Working with Bereaved Children and Young People Brenda Mallon, 2010-11-15 Working with Bereaved Children and Young People offers a fresh insight into working practices with children and young people who are experiencing the death of a family member friend school peer or in their social network Bridging the gap between theory and practice the book s practical skills focus is informed by the latest research findings on children and young people's experience of grief. The wide-ranging content includes a comprehensive review of theoretical approaches to bereavement, the impact of different types of grief on children, working with children who have been bereaved in traumatic circumstances such as through criminal behaviour, skills development. The list of resources, case studies and exercises encourage critical engagement with the counselling theory and promote reflexive practice. Trainees in counselling psychotherapy and social work as well as teachers and mental health workers will find this an invaluable resource for working with this vulnerable client group. RCM Midwives Journal, 2001 Maternal and Newborn Care Joanita De Kock, Christa Van der Walt, 2004. The midwife's role is examined in the community and family health context in this handbook on effective maternal and newborn care for midwives and other healthcare providers. The skills, competencies and knowledge required to make informed decisions about neo and postnatal care are covered, including anatomy and the physiology of reproduction, high risk pregnancies and labor and birth. Theoretical and practical issues illuminate a midwife's role in the prevention of illness in mothers and babies with attention to the unique challenges of midwifery in developing nations. Insights from current research studies and critical questions about midwife practice will help those new to health care understand the unique challenges of this form of health service delivery.
