinations Brains are as individual as fingerprints In an infinite universe however there is a possibility that somewhere separated by vast distances of Time and Space two exactly similar brains exist The strange telepathic bonds between identical twins could operate between identical minds Melinda Tracey was a practical intelligent modern girl who didn't believe in dreams even recurring dreams but her odd sleep experiences of the ruined city and the strangely suited figure who searched it disturbed her considerably What incredible psychological bond linked Melinda to the lonely stranger probing the wreckage of an alien metropolis New York Review of the Telegraph and Telephone and Electrical Journal, 1910 The Art of Speech

Langman, Dawn, 2014-10-06 The Art of Speech offers to the English language a systematic in depth and thoroughly readable exploration of Rudolf Steiner's original exercises Langman's contribution developed over decades of research performance and teaching is filled with relevance for today's speech artists The powerful spiritual inspirations that stand behind the spoken word are infused throughout giving this book its wings Dr Diane Caracciolo Associate Professor of Educational Theatre Adelphi University Langman's seminal work leads the artist through a portal to an experience of the heart and the genius of speech as the activity of divine creative beings Dr Jane Gilmer Assistant Professor of Drama VPA National Institute of Education Singapore A prodigious work intriguing enlightening and passionate and the co ordination with Chekhov invaluable Those fortunate enough to see Dawn's solo performances of King Lear and Kaspar Hauser know that this book is the fruit of living and loving experience Sophia Walsh pioneer teacher and artist of Speech Formation in the English language Dornach Switzerland The Art of Speech presents a dynamic path of practice leading to an experience of the Word as a living healing and creative power Helping to deliver Western intellectual speech from what Artaud described as shrivelled throats and monstrous talking abstractions Langman brings to life the spiritual realities out of which a true Art of

Speech arises Inspired by Rudolf Steiner and pioneered initially in the German language by Marie Steiner this artform is illuminated here through the genius of the English language Langman builds a bridge between mainstream research into the intrinsic nature of Speech and the levels of spiritual cognition that led to Rudolf Steiner s insights Speech and language can no longer be reduced to an arbitrary collection of abstract symbols she asserts This book will inspire those working with these disciplines as practitioners both artistic and therapeutic as well as those who wish to understand their significance in human evolution both past and future Following her first book The Art of Acting this volume completes a foundation of understanding for an exploration in the conclusion of Langman s trilogy of an integrated art of speech and acting Grounded in the spiritual reality of the human being Langman presents a systematic methodology with which to explore Rudolf Steiner s Speech and Drama Course
